

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 567: Flawless

Xie Qiao had trouble breathing. Zhao Xuanjing had noticed that long ago.

No matter what she did, she would always hold her breath. She had to finish what she started. Every time, she would exhaust all of her ability and energy before she would give up.

She was stubborn, but she was so kind that it made people unable to be angry at her.

Zhao Xuanjing placed his palm on her forehead.

She did not have a fever. She was probably just exhausted.

The doctor was with her, but he did not dare to get Xie Qiao to take the medicine. After all, her health was lacking, and she had already taken other medicine. If the effects of the medicine were to clash, she would be in big trouble.

Moreover, she had been trying so hard to hide her identity every day. Now that her makeup was so bad, she would be pissed if she found out that she was exposed.

Zhao Xuanjing thought for a moment and looked around in the carriage.

“Where’s Master Mo’s bamboo basket?” Zhao Xuanjing asked.

Soon, the bamboo basket was delivered.

The things inside were not very heavy, and the bamboo basket was well woven. It was light and durable. The things inside were messy and there was everything, but most of them were talismans, cinnabar, some bottles and jars.

He did not touch them randomly, but only found the things for makeup.

After thinking for a while, he cleaned Xie Qiao's face, and then drew Mo Chusheng's disguise on her face one stroke at a time.

It was quite difficult.

Zhao Xuanjing was sweating.

After drawing for two hours, he thought it was perfect.

When Xie Qiao fainted, a beggar on the street in Xun County suddenly spat a mouthful of blood.

He had been wandering the streets for many years, and the place he frequented the most was the Pang family's old house. Now that the old house had been replaced, there was only one member of the Pang family left...

His name was Yue Zhongxing, and his wife was Liu Qiaonu.

When the formation was activated, someone had to bear the consequences. He had to bear the consequences.

Now that the formation had been destroyed, it had naturally backfired on him.

He knew that he had implicated the innocents, but in this world, who would remember that he had been innocently implicated by Pang Xiyuan?!

His wife was just a servant initially, and he was the one who had redeemed her. He was the one who had brought his wife away from her hometown. They were initially living harmoniously and happily. If not for Pang Xiyuan splitting them up, they would have had a child by now...

However, it was enough.

Did he not have many concubines? He got his wife and concubines to go to hell.

After Yue Zhongxing spat a mouthful of blood, he closed his eyes forever.

Good karma was lacking, who knew what his next life would be like? Perhaps he would have to suffer and pay for his sins?

...

Xie Qiao fell asleep, and the Crown Prince's men dug up the grave.

The bones inside were all decent. They did not stack up and fall, but they could still be separated. They were removed one by one and wiped clean.

As for Pang Xiyuan's, he was casually buried and an extremely simple monument was erected with wood.

Elder Li looked at the number of people who had died and was shocked.

He could only wait for Xie Qiao to wake up patiently so that he could arrange for the burial.

The convoy went to Xun County first and stored the bones in a temporary funeral home.

Xie Qiao slept for a whole day and night. When she woke up, her mind was in a daze. Fortunately, she was not completely out of it and quickly touched her face.

Although her makeup was waterproof, it could not be soaked in the rain for too long!

Could it be that... she had been exposed?!

However, when she touched her face, it was strange. Her makeup was fine and it did not smudge at all!

She picked up the mirror to check, Xie Qiao was shocked by her superb makeup skill.

Look, it was flawless!
