

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 447: Still Not Satisfied?

He had been to the Xie Residence twice. The maids and guards in the residence were almost the same, and their looks were very rough.

These two were considered unusual in the Xie Residence. They did not seem like people that Xie Pinggang, that boorish man, would take a fancy to.

“W-We are from Prince Ning Bei’s Residence. We only came today...” the young lady said.

Zhao Xuanjing rubbed between his eyebrows, “Why did Prince Ning Bei’s Residence send you guys to Xie Pinggang?”

Prince Ning Bei was a loyal man. He should not be someone who would give away concubines..

“This humble one was originally with the side concubine. Eldest Young Master took us away. Then, w-we were arranged to come here,” the young lady was very careful. Her voice was trembling, and her body was cold.

When they were called over by Young Master Xie, they had specially changed into the most beautiful clothes. Of course, they were also the most frivolous and convenient.

Now that they were kneeling on the ground, a gust of cold air came from beneath them, and they could not help but feel a chill.

Moreover, the Crown Prince was furious...

“Zhao Xuzhi?” The Crown Prince laughed faintly, “What else did he tell you?”

At that moment, the two young ladies had the thought of dying. The smell of alcohol around His Highness caused their minds to become fuzzy. When they heard this terrifying tone, they felt as if their souls were about to snap out of their body.

“His Highness, the Eldest Young Master only asked us to inquire about Young Lady Xie. He really didn’t ask us to do anything else, much less harm His Highness!”

They could not help but overthink it at that moment.

Why was His Highness so angry?

It must be because Xie Pinggang was His Highness’ confidant. Perhaps Zhao Xuzhi fawned over the Xie family so much just to inquire about His Highness’ whereabouts?!

His Highness must have thought so!

B-But it really was not the case...

The two of them panicked at that moment, “Your Highness, the E-Eldest Young Master told us to find out Young Lady Xie’s preferences. When Young Lady Xie goes out, we’ll send a message to him. So... Eldest Young Master must have only taken a fancy to the lady of the Xie family, which is why he put in so much effort. H-He wasn’t thinking of buttering up Young Master Xie...”

“Only taken a fancy to the lady? Hah,” Zhao Xuanjing licked his lips and smiled.

The two young ladies trembled and did not understand what His Highness meant.

“Send a message to say that Young Lady Xie will go to Yuefeng Restaurant at noon tomorrow,” Zhao Xuanjing rubbed his fingers. He did not look happy or angry, but it made people feel more uneasy.

The two young ladies replied, “Understood.”

“After sending the message, the two of you will go to Xie Pinggang. No matter what you do, I want to see Minister Xie in a terrible state,” Zhao Xuanjing added.

The two of them felt extremely regretful.

They did not know that His Highness was so picky. If they had known earlier, they would have put more effort in Young Master Xie from the beginning!

Great. Young Master Xie strongly believed that they were buttering him up, so how could he care about them now?

And they had to make him suffer...

Thinking of Young Master Xie’s fierce look, they felt that they would not live long.

“Get out of here. Ask the steward to make some hangover soup,” Zhao Xuanjing said.

The two of them immediately got up from the ground when they heard that and ran out anxiously.

The two of them were sensible. They first went to inform the steward, and then immediately went to the dog hole outside the wall according to the Crown Prince's request. They left a letter. Before the sun rose tomorrow morning, someone would take the letter away.

Meanwhile, Xie Pinggang was confused.

"Why did he chase the two of you out?" Xie Pinggang was puzzled.

They were quite pretty. Why was he still not satisfied?
