

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 770: The Evil Side

Chu Jian could not figure it out, so he tried to ask, "Could it be... that your eldest sister's health isn't too great?"

The corners of Xie Pinghuai's mouth could not help but twitch.

His eldest sister was gone!

Before he could say anything more, Xie Pinghuai suddenly remembered that he still had something that he had not returned to someone. He stood up and said, "I have to go pay off my debt first. I'll kneel when I come back."

Chu Jian was confused for a moment. He was a little worried. "I'll go with you!"

Xie Pinghuai did not care about others. He went to Class B of Begonia Courtyard and called out to a boy named Qi Zhen.

He took out the house deed from his embrace and stuffed it into the other party's embrace. "I don't want your shabby house anymore. The crickets that you gave me are all in that house. You can take them back yourself later. In the future, our friendship can be considered to be gone. When I said that I wanted to marry your sister... I wasn't being serious about it."

Qi Zhen was surprised. "Why is that? It was going well..."

“Why? It’s because I took your things that I was beaten up so badly and even implicated... In short, we shouldn’t be friends. I didn’t know that I shouldn’t accept your things in the past, but now I understand!”

Xie Pinghuai did not want to be so heartless initially.

However, after a fight with Qi Huai yesterday, he found out that Qi Zhen came from a branch of Qi Huai’s family.

Qi Zhen’s family was a merchant who sold tea. His status was not high, so he was only Qi Huai’s lackey.

The reason why Qi Huai gave him a gift was because of his eldest brother.

His eldest brother had a lot of power in the criminal division. He did not know what trouble Qi Zhen’s family had caused, but the criminal division had investigated it. That was why they came to him!

Initially, he did not know anything until Qi Huai asked him yesterday to hand over the house to Xie Pinggang. He also said that the Xie family was poor and that they were taking advantage of them. They should not waste the Qi family’s kindness. Only then did he understand.

Later on, Qi Huai even warned him to take care of his sister in the future and stop bullying someone from the Dong family...

He was very angry, so he hit him.

However... Qi Huai deserved it!

This Qi Zhen in front of him was not a good person either!

He thought he really wanted to be friends with him, but he did not expect that he was actually trying to make friends with that b*stard Xie Pinggang!

“What? Do you think it’s too little? How about I give you more!” Qi Zhen was anxious and quickly said.

“No! I said no, so get lost!” Xie Pinghuai said fiercely.

Chu Jian was dumbfounded after seeing that.

‘Is this Xie Pinghuai?!’

Was he being threatened by a knife? Such an evil side of him actually came out?!

Qi Zhen was also shocked by Xie Pinghuai, then, he felt a little resentful. “Xie Pinghuai, why are you pretending to be so noble? You took it all before and now you’re doing this. Do you think that this makes you an innocent person? You’re not the only noble person in the capital. If you don’t want this, someone else will!”

After saying this, Qi Zhen angrily returned to the classroom.

Xie Pinghuai’s expression was cold as he walked back.

“Junior Brother, do you have a fever? Or have you been triggered?” Chu Jian followed beside him and could not help but ask.

This kid loved to take advantage of others!

When the two of them first became sect brothers, in order to show his tolerance and generosity as a senior brother, he had given many things to Xie Pinghuai. However, it was like throwing meat at a dog. Xie Pinghuai would never give him anything!

This kid was only responsible for taking and never returning gifts!

In fact, if he took a fancy to his things, he would take what he could. If he could not take it, he might even destroy it!

He was vicious!

Today.... he actually gave away the expensive gift in his hands?!
