

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 320: Blood Pill

Qi Huai was panicking a little. His original intention was to avenge Dong Xiyun and make Xie Qiao apologize. However, if he allowed others to have a deeper misunderstanding of Young Lady Dong, then she would be even more heartbroken.

At that moment, Qi Huai tried his best to explain, but the eyes of others were still filled with disdain.

He was anxious.

“Young Lady Dong has been well-versed in the Four Books and Five Classics since she was young. She’s righteous. She’s not what Young Lady Xie said at all!” Qi Huai immediately said.

“According to what you said, she has read a lot of books, so whatever she did makes sense?”

Xie Qiao thought Qi Huai was courting death.

Qi Huai did not directly admit it.

However, he was not backing off, “Young Lady Xie, you haven’t read any books since you were a child. Naturally, you don’t know what a scholar’s temperament is like. Young Lady Dong has the universe in her heart and is above board. She disdains scheming and plotting against people. We admire Young Lady Dong’s talent, and we also know that she doesn’t complain about fighting with others, so we are willing to stand up for her! It’s just that all of you... have terrible thoughts in your hearts. That’s why you guys come up with so much nonsense and slander others!”

Young Lady Dong was right. All the girls at the Orchid Courtyard were jealous of her!

Look at all these people. They were all eager for Young Lady Dong's reputation to be ruined!

Fang Muxue and the others were almost angered to death.

Filthy thoughts in their hearts?!

They had also read quite a few books!

However, Dong Xiyun was indeed very talented. Therefore, even though Fang Muxue and the others were angry, they were also a little sullen.

"I understand what you mean. A person who has just learned well will have a clean mind," Xie Qiao nodded, "In that case... tell Dong Xiyun that if she is not as talented as me in this examination, she must remember to apologize to me and Eldest Brother because of her vicious mind."

"Wh-What?" Qi Huai was stunned for a moment.

"Didn't you say that? She has read a lot, so she disdains lying? Isn't that the same principle applied to others?" Xie Qiao frowned.

Qi Huai laughed from the anger.

Xie Qiao wanted to compete with Dong Xiyun.

How could she be compared with Dong Xiyun?!

Dong Xiyun started reading at the age of three. When she came to the Royal Academy at the age of ten, she had already made a name for herself. Her calligraphy, paintings, poems and wisdom were not inferior to any other men!

What did Xie Qiao have? She was just a sickly lady!

However, as long as she would apologize to Young Lady Dong, his goal would be achieved.

“Alright, after the examination is over, you can apologize to Young Lady Dong,” Qi Huai said again.

His voice was a matter of course.

Xie Qiao could not help but shake her head.

This infatuated man was blind and brainless. Even if he was alive, he was still a walking corpse, wasting the air.

Xie Qiao hurriedly took a deep breath, “Since that’s the case, scram, idiots. You guys are too noisy.”

As she said that, she raised her hand and waved it in disdain.

The bell on her wrist rang, and her mind calmed down a little.

Qi Huai and the others snorted and left fiercely and confidently.

“Xie Qiao, go and see a doctor...” Qin Liu was so anxious that her eyes were a little red.

Xie Qiao always fainted, and now she even vomited blood. How bad was her body?

C-Could it really be that her life was short...

"I didn't vomit blood," Xie Qiao was too embarrassed to continue lying to Qin Liu, "My health is lacking, but recently... I've become much stronger. This is a blood pill. It's crispy on the outside and tender on the inside. With a light bite, the juice will flow out. The juice is red, so it looks a little scary."

Qin Liu blinked her eyes in disbelief.

However, when she took it and sniffed it, it actually smelled quite good!
