

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 249: I Don't Know Anything

Xie Niushan could roughly understand.

He was angry. He said immediately, "I'll look for Qiao and ask her about it."

Xie Niushan strode out.

Xie Pinggang heard as soon as he came in. He knew that his father must have been fooled again, so he waited for him at the main courtyard's entrance.

Seeing that he was in such a hurry, he immediately felt disgusted. "Father, what kind of thing did you marry? She doesn't understand human language at all! Didn't you tell her before that no matter how serious the matter is, we'll talk about it when we get back? She's not allowed to go to Eldest Sister's courtyard. Doesn't she understand that?!"

Xie Niushan opened his mouth feeling speechless.

That was right, he had said that before!

He was almost fooled!

"I've already told her, but she's free to move around. What can I do?" Xie Niushan was upset.

“There’s also Yuan Rong. He deserves what happened to him this time. What kind of person dares to step into the young miss’ courtyard? If it were me, I would’ve shot an arrow through his head!” Xie Pinggang added.

With that said, Xie Niushan calmed down a little.

“Alright. Let’s ask your sister what happened.” Xie Niushan sighed.

Xie Pinghuai happened to come at this time. The father and sons went to Xie Qiao’s courtyard.

After entering, they saw blood on the ground.

They frowned.

The sky was dark. Xie Qiao went back to her room so that she would not catch a cold.

She sat there and translated some foreign texts. She wanted to do more during this holiday so that she could earn some silver beans to make up for her previous losses.

The father and sons stood at the door, feeling rather awkward.

“What are you guys standing there for? Are you guys guarding the door?” Xie Qiao put down her brush and said in an unfriendly tone.

Xie Niushan jolted. He glanced at Xie Pinggang and whispered, “She’s throwing a tantrum at us...”

Xie Pinggang glared at him.

Who was to blame?!

Xie Qiao got up and asked Chun Er to prepare tea.

“I’m just here to ask what happened during the day. We weren’t at home. If there’s any conflict between the two of you, it would be chaotic at home...” Xie Niushan said in a low voice. He did not seem to have much confidence.

He was indeed a little scared of this daughter of his.

It was because his official position was given to him by Xie Qiao. Back then, if Xie Qiao had not written a letter to him asking him to beat up the barbarians and exchange his merits for an official position, his life would not be so comfortable now.

Moreover, this daughter was different from his sons. She was soft and gentle, and her voice was delicate like feathers. If his voice was too loud, it would scare her to death.

Most importantly, when he saw his eldest daughter, he thought of his first wife, Ms. Peng, the tigress.

When his wife beat him, she never showed mercy.

Although Xie Qiao looked much more charming than Ms. Peng, and even though she did not look like her mother, her sarcastic tone...

It sounded interesting.

“Who did Father say was my Mother?” Xie Qiao did not even look at Xie Niushan and sneered indifferently, “My Mother was reincarnated a long time ago. Who is this person even? I called her Mother twice just to be polite, and you actually took it seriously?”

Xie Niushan gulped.

“What exactly happened?!”

Chun Er came in.

She looked furious, “How could you ask that?! My young miss almost died, and you’ve no idea about it?!”

Chun Er was fearless.

Xie Niushan’s heart skipped a beat, “I’ve just returned home, how could I have known that...”

“You don’t know anything, yet you’re here to stir trouble for my young lady! Aren’t you biased?” Chun Er asked again.

Xie Niushan felt that he had been shot twice, “Stop your nonsense. What happened during the day?”

How did his prideful daughter almost die?!
