

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 638: Martial Arts Master

Lin Yaxiang was not a weak and incompetent person.

Now that she saw that martial arts master being unreasonable and that she could not beat him, she decided to shout shamelessly.

“Go ahead! I don’t have money, I only have my life! I’m standing here now. If you dare to touch a single hair on my head, try it! Even if I’ll have to crawl to the authorities, I’ll sue you for stirring up trouble!”

How did she survive all these years?

Back then, other than her father, there were no other men in the family. It was all because of her fearless temper that her two beautiful sisters were able to grow up safely!

When the martial arts master saw that this woman was quite difficult to scare, he immediately attacked her.

His big hand was about to hit Lin Yaxiang’s face.

Xie Qiao was still 20 to 30 steps away.

However, before that palm could land, a figure rushed over with quick steps. It was as if the entire person was flying. That foot even gave a roundhouse kick in the air. With a bang, it aimed at the head of that person and knocked him out!

“Hmph! You’re looking for a beating to be bullying a woman!” That figure landed steadily on the ground and even snorted.

Then, she scratched her head with a slight headache. “I lost control of my strength for a moment and I kicked him a little too hard... He’s unconscious now. C-Can you help me carry the person to the administrative office?”

She looked at Lin Yaxiang with a troubled expression.

She could go alone, but it was inconvenient. After all, she was not the victim.

Lin Yaxiang was stunned. “You’re really amazing...”

She thought that the flying kick just now was some big bird pouncing on her!

“You’re too polite. It’s nothing.” She was very modest.

“May I know... how should I address you?” Lin Yaxiang wanted to thank him, but she did not know who he was. She thought for a moment and said, “Could it be that you’re also here to apply for the martial arts master?”

“Martial arts master?” The man was stunned for a moment. Then, he saw a red piece of paper pasted on the door of her house.

There were some requirements for a martial arts master written on it.

There were no restrictions on men and women. The main requirement was good character. The disciple was a thirteen-year-old boy.

"I'm not here to apply for a martial arts master. I just heard what a master told me and came here to take a walk." The man smirked and then said, "I wasn't here to apply for the job just now. But I am now! Yu is the family name, and my name is Yu Xian!"

Lin Yaxiang smiled.

This young master was quite interesting. He was very straightforward and his voice was clear and pleasant to listen to.

Although he was also smiling, he was completely different from the unconscious martial arts master on the ground. He did not sound lecherous at all!

"Young Master Yu, please send him to the administrative office with me first. Later on, we can talk in detail!" Lin Yaxiang did not beat around the bush.

The two of them hit it off.

When Xie Qiao saw that, she guessed that Yu Xian should be able to satisfy Lin Yaxiang.

So, she did not approach her and turned around to leave.

The two of them moved the martial artist on the ground to the intersection. There were patrolling officers and soldiers passing by. After giving a brief statement, they took the person away.

"Mr. Yu, my nephew also knows some martial arts. His foundation is good, but he's just a little mischievous and can't sit still. So, if you're thinking of taking this job, I'm afraid you'll have to be mentally prepared. It would be a little more tiring. Also, we're paying ten taels of silver per month..."

To Lin Yaxiang, ten taels of silver was a lot of money.

However, recently, she had taken on a few jobs from big families and received quite a lot of silver rewards. She had even concocted some medicine with her father to heal the women going through postpartum. The medicine was very popular with those women, and the money earned was enough.

She was just a little tired.

“It’s easy to teach naughty children. This is no problem at all. When I was in Dong’an, the people I played with were quite mischievous, but in front of me, they were more obedient!” Yu Xian was quite looking forward to it.
