

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 223: Reincarnation

Xiao Yurong only snapped back to his senses after putting down the brush. He was stunned as he looked at the papers before him.

'It was so smooth?'

It felt like he had become his younger self earlier. He used to be elegant, and poems and songs would flow as soon as he opened his mouth. It had been years since he had this feeling!

Xiao Yurong recalled something and pressed on the talisman in his embrace instantly.

"S-Senior Sister Mo wasn't lying! I-I'm guilty, guilty!" Xiao Yurong was instantly upset.

He thought he had betrayed Senior Sister Mo's kindness.

He had been under the impression Senior Sister Mo's business was shady. Never had he thought that his Senior Sister was capable!

It was no wonder that his Master had asked them not to disturb their Senior Sister. Perhaps he was worried that they would interrupt their Senior Sister's cultivation?!

Xiao Yurong was eager to see Mo Chusheng right away. He wanted to apologize for his mistake, as well as buy more talismans. Thus, he went to the Fortune Pavilion early the next morning.

However, the talismans on the first floor were sold out!

All of the Academic Excellence Talismans and Pregnancy Talismans were sold out!

“Teacher Xiao, many people thought that our boss is capable since she expelled evil at the wax shop the other day, so business has been great the past few days. She’s been busy lately and has no time to inscribe new talismans, so...” The shopkeeper smiled, feeling bad.

He subsequently said, “Although the talismans are sold out, we have Dharmic instruments. They’re quality items that have been consecrated. Didn’t Teacher Xiao purchase one earlier? We have even better ones here. Also, the Winter Clothes Day is coming. If you’d like to burn something for your ancestors, we have these too...”

The shopkeepers presented the tiny wooden dolls that Xie Qiao had carved as he spoke.

Apart from wooden dolls, there were things such as wooden boats and houses.

They were not as complete as the paper dolls at the funeral parlors, but they were exquisite and pretty. However, they were expensive; that was why they had not been sold.

Teacher Xiao sighed, feeling sorry for himself. Eventually, he bought a tiny wooden house.

Burn for his ancestors?

No. The wooden house was pretty, so he bought it as a decorative item.

At present, Xie Qiao was actually on the second floor.

The Wei parents were here.

Xie Qiao brought out a tiny porcelain bottle. There were cow's tears inside. She pasted a talisman on each of the parents and wiped the cow's tear on them. The scene before them seemed to have changed a little bit.

It felt creepier now.

Xie Qiao called out to the Wei daughter's spirit.

"You guys can only watch, do not speak," Xie Qiao said immediately.

The mother had tears dripping. She extended her hand in her daughter's direction. However, her daughter was just an illusionary spirit now. How would she be able to touch her?

In reality, they could speak to her. However, there would be great trouble if they did.

After sending off the daughter, the couple would have to return home.

After speaking to a spirit, the aura on them would be different. They would definitely attract more ghouls, so... They should be grateful. It was good enough that they could see their daughter.

Xie Qiao began the ceremony.

She had the statue of the god and the ghouls around. She started chanting as soon as a barrier was created.

She released their souls and reincarnated them, guiding and blessing the souls.

Xie Qiao repeated that a couple of times, it was a busy day. After all, there were many souls.

The Wei family's daughter was queuing at the back, so her parents could see her more. However, when the time was up, the parents could only watch their daughter's soul vanish before their eyes.

After sending off the Wei family's daughter, Xie Qiao said to the parents in exhaustion, "You guys will definitely see some... unusual things today. Remember not to be surprised by that. There are many ghouls in the world that are mischievous. If they learn you can see them, they will pull your leg on purpose. It'll get better after today, but you may see one or two occasionally. However, it'll be completely over after half a month at most."

The Wei parents were nervous.

They were not scared when they were watching their daughter. However, now that she was gone and thinking that they would see other ghouls later on... their hearts were jumping out of their chests.
