

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 350: Eldest Sister is Like A Mother

At that moment, Xie Pinghuai felt a little regretful. He then turned around and looked at Xie Qiao pitifully, "Eldest Sister..."

"Go and apologize to Grandpa Lin, Aunt and Uncle, as well as your brothers and sister who were scared by you," Xie Qiao's attitude was much more serious. She looked even more dignified than usual and did not allow anyone to refute her.

"No," When Xie Pinghuai heard that, he immediately shook his head, "It's embarrassing. I'm not going."

"If you don't go, Eldest Brother will kick you out. You won't be able to take anything from your courtyard. By then, you'll be even poorer than your aunt's family. Not to mention 20 hens, you won't even be able to afford an egg," Xie Qiao said with a smile.

Xie Pinghuai's smile froze on his face.

"Eldest Brother won't be so vicious, right?!" Xie Pinghuai was anxious.

He knew his own abilities. If he was really chased out of the house, he would starve to death!

He did not know anything!

"Eldest Brother would. Eldest Brother will listen to everything I say," Xie Qiao was very proud.

When Xie Pinghuai heard that, his eyes widened and he almost jumped up and pointed at Xie Qiao, “Eldest Sister! Why?!”

How could she treat him like that?!

Although he was fierce to outsiders, he was good to his eldest sister!

“Maybe it’s because I lost face today?” Xie Qiao rubbed his face with her small hands and slowly explained, “As the saying goes, Eldest Sister is like a mother. We don’t have a mother. If you misbehave, then it’d be my fault for being the Eldest Sister. Today, you humiliated the guests and shouted. You’ve really embarrassed me. Younger Brother, think about it. Have I, your Eldest Sister, lost face like that before?”

With that said, Xie Pinghuai felt a little guilty.

His eldest sister was a person who was in the prime of her life.

How could she lose face?

To put it crudely, even if she farted, it would definitely be fragrant.

Today...

His eldest sister was probably a little embarrassed...

Since Xie Qiao had already said this much, Xie Pinghuai knew that he had to apologize. In this family... he had no status! If he did not do as he was told, he would not even be able to eat.

Xie Pinghuai groaned secretly. When he grew up, he would have a lot of money. By then, he would no longer have to be looked down upon by others!

He walked out aggressively!

His insufferably arrogant footsteps and his expression of going all out made him feel like he was facing a great enemy!

Xie Pinghuai went to the side room.

“Grandfather, Aunt, Uncle, Cousin! I’m sorry! I was wrong!” He shouted valiantly.

After he spoke, he immediately ran away.

It was so embarrassing!

In the guest room, Grandpa Lin and the others were shocked.

Then, all of them revealed merciful and touching expressions.

“This child... is just stubborn and soft-hearted. Look, isn’t he quite sensible?” Grandpa Lin said.

“I think it’s most likely that Young Lady Xie used some kind of method to make him lower his head. But no matter what, he can bend and stretch. He knows humility. Not bad,” Lin Yaxiang smiled.

That brat was stubborn, but there was a hint of cowardice in him. He was still young, but he had fire inside of him. He was also an interesting person.

After all, he was her younger sister's child. How could she really be angry with him?

Even if she was angry, she was only angry at Bandit Xie.

He had stolen her younger sister, yet he did not take care of her properly. He had caused her to die in childbirth, and he had left the children behind without much guidance. He was really a barbarian!

The moment Lin Yaxiang thought of Xie Niushan, she wished she could just grab a kitchen knife and chop his head off.

Unfortunately, Xie Niushan was not at home. She heard from Young Lady Xie that... he had sent troops to suppress the bandits?!

It was funny for bandits to suppress the bandits.

Lin Yaxiang still had resentment inside of her, but she knew that this resentment could only be kept in her heart. After all, Bandit Xie was an official now, and he was raising her sister's two children.

She could only criticize him in private.
