Chapter 1001: Stripped Naked

After reaching the advanced Cyclic Derivation stage, Lin Xun was now a single step away from the Supreme King stage.

With one more advancement, he would exceed the boundaries of the five greater cultivation realms and enter a whole new stage: the Life Death King stage!

The essence of this realm was to decipher the mysteries of life and death and to tread the path of immortality.

With the battle for the great age fast approaching, it could be said that Lin Xun only needed to further refine his cultivation and bring it to the point of perfection. Then, he would be able to compete for the legendary Supreme King stage.

As for the half-step King stage...

Lin Xun now knew that the so-called 'half-step King stage' was what they called experts who had managed to take a single step through the door when attacking the boundary of life and death, but ultimately failed to properly forge their dao to become a true King.

In short, it was nothing more than a glorified title for experts who had failed to reach the King stage!

These experts might be strong since they had succeeded in breaking the shackles of the five greater cultivation stages. However, they were stuck at the entrance to the King stage, leaving them in a rather delicate position where they were unable to advance or retreat.

There were numerous half-step King experts in the Ancient Wasteland Domain. The fact that all of them were experts who had failed to reach the King stage proved just how difficult it was to become a King expert!

It wouldn't be a surprise if no King stage existence was born from a million Cyclic Derivation experts.

To become a King expert, one needed to break through the metaphysical barrier of life and death, and forge the root of one's dao...besides the extremely stringent requirements toward one's foundation and strength, there was also the key aspect of 'luck!'

Without luck, no one could become a King expert!

It was a consensus that had never been disproved since the beginning of time.

As for Lin Xun and the rest of the younger-generation supreme heaven prides, the Supreme King path they sought was even much more ungraspable and arduous.

After all, the Supreme King stage was akin to legend even in the ancient era.

There have been countless incredible and brilliant individuals throughout history, and innumerable heaven prides and demons that have shaken the world.

However, only a rare few were able to attain the Supreme King stage!

In fact, it wasn't even possible to cite a single example that could be used to prove the existence of this path!

The reason was simple. It required great luck and fortune to reach the Supreme King stage.

If you were born at the wrong time, you would have no chance even if you possessed most heaven-defying foundations and talent.

However, that wasn't true for the current era.

With the arrival of an unprecedented great age, all the ancient orthodoxies judged that a true Supreme King would be born!

Swish!

A glowing silver figure zipped over. It was initially indistinct but soon coalesced into a tiny person who was as tall as a palm.

The tiny person had eyes that shone like stars and straight sword-like eyebrows. His posture was straight as a spear, and his silver robe looked as if it was woven from starlight that gave off wisps of peculiar spirit power undulations.

His facial features could only be described as a masterpiece of the heavens that reached the extremes of handsomeness and perfection. Ink-black sword-like eyebrows, star-like eyes, a raised nose, and a mouth pursed in a knife-sharp arc.

His jet-black hair was tied up behind his head and fluttered with the night breeze. He gave off an untouchable and unearthly aura as if he could exist independently of the world.

This tiny person was more beautiful than the famous beauties of the world. Even the greatest beauty of an era would not possess such delicate facial features.

However, he didn't look feminine. His body was straight as a spear, and his eyes were cold and determined. He carried a sword on his back and gave off a sensation of icy haughtiness.

"Master, I've not brought disgrace to you and succeeded in carrying out your command!" The little person's voice was clear, calm, and ceremonial.

Amazing!

Although it wasn't the first time Lin Xun had seen Little Silver, he was still utterly amazed by the latter's appearance after he transformed. He even felt a little jealous and couldn't help but ask, "Little Silver, I have to ask again whether you're a male or female."

Little Silver brows furrowed as he coldly said, "Master, a soldier can be killed but not humiliated! Are you still going to degrade me?"

At the lake bottom of Chaos Star Beach, Little Silver had consumed a 'star core' that contained pure spirit power. He completed his transformation and entered the third stage of his evolution.

He not only awakened the bloodline talent of the God Devourer Insect but also gained a human form and was no longer shackled by his original insect body.

According to Little Silver, it was only after attaining human form that he was considered a true God Devourer Insect and possessed his own cultivation and power.

"It's just that your appearance is too beautiful. Are you...really a guy?" Lin Xun curiously looked Little Silver up and down.

"Master, where are you looking?" Little Silver's face darkened with anger when he felt Lin Xun's gaze focus on his crotch area as if trying to ascertain something...

"Eh, I'm not looking anywhere. That's quite a nice sword you have, haha." Lin Xun hastily withdrew his gaze and laughed. He could tell that Little Silver was on the verge of exploding.

The corners of Little Silver's lips rose in a proud arc. He said, "This sword was transformed from my original shell. It is imprinted with the core power of my clan and is called God Devourer!"

"May I have a look?" Lin Xun put away his teasing mindset. He could sense that the sword's aura was extraordinary.

"You can't," Little Silver flatly refused. "Swords are meant to kill, not to be played with. Master, are you unaware of this simple logic?"

Lin Xun felt disrespected. However, he also understood that this was Little Silver's nature. To him, dignity was life, and losing it was unforgivable.

Lin Xun asked, "What sword dao do you cultivate?"

"Killing," Little Silver replied with a single word. It made him look incomparably arrogant when paired with his handsome face.

Lin Xun inwardly remarked, "What a self-important little guy."

"Master, I'm going to cultivate."

Little Silver said as he flew into Lin Xun's mind-sea, "By the way, don't call me out for mere rabble in the future. Such people don't deserve to die by my sword."

"....." Lin Xun's lips twitched. People called him the arrogant Demon God Lin, but Little Silver was clearly much more arrogant than him!

Then again, it was a breeze for Little Silver to kill peak Cyclic Derivation experts after evolving.

Moreover, his fighting style was extremely unique. He was basically undetectable and specialized in targeting the spirit. Under the right conditions, he was more than capable of killing half-step King experts!

This was the terror of the God Devourer Insect Clan.

Of course, it would be a different matter if he encountered an opponent who practiced spirit cultivation methods or possessed a spirit treasure.

However, the probability of such situations occurring was extremely small.

At the very least, Lin Xun knew that spirit treasures were extremely rare and scarce. Only the likes of Yu Lingkong, Shun Baixuan, Ji Xingyao, and other unrivaled experts would be in possession of such treasures.

.....

The night sky was as black as ink.

When Ling Hongjin regained consciousness, the first thing she saw was Lin Xun standing across from her.

Her slender body immediately tensed up and stiffened as her beautiful face paled.

In her eyes, Lin Xun had become a terrifying beast.

Despite her fear, she couldn't help but wonder why she was still alive.

However, she soon understood why. Lin Xun said, "I believe there must be someone in charge of this operation. Hence, I've left you alive to obtain some information. If you cooperate, I might allow you to keep your life." There was nothing but iciness in his eyes.

Although Ling Hongjin was a great beauty, it wasn't enough to soften his heart.

In his eyes, an enemy was an enemy regardless of gender.

"So that's what you're after." Realization dawned upon Ling Hongjin. She frostily replied, "But do you think that I will tell you?"

Lin Xun calmly said, "Having a backbone is very admirable. However, I've already placed a restriction on your spirit that makes it impossible for you to commit suicide."

"Not being able to die doesn't necessarily mean I'll give in." Ling Hongjin was also very composed. There was a resolved light in her beautiful eyes.

Lin Xun said, "In that case, don't blame me for using torture."

"How laughable." Ling Hongjin was filled with disdain. "Go ahead and try. You'll see if I'll yield."

Lin Xun laughed and said, "Ordinary torture may not faze you, but what if I strip you and hang you naked at the gates of some city?"

His tone was casual, but it made Ling Hongjin tremble as her expression abruptly changed. "You dare!"

Although she was prepared for death, the thought of being hung naked and seen by countless cultivators made her feel indescribable humiliation and panic.

Lin Xun nonchalantly said, "I've always been someone who doesn't speak empty words. Try me if you don't believe me."

"Despicable! I never imagined that you would be such an underhanded and shameless person!" Ling Hongjin's eyes were practically spitting fire as she gnashed her teeth so hard that they nearly shattered.

"I'm despicable?"

iciness surged in Lin Xun's black eyes. "Is Heaven Axis Holy Land not despicable for relentlessly trying to hunt me down? What a joke. Are you guys only allowed to kill me while I'm forbidden from fighting back?"

Ling Hongjin angrily said, "Even if you're fighting back, you don't have to resort to such humiliating tactics. Kill me if you have the guts!"

Lin Xun didn't bother talking any further and began to take action.

Rip!

The cloth on Ling Hongjin's shoulder was torn, revealing fair, smooth shoulders and the gleaming white skin on her collar bones. Her skin seemed to gleam with a crystalline luster in the darkness of the night.

"Lin Xun, you're shameless and vulgar!" Ling Hongjin screamed. She never imagined that Lin Xun would actually dare to do this. To make things worse, she was completely powerless and could not even move her fingers, let alone struggle.

Rip!

Another piece of her clothing was torn off, revealing the glossy white skin of her thighs.

Ling Hongjin panicked. Her pretty face was ashen with fear and rage. Her eyes nearly popped in anger. "Lin Xun, you're also a notable expert who has attained the supreme path. Don't you have any honor?! Aren't you afraid of Heaven Axis Holy Land's retaliation? Aren't you afraid of being spurned by all the cultivators in the world?"

Rip!

Lin Xun was unfazed. His actions were neither fast nor slow as he tore off Ling Hongjin's clothes, exposing her gorgeous body bit by bit...

It was a sight that would give any normal man a nosebleed. As one of the four 'prided ladies' of Heaven Axis Holy Land, Ling Hongjin was naturally an undisputed beauty who was adored and pursued by countless young cultivators.

She had a beautiful face, skin that was fairer than snow, a supple waist no one could resist grabbing, and a slim body with curves in all the right places. She was a saintess who would take anyone's breath away.

If it was any other cultivator, they wouldn't dare to show the slightest disrespect, let alone strip off her clothes.

However, all of this was useless in front of Lin Xun.

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1002: Seeking Help and Revenge

Ling Hongjin's legs were long yet curvy in the right places while her smooth and creamy skin resembled milky jade. There were soul-stirring curves on every section, from the ankles, to the knees, and finally to the waist.

Her waist was likewise slim and lithe, and further up...a blue cloth was snugly wrapped around her large bosoms.

At the moment, she no longer looked like a prided lady of Heaven Axis Holy Land who stood above numerous cultivators, but a lamb that had been stripped naked.

"You will die a tortuous death of a thousand cuts!" Her beautiful face was flushed with fury and her eyes were filled with bone-cutting hatred.

"If such a day comes, I will ensure that you will be the first to lose your dignity in front of the world." In the end, Lin Xun didn't completely strip her naked.

He rose to his feet, grabbed her by the torso, and slung her over his shoulder.

He felt her abruptly stiffen and tense. This made Lin Xun realize that she was still struggling intensely and had yet to give up.

"What a big ass. I wonder if people will nickname you 'big ass prided lady' when they see you." Lin Xun smiled as he flew off into the distance.

"You deserve to die!" Ling Hongjin was so ashamed and angry that she wished she would die and tried to bite Lin Xun's shoulder.

However, she screamed in pain a split second later. His shoulder was protected by his cultivation so she almost broke her neat, white teeth.

Piak!

Lin Xun raised his hand and slapped her buttocks. "Behave!"

The sharp and burning pain spreading from such an embarrassing place nearly made Ling Hongjin go crazy. She felt aggrieved and angry, sorely wishing she could peel off his flesh bit by bit and eat him alive.

He was simply horrible!

She was a core disciple of Heaven Axis Holy Land possessing unmatched talent and peerless beauty. She was akin to the bright moon in the sky who was always surrounded by admirers. When had she ever suffered such humiliation?

"You beast, you won't have a good death in the future!"

Lin Xun was still savoring the sensation from his palm. He offhandedly remarked, "It's not only big, but also soft and bouncy."

"....." Ling Hongjin's eyes widened, feeling as if there were ten thousand horses galloping past in her heart. He was more than shameless and was an unscrupulous, lecherous bastard! He deserves death by a thousand cuts!

She began to panic and threatened, "My fiancé is Chu Beihai. If he finds out about this, your fate will be death!"

"Noted."

"My master is a sixth longevity tribulation King expert of Heaven Axis Holy Land!"

"Noted."

"I..."

"Noted."

No matter what Ling Hongjin said, Lin Xun remained nonchalant and not the least bit afraid. This hastened the collapse of her composure.

Lin Xun indifferently said, "To be honest, if you are so confident in Heaven Axis Holy Land, wouldn't there be nothing wrong with telling me some information? At the end of the day, you're scared."

"I'm not afraid of death, so why would I be scared of you?" Ling Hongjin's voice sounded as if it was being squeezed through her teeth.

She was being carried by Lin Xun on his shoulder, wearing mere inches of cloth that was barely able to cover her private parts.

Her entire body was rigid, and she felt deep shame and anger. She was also worried about what to do if they encountered other travelers on the road.

"There's a city a few hundred miles ahead, and there's only four hours left until dawn. This will be your last chance, so think about it carefully."

Lin Xun left these words and became silent.

However, his calm attitude made Ling Hongjin realize that he was serious. He would definitely do what he said!

For a time, her heart churned incessantly as she inwardly struggled. It was the worst torture she had ever experienced.

She had never felt such humiliation and shame in her life. She was unable to even slit her neck and commit suicide and had no choice but to make a decision.

.....

Dawn gradually approached as the mountains and forests in the vicinity began to thin out.

Even Ling Hongjin could tell that it wouldn't be long before a city inevitably appeared on the horizon.

The thought of being hung naked on the city gates where ten thousand people could see her caused the last sliver of resistance to finally collapse.

"They're at Xuanmu City. The person in charge of the operation is..."

In a hollow and numb voice, Ling Hongjin finally caved in and gave some information she knew.

Towards the end, her eyes turned dull and gray as if she had lost her soul.

Lin Xun took out a set of clothes and covered Ling Hongjin. He couldn't help but sigh at the sight of the other party in such a state, "You shouldn't have been so stubborn earlier."

Ling Hongjin was silent.

"Don't worry, today's matter will be solely between us. I'm a man of my word and will let you off."

With these words, he disappeared into the vastness of the night, leaving Ling Hongjin alone.

After standing there for a long time, Ling Hongjin seemed to recover somewhat as a slight shine returned to her originally full eyes.

She felt her power gradually returning.

"The day will come when I will personally kill you, you evil demon!"

She gnashed her teeth in anger before yanking off the clothes draped over her body in disgust and ruthlessly burning them to ashes.

Wisps of divine flames began to appear and swirl around her, transforming into a layer of clothing to cover her naked body. It was at this very moment that she regained her previous proud and confident appearance.

"Unfortunately for you, no matter how cunning you thought you were, you couldn't possibly have realized that all the information I told you was false!" She inwardly laughed, filled with the exhilaration of at least getting some revenge.

After which, she set off and flew away.

Swish!

Not long after Ling Hongjin left, Lin Xun suddenly appeared out of thin air.

"From how she recovered so quickly, she clearly faked her despair earlier. From the changes in her expression, although it might not all have been fake, there's definitely some part of it that wasn't genuine..."

Lin Xun pondered as he stealthily followed.

What was the first thing someone would do after a near-death encounter?

Seek help?

Revenge?

Or maybe both.

In Lin Xun's opinion, Ling Hongjin likely hated him to the bone and probably couldn't wait to take revenge.

To achieve this, it was first necessary to seek help.

Lin Xun was looking forward to seeing what Ling Hongjin would do next.

As for the information she had given earlier, it didn't matter whether it was real or not

Because since the beginning, Lin Xun had no intention of fishing for any information from her!

.....

Ling Hongjin was very cautious and careful and would suddenly change directions from time to time. She even occasionally made a few detours before moving forward.

This made Lin Xun, who was tailing her, even more convinced that she was up to something!

It wasn't until dawn broke and the night faded that the outline of a giant city appeared on the horizon.

Ling Hongjin seemed to breathe a sigh of relief at the sight of the city. She turned her head to gaze at the route she had come from as a look of deep hatred appeared on her beautiful face.

"Just you wait!" She tightly clenched her fists before she turned back and headed toward the giant ancient city. Lin Xun was initially startled, thinking that he had been discovered.

Fortunately, it was just him overthinking. Ling Hongjin's actions clearly carried a hint of cathartic release.

"North Light City...could this be where the Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples were dispatched to?"

Lin Xun pondered as he advanced toward the city.

.....

In North Light City's southwestern district, a group of Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples in their iconic starfrost robes were currently gathered at a grand-looking building.

Nangong Huo and Gu Yunting were also present.

Among the huge group in the hall, three individuals especially stood out. Each of them was surrounded by a sizable group like the stars gathered around the moon.

The trio consisted of two men and a woman. The starfrost robes they wore were imprinted with a golden star insignia that represented the core disciples of Heaven Axis Holy Land.

Like Li Zhannan and Ling Hongjin, they were the supreme heaven prides who had been sent to capture or kill Lin Xun!

Suddenly, one of the core disciples frowned and said, "What's going on? The target is approaching us! Could Li Zhannan and Ling Hongjin have arrived a step late and allowed the target to escape?"

It was a man with long, blond hair and a tall, dignified figure. He was named Xue Qianhen and was highly ranked even among the core disciples.

He was currently holding a Yin Yang Spirit Locking Mirror, which had originally been in the possession of Nangong Huo.

"What is it?" Everyone else was stunned by the outburst and looked over.

A gray-robed youth smiled and remarked, "Interesting, to think that even the likes of Li Zhannan would fail. It's truly surprising."

His long hair was unkempt, and his appearance was slovenly and casual. His name was Zhang Zheng, and he was also a core disciple.

"I wouldn't consider it a failure yet. Li Zhannan and Ling Hongjin are more than enough to deal with a supreme heaven pride. As Senior Brother Xue Qianhen said, this must have happened because the target managed to sense something was amiss and escape in advance."

The speaker was a young lady dressed in pretty clothes with a sweet-looking face. She was more on the petite side and exuded an astonishing charm. Every little movement she made carried a natural seductive aura that grabbed the heart.

Her name was Yu Baobao.

"Hehe, allowing the target to escape should still be considered a failure. If it was me, Demon God Lin would have been slain long ago!" Zhang Zheng lazily claimed. Although his tone was casual, his words gave off an unconcealable arrogance.

Yu Baobao smiled and retorted, "Keep bragging."

The other Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples were silent.

It was a conversation between the three core disciples which they weren't qualified to partake in.

"Putting that aside, what I don't understand is why the target is approaching us. Is it unintentional or intentional?" Xue Qianhen frowned.

"It's simple. He must be unlucky and fled here in a panic. If he knew we were here, he wouldn't dare to run to his death even if he was a thousand times more courageous." Zhang Zheng snorted.

Several people couldn't help but laugh. They agreed with Zhang Zheng.

What prey would be stupid enough to run into a hunter's territory? Wasn't this a death wish?

"It's called fate. The target can only blame himself for being unlucky!"

Zhang Zheng stretched his muscles as an intimidating aura suddenly replaced his originally lazy look.

"Previously, Li Zhannan and Ling Hongjin managed to beat us to the punch. However, they were unlucky, and the target managed to evade them. Since the target is rushing right into our arms, you guys better not snatch him from me. It's my turn to take the spotlight!"

His resounding words were accompanied by an alarming killing intent, causing many people to involuntarily shiver.

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1003: Hooking Up and Turning Traitor?

"Rushing into our arms? I think otherwise. The fact that he can survive our pursuit until now means that he isn't any ordinary person."

As if oblivious to Zhang Zheng's murderous aura, Xue Qianhen mused, "There are no fools among those who have attained the supreme path. Regardless of his purpose, since he has come to us, we cannot afford to be careless."

Most of the people present secretly nodded in approval at these words.

Nearly seven days had passed since the pursuit first began in Jade Flame City.

Over these seven days, almost all of the many factions in the Ancient Blue Province were mobilized to obstruct and capture Demon God Lin.

However, he was still alive and well until now.

On the other hand, the Heaven Axis Holy Land side had lost quite a number of disciples. Moreover, even an apex-level half-step King expert, Wen Xingzhou, had been defeated.

Under these circumstances, anyone with a working brain would not dare to underestimate Demon God Lin!

"Why? Does Senior Brother Xue think he's here to kill us?" Zhang Zheng snorted, "This is our territory. No matter how strong he is, how can a lone wolf like him take on all of us?"

He paused and licked his lips before he continued, "If you guys are afraid, feel free to leave him to me. As a fellow supreme heaven pride, I know full well how to tackle such prey!"

"I'm only trying to remind everyone to be careful." Xue Qianhen coldly said, "You should understand the reasoning behind being careful, right? "

Zhang Zheng proudly said, "The strong should have the mentality of being invincible. No matter what demons and monsters come, I will cut them all down with my sword. That's all I need to understand!"

Xue Qianhen indifferently retorted, "Stop with your nonsense. If a King stage old monster came, would you still be able to cut him down with your sword?"

"Senior Brother Xue, now you're just arguing for the sake of arguing. If a King stage old monster does appear, I will naturally avoid him and sharpen my fangs and claws. This is called judging the situation and avoiding disaster!" Zhang Zheng didn't back down and stared back with clear eyes.

Upon seeing that Xue Qianhen and Zhang Zheng were about to argue, Yu Baobao hurriedly tried to mediate, "Alright, alright. We're all here to deal with Demon God Lin, there's no need to get so heated up and hurt our relationship, right?"

"He has entered the city!"

Icy light erupted from Xue Qianhen's eyes. The Yin Yang Spirit Locking Mirror had detected Lin Xun's presence entering North Light City.

"Senior brothers, it's time to hunt the target that has voluntarily arrived at our doorstep. We..." Xue Qianhen was about to give out orders with a serious look.

However, without waiting for him to finish, Zhang Zheng chuckled in a carefree manner as his figure abruptly transformed into a flash of blue and rushed out of the hall. "I will be going first. You guys can take your time to discuss strategies!"

Xue Qianhen's expression immediately darkened as a terrifying aura spread from him, causing the atmosphere to become suffocating.

He was clearly enraged by Zhang Zheng's willfulness.

Yu Baobao gently said, "Senior Brother Xue, there's no harm in letting him go. You should also be aware of how unhappy he was that Li Zhannan and Ling Hongjin had managed to beat him to the punch."

"Since he's in a hurry to die, let him do what he wants!" Xue Qianhen's voice was ice-cold.

.....

A grand, ancient building came into view in the distance.

After arriving, Ling Hongjin's stunningly beautiful face turned a little cloudy and uncertain, appearing conflicted and hesitant.

The Heaven Axis Holy Land forces responsible for dealing with Demon God Lin were currently stationed at the ancient building in the distance.

However, Ling Hongjin didn't know how to explain what had happened.

Their mission could be evaluated as a catastrophic failure which was exceedingly humiliating since Li Zhannan and the other Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples had been completely wiped out.

Moreover, she had been thoroughly shamed by the enemy.

This made it even more difficult for Ling Hongjin to explain.

She, a mighty Heaven Axis Holy Land core disciple and one of the peerless lady experts of the younger generation, had returned in utter defeat and was making a report and asking for assistance with the identity of a loser...

How could the proud Ling Hongjin possibly make such admissions?

The streets were bustling with pedestrians flowing like running water. It was extremely lively.

Many passersby could only feel amazement and curiosity at the sight of Ling Hongjin standing there.

A beautiful woman like her would attract the attention of countless people no matter where she went.

Swish!

A blue flash suddenly appeared in the sky and proudly stood in the air. He radiated dazzling divine light, causing the weather to stir.

His presence was extremely strong and made him resemble a peerless sheathed sword. The fierce and unrivaled pressure caused a sudden flurry on the streets as it fell into a momentary chaos.

"Junior Brother Zhang Zheng? What are you doing?" Ling Hongjin's mind cleared as she looked at the proud figure in surprise.

"Senior Sister Ling? Hehe, it seems that you've indeed failed in your task."

Zhang Zheng laughed loudly as his disheveled, long hair fluttered. Arcs of purple electricity pulsed with each blink, giving off a sharp and intimidating pressure.

"How did you know?" Ling Hongjin was shaken, and her expression abruptly changed, thinking that the humiliation she suffered had somehow been leaked.

"Demon God Lin has already entered the city. That's something no one can hide."

Zhang Zheng grinned. "Senior Sister Ling, I know you're unhappy about your failure, but it's okay. I will personally put Demon God Lin to death later to help you regain your dignity!"

Demon God Lin has entered the city?

Ling Hongjin couldn't believe her ears.

Just as she was about to ask for further explanation, Zhang Zheng suddenly howled, "Demon God Lin, since you're here, come out and fight. I, Zhang Zheng, will personally send you off!"

His voice rumbled like thunder, scattering the clouds as it resounded across the skies above North Light City.

"What?"

"Demon God Lin!"

"My god...that demon has snuck into the city!"

Uproars erupted on the streets, causing them to descend into chaos. The originally bustling streets quickly became cold and empty.

Crash~

Meanwhile, Zhang Zheng's spirit power spread out in all directions like a tidal wave.

He wasn't worried about Lin Xun escaping because there was no way he could evade Zhang Zheng's eyes!

"How could this happen..." Ling Hongjin was in a daze.

She suddenly sensed someone approaching. Before she could react, a large hand firmly pressed down on her shoulder.

Ling Hongjin stiffened and immediately moved to counterattack. When she saw the owner of the hand, however, she looked as if she had seen a ghost, causing her face to turn deathly pale as she screamed.

She never imagined that she would see that shameless evil demon here.

He was dressed in moon-white clothes and gave off an untouchable, ethereal aura. It was Lin Xun, who had followed her all the way here.

He stood beside Ling Hongjin with one hand resting on her shoulder, making them appear rather intimate.

However, only Ling Hongjin was aware of the terrifying force emanating from his hand. It instantly sealed her strength, making it impossible to struggle!

Meanwhile, Zhang Zheng also saw this from the sky. His lightning-like gaze looked down from above and instantly locked onto the figure.

"It's indeed you. You've got guts! Looks like I've not come out in vain." Zhang Zheng had a natural look of disdain as fiery battle intent surged from him.

Lin Xun smiled and whispered in Ling Hongjin's ear, "I was kind enough to let you go, but you lied to me. This makes me very angry."

Due to their close proximity, his hot breath drilled straight into her ears, causing them to redden.

However, the iciness of his words made her body stiffen and turn cold as if she had fallen into an ice cave.

She knew far too well just how terrifying he was. Even the likes of Li Zhannan was killed in three punches. Lin Xun's combat power was most certainly unreasonable even among those who had attained the supreme path.

Moreover, he was fearless and had an unscrupulous nature. He would resort to even the most despicable tricks in order to achieve his goals.

Now, suddenly finding herself at the mercy of the other party again made her feel as if she was on the verge of despairing.

"You guys..." In the air, Zhang Zheng was stunned and somewhat bewildered. No matter how he looked at it, he felt that Lin Xun and Ling Hongjin were being a little too intimate.

"Miss Ling, thank you for leading me here. If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't have known that there are so many bastards here itching to kill me."

"What!? Senior Sister Ling, you..."

Zhang Zheng's pupils shrank. "No wonder Demon God Lin found his way to North Light City. It...turns out that you've hooked up with him!"

It was such shocking news that he found it hard to digest for a time.

Ling Hongjin, who was already internally dying of shame and indignation, turned ashen as she screeched, "Don't listen to his nonsense, I..."

Before she could finish, Lin Xun covered her lips and said, "Why do we need to explain our affairs to others? Even Chu Beihai can't lord over us if he comes. Moreover, I've been helping you keep your secret, do you really want others to find out?"

Ling Hongjin's eyes widened in anger as she trembled uncontrollably. This demon was obviously trying to sow discord!

"Senior Sister Ling, is that true? Chu Beihai is your fiancé, how can you do that to him?"

In the sky, Zhang Zheng's face had become frighteningly cold. He was furious to the point of insanity and never imagined that Ling Hongjin, a core disciple of Heaven Axis Holy Land, would betray the sect and hook up with the enemy. She was simply the shame of the sect!

If news of this spread, Heaven Axis Holy Land would lose its dignity!

Ling Hongjin was about to go crazy from anger. How could she have anticipated that something like this would happen?

To make things worse, she was being restrained by Lin Xun and couldn't even make a sound, let alone explain herself.

"Lin Xun, you're a demon among demons!" She inwardly cried out. She would not hesitate to rip him to pieces if there was a chance.

"It is him!" A silver flash suddenly rushed into the sky and transformed into Xue Qianhen.

"Senior Sister Ling, you..." Yu Baobao also arrived. She gracefully walked through the air, giving off a natural air of seduction.

Soon, Nangong Huo, Nangong Shui, Gu Yunting, and the other true disciples also appeared.

They surrounded the area like black clouds covering the sky, giving off an oppressive pressure that made it difficult to breathe.

An austere atmosphere rapidly filled the empty streets nearby.

Xue Qianhen, Yu Baobao and the rest were also stunned at the sight of Ling Hongjin standing so close to Lin Xun.

After hearing Zhang Zheng's explanation, their gazes displayed various emotions when they looked at Ling Hongjin...

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1004: Chaotic Wind Blood Demon Sword Sutra

Hooking up?

Xue Qianhen, Yu Baobao, Nangong Huo, Gu Yunting, and the others were stupefied. Wouldn't this mean that Ling Hongjin had betrayed the sect?

This was something that could never be forgiven or tolerated!

For a time, they began to look at Ling Hongjin in a different manner.

On the other hand, the subject of their attention, Ling Hongjin, was unable to explain herself. Being watched by so many questioning eyes felt like having her heart cut by a knife and made her so furious and frustrated that she nearly fainted.

"Is this true?" Xue Qianhen was still unconvinced.

After all, Ling Hongjin was a core disciple of Heaven Axis Holy Land who had attained the supreme path. A bright and incomparable future awaited her, so why would she ever choose to fornicate with the enemy?

Zhang Zheng coldly said, "Isn't it clear? Demon God Lin was brought here by Ling Hongjin. How else could he have known that we are in Northern Light City?"

"What we can see might not always be the full truth, and there might be something else we're unaware of. I refuse to believe this." Yu Baobao frowned. She felt that this was too sudden and absurd, and was unable to accept it for the truth.

"Why? Do you think I'm lying to you guys?" Zhang Zheng was displeased, and his expression turned frosty.

Lin Xun couldn't help but smile at the sight of them arguing and voice-transmitted, "Miss Ling, this is an eye for an eye. Since you lied to me and I've lied to them, the slate is now clean between us. However, I'll have to trouble you a little longer."

Clean slate?

Never!

Ling Hongjin was so angry that she almost vomited blood. How could she possibly acknowledge his words?

However, before she could react, she was thrown into the Nameless Pagoda and confined by Lin Xun.

Lin Xun asked, "Are you guys done arguing?"

His presence abruptly changed as he spoke and an arrogant air that was impossible to conceal emerged.

Swish!

In an instant, all the gazes shifted toward Lin Xun with looks of astonishment, bewilderment, and disbelief. None of them had expected him to remain so calm and cool despite being surrounded.

Someone disdainfully remarked, "Ignorant fool!"

"Lin Xun, how dare you kick up a fuss at death's door? Do you think that we don't dare to kill you?" Nangong Huo had the fiercest reaction because he hated Lin Xun to the bone.

Yu Baobao took a deep breath and said, "Lin Xun, let Senior Sister Ling go and clear up this matter. If you cooperate, we might be lenient and leave you a way out." She refused to believe that Ling Hongjin would betray the sect.

"Senior Brother Chu Beihai was right. You're strong and act recklessly like a demon god. However, you won't be able to escape today. The only thing I don't understand is where did you get the courage to come to North Light City alone to die?"

An icy light surged in Xue Qianhen's eyes.

Lin Xun was too calm and relaxed from the beginning, which made him vaguely feel that something was wrong.

"Come to die?" Lin Xun laughed in a carefree manner, "Am I only capable of running away and not counterattacking in your eyes?"

"Counterattack?"

Several Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples were taken aback by these words. They looked at Lin Xun as if he was an idiot.

"Is he crazy or stupid?"

"A single person trying to fight back against Heaven Axis Holy Land? Even a Saint expert wouldn't dare to make such a bold claim, right?"

"Arrogant and ignorant fool!"

Snickers and disdainful remarks soon followed.

While this was happening, a huge crowd had gathered far away and were watching everything from afar.

When they heard Lin Xun say the word counterattack, they almost thought that they had misheard.

The Heaven Axis Holy Land side had the clear numbers advantage while also boasting supreme heaven prides such as Xue Qianhen and the other core disciples. No ordinary cultivator in their right mind would dare to talk so big in the face of such a grand line-up.

Moreover, the Ancient Blue Province was Heaven Axis Holy Land's territory!

On the other hand, Demon God Lin was alone and heavily surrounded. Yet he still dared to make such bold claims. It made them wonder if he was starting to speak nonsense because he knew he was about to die.

From start to end, Lin Xun's expression was calm and did not ripple in the slightest.

"I heard that you used a King-level forbidden array to kill Old Monster Mo Xi. Are you thinking of relying on that same tactic?"

The sight of Lin Xun's calm appearance made Xue Qianhen increasingly unsettled. Hence, he tried to probe for a reaction.

These words made several people's hearts shiver. They had also heard of this matter.

However, Xue Qianhen's next sentence made them all breathe a sigh of relief.

"I'm not afraid to tell you that particular tactic will be useless against us. Since we've been dispatched to deal with you, we've naturally come prepared and won't give you any chances." Xue Qianhen's eyes shone like gleaming blades as he closely observed Lin Xun.

However, Lin Xun merely replied, "There's no need to use a King-level forbidden array to deal with you guys. I alone am sufficient."

He didn't attack immediately because he was secretly trying to confirm that there was no King stage old monster present in North Light City, which made him grow increasingly calm.

"You alone?"

Xue Qianhen raised his eyebrows. Although he still felt something was wrong, he couldn't help but find Lin Xun's words ridiculous. To think that he was this fearless and foolish.

"Yes." Lin Xun nodded.

Just as Xue Qianhen was about to continue, Zhang Zheng impatiently snapped, "Stop being so overly cautious and wishy-washy. He's just a prey that doesn't know he's already dead. Is there a need to be so prudent?"

He stepped forward and emanated an unparalleled sharpness that shot straight into the sky as his aura instantly intensified.

"Lin Xun, I said earlier that I would personally send you on your way. So get your ass over here and die!" His voice boomed like thunder and rumbled into the distance.

"Zhang Zheng does indeed live up to his title of 'Courage Breaking Sword.' His presence alone is already unmatched." Many bystanders' eyes lit up at this sight.

"I've heard that Zhang Zheng's combat power is ranked top five among the Heaven Axis Holy Land core disciples!"

"Although Demon God Lin is strong, he will likely be suppressed by Zhang Zheng who has also attained the supreme path. After all, one comes from a lowly background while the other is a disciple of an ancient orthodoxy. Their cultivation levels are similar, but their foundations are far too different."

The crowd conversed in whispers.

After being interrupted by Zhang Zheng again, Xue Qianhen grew increasingly furious and his expression turned even colder.

However, he didn't speak any further. Since Zhang Zheng was stepping forward, he could use this as an opportunity to gauge Lin Xun's abilities!

The other Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples crossed their arms and sneered. They didn't believe that Demon God Lin would be able to match Zhang Zheng.

He might have eluded them time and time again over the past few days.

He might have caused the apex-tier half-step King expert, Wen Xingzhou, to suffer a loss.

However, none of that mattered because he was now facing Zhang Zheng, a peerless heaven pride who had attained the supreme path!

His sword had feasted on the blood of more than one half-step King expert!

Unfortunately, none of them were aware that just last night, Li Zhannan, who held similar beliefs as them, was slain by Lin Xun in three punches...

This was also why Lin Xun wanted to arrive at North Light City to launch his counterattack as soon as possible. It was to strike before they realized!

"What are you waiting for? If you're afraid to die, kneel down now and I promise I won't lay a hand on you, lest I dirty my sword!" roared Zhang Zheng. His long hair rose in the air as his presence grew increasingly oppressive.

"Careful with your words, they might come back to bite you in the ass."

Lin Xun rose into the air. His aura felt as ordinary as the flowing clouds in the sky as he looked at Zhang Zheng from afar.

"I won't underestimate someone like you who has also attained the supreme path. But honestly, you're already a dead man in my eyes."

Zhang Zheng's eyes flashed fiercely. His aura grew stern as formidable sword-will spread from him.

Clang!

A long, thin blood-sword appeared in his hand. Its blade was curved at a bizarre angle like a sickle and gave off a strong sensation of sinister ruthlessness.

It was the Supreme King Weapon - Blood Clink!

The appearance of the sword made Zhang Zheng resemble a mighty sword demon. He exuded a bloody and murderous aura that made it difficult to breathe.

"Show me what a Heaven Axis Holy Land disciple is capable of. I hope I won't be disappointed." Lin Xun was still as cool as a cucumber.

Swish!

Zhang Zheng moved.

It was as if thousands of Zhang Zhengs were attacking all at once. Streaks of blood-colored sword-wills raged like a storm, howling in every direction as they engulfed the sky and land.

The place seemed to transform into a sword hell. Every sword-will was blood-red and generated peerlessly sharp auras that easily cut the fabric of space, tearing open numerous spatial cracks.

Many people were unable to breathe. It was the Chaotic Wind Blood Demon Sword Sutra!

It was one of Heaven Axis Holy Land's supreme-grade dao arts. Zhang Zheng was clearly not underestimating his opponent since he employed this technique the moment he attacked.

"He's pretty cautious." Both Xue Qianhen and Yu Baobao inwardly nodded in approval. As fellow supreme heaven prides, they naturally could tell at a glance that Zhang Zheng wasn't holding anything back.

"Is this your sword dao? It's nothing impressive."

Lin Xun was unfazed. He didn't try to avoid it and instead reached forward and pressed the air with his hand. A brilliant sea of flames unfurled with burning stars exploding within it.

In the blink of an eye, the blood-colored sword-wills were swallowed by the flames and burned into nothingness.

"As expected of Demon God Lin. He's a formidable opponent." Xue Qianhen's and the others' eyes flashed. It would be strange if Demon God Lin was immediately suppressed instead.

However, the ease with which he neutralized the killing move was a little surprising to Xue Qianhen and the others.

"No wonder he dared to come here and declare his counterattack. It turns out that he already possesses such terrifying battle power. However, he's ultimately a single person. How will he possibly be able to escape today?" Gu Yunting had a complicated expression. He was both shocked by Lin Xun's overwhelming display and worried about his situation.

In the distance, numerous cultivators were also watching the battle.

It was a clash between two supreme heaven prides. Regardless of the winner, it was destined to stir up a huge commotion in the Ancient Blue Province.

"Chaotic Demon Blood River!"

Zhang Zheng released an earth-shaking howl as his presence grew increasingly similar to a sword demon. A ten thousand foot tall wave of sword-will rose from the blood-sword in his hand.

The sword qi river rushed forth, strongly embodying the concept of boundlessness.

The crowd felt as if the underworld's blood river had manifested itself in the world, dyeing the sky and land a bizarre red.

Several people trembled in fear as they felt a fiendish aura assault their senses.

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1005: All-Out

The sword-will blood river covered the sky and land like a river manifested from the underworld.

Rumble!

Lin Xun didn't avoid it. Instead, he stepped forward with the Hornless Ice Dragon Step and threw a punch.

Bang bang bang!

The dreadful river of blood made from sword-will resembled a giant blood-colored dragon. At this moment, however, its torso was sliced into several segments as if it had been struck with an almighty force.

It then crumbled and collapsed.

Yu Baobao couldn't help but remark, "What strong battle senses. To think he managed to instantly perceive the weakness of the Chaotic Demon Blood Sword!"

Every dao in the world had its flaws. No matter how great one's comprehension of a martial dao's true essence, it was impossible to achieve true perfection.

After all, everything had its weaknesses, let alone martial dao.

Therefore, even the most frightening dao inheritance was taken down a notch when its weakness was figured out.

Xue Qianhen commented, "He has fought his way here all the way from the West Infinity World and has been able to survive until now. His combat experience is naturally abundant, and it wouldn't be weird for him to have such ability."

Boom~

In the ensuing duel, Zhang Zheng's attacks grew increasingly fierce and murderous. His long, thin blood-sword flickered with astonishing power as his sword dao was displayed to the extreme.

However, no matter what means he used, they were all effortlessly neutralized by Lin Xun and unable to leave even a scratch on him.

"Impossible! How can he possess such superb fighting sense? Could his martial dao understanding have far surpassed my own?"

Zhang Zheng was extremely conceited and arrogant. If he wasn't, he wouldn't possess the title of 'Courage-breaker Sword.'

Despite this, he was currently feeling a sliver of trepidation!

Duels between supreme heaven prides were often no longer about their foundations and cultivation but rather martial dao prowess and battle sense.

However, Zhang Zheng never imagined that he would be suppressed by someone like Lin Xun who did not belong to any sect or faction!

"Zhang Zheng, your defeat won't be far if you don't give it your all." Xue Qianhen's icy voice sounded in his ears.

These words caused Zhang Zheng's expression to darken. Being reminded by Xue Qianhen made him feel inexplicable shame.

"Heaven Axis Ten Thousand Extinction Chop!"

Zhang Zheng's aura climbed steeply, becoming much more powerful than before. He seemed to transform into a demon sword that stirred up the clouds and made the color of the world change.

"Die!"

The Supreme King Weapon transformed into a thousand-foot-long streak of light and chopped down from above, displaying ferocious might that surpassed the boundaries of time.

"It's about time."

Iciness flashed across Lin Xun's black eyes.

No one knew that Lin Xun was still concealing his strength in the duel. The reason was simple. He feared that showing too much would make the opponent wary and try to escape.

After all, his current strength could kill Li Zhannan in three punches, let alone Zhang Zheng who was similar to Li Zhannan in power.

When one possessed absolute power, the smartest tactic was to make others unable to discern one's true strength.

In this instant, Lin Xun's aura also jumped to a new high.

Like a phantom, he avoided the incoming sword attack and abruptly appeared in front of Zhang Zheng.

Boom!

At the same time, the essence of the Nine Heavenshaking Destructions Art erupted from his right fist.

Zhang Zheng's eyes abruptly widened. That was his killing move. How had it been so easily avoided? However, the impossible had just occurred before his eyes!

Oh no!

Xue Qianhen's and Yu Baobao's expressions also changed slightly. They likewise had not expected this sudden turn of events.

It was because in the duel so far, neither party had been able to suppress the other.

However, Lin Xun now resembled a hunter who had been patiently building up his strength, ready to kill the moment he struck!

It had to be acknowledged that Zhang Zheng was indeed a supreme heaven pride as he responded superbly. He swiftly pulled his sword back and positioned it horizontally in front of him to block at this critical moment, channeling all of his power into defense.

Unfortunately, he could never have anticipated that Lin Xun had been holding back all this time. Hence, the sudden explosion of power wasn't something Zhang Zheng could withstand.

With a loud clang, the blocking blood-sword was knocked away by Lin Xun's fist, and it continued on to slam into Zhang Zheng's chest without skipping a beat or losing any force.

Crack!

The sound of chest bones snapping rang out.

Zhang Zheng violently vomited a mouthful of blood as stars appeared in front of his eyes. He was horrified and terrified to the extreme. This was the moment when he realized that he had been fooled!

If the opponent had used such power from the start, there was no way he would have lasted until now.

What a devious person!

Zhang Zheng suffered a grave injury, and his eyes nearly popped from their sockets in pain.

Just as he was about to withdraw, he was grabbed by Lin Xun and thrown into the Nameless Pagoda before he could react.

All of this happened far too quickly.

Before anyone could react, Zhang Zheng was injured and subdued, leaving many of the Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples frozen in place.

How is this possible?

In the distance, the eyes of watching cultivators almost fell out as well. They had originally anticipated an earth-shaking battle.

So who could have expected that Zhang Zheng would disappear in the blink of an eye?!

It felt more bizarre than a dream and far too sudden.

"You devious bastard! How dare you?!"

However, there was also a small handful who managed to quickly respond such as Yu Baobao who immediately stormed forward.

She was born with natural charm and blessed with a pretty face. Although she was an extremely enchanting beauty, she displayed an unrivaled aura the moment she moved.

She pulled out a light gold soft-spear. With a flick of her wrist, countless golden spear phantasms filled the sky and rushed forth with space-shattering power.

Lin Xun maintained the same power he used to suppress Zhang Zheng and swung his fist to meet the attack.

Meanwhile, the other Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples finally returned to their senses.

"Senior Brother Zhang Zheng was suppressed?!"

"Abominable! He must have used some kind of trick!"

They displayed unsightly expressions as they gazed at Lin Xun with uncertainty. Even until now, they were unable to figure out why Zhang Zheng had been suppressed in such a ridiculous manner.

Rumble!

In the sky, Lin Xun's black hair flew around him while his eyes were filled with unbridled arrogance like a demon god as he ferociously clashed against Yu Baobao.

Yu Baobao's expression quickly changed.

It was only after personally facing Lin Xun that she realized how terrifying of an opponent he was. He completely exceeded all of the previous estimations and judgments she made when watching the earlier battle.

"He must have deliberately hidden his strength. That was how he was able to suddenly catch Zhang Zheng off-guard and subdue him!" A chill rose in Yu Baobao's heart.

They were both supreme path experts, but the other party was able to conceal his strength while Zhang Zheng could do nothing even with his killing move.

How terrifying was his actual battle power?

Meanwhile, Xue Qianhen realized that Yu Baobao's situation was not favorable, causing his expression to become graver than ever before.

He had already felt something was off earlier when Lin Xun appeared alone. After all, anyone with a working brain would understand that such a course of action wasn't much different from plunging to his death.

Now, however, he began to realize that the other party had come prepared!

Demon God Lin might also be someone who had attained the supreme path like himself, but it was now very clear that Lin Xun was no ordinary supreme path expert!

It was said that supreme path experts were kings of their cultivation stage who could crush all their fellow cultivators of the same cultivation stage.

However, the ability displayed by Demon God Lin already possessed the power to suppress his supreme path peers!

No wonder he dared to come alone...

No wonder he appeared so fearless despite being heavily surrounded by the enemy...

At the thought of this, Xue Qianhen didn't hesitate any further. He shot across the air as he shouted, "Junior Sister Yu, I'll help you!"

Omm!

A dazzling golden spear phantasm swept forth. It felt as if the dome of the sky was collapsing as a layer of terrifying Saint power enveloped North Light City from above.

The nearby streets and buildings instantly disintegrated as if they were made from paper, unable to resist the destructive power.

"My god..."

The cultivators watching the battle from afar stiffened, feeling great terror. Their spirits were suppressed, nearly forcing them to prostrate themselves on the ground.

Meanwhile, the Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples near the battlefield quickly took cover. Despite this, all of them had fanatical looks on their faces.

Xue Qianhen grasped a golden battle spear, resembling a god that could overwhelm everything with invincible power and elegance!

The Sunfire Golden Spear!

It was a Saint treasure of Heaven Axis Holy Land that was passed down from the ancient era. It was rumored that the power of the spear could pierce even the sun!

"Lin Xun, did you think we didn't prepare anything to deal with you? You can now rest in peace after dying by this Saint treasure!"

Xue Qianhen's expression was cold and cruel. His entire body was dyed gold due to the golden spear in his hand, making him resemble a divine war god possessing peerless power.

His presence was so strong that the surrounding space began to distort. If one were to look down from above, they would find the central area of North Light City completely destroyed due to the devastating power.

Rumble!

Xue Qianhen rushed across the sky to attack.

Meanwhile, Yu Baobao inwardly sighed in relief and regained her vigor. With the Sunfire Golden Spear deployed, the battle was basically all but won.

Lin Xun had not anticipated the other side to have a Saint treasure. However, he didn't panic and summoned the Nameless Pagoda to block Xue Qianhen.

Clang!

The Nameless Pagoda and the Sunfire Golden Spear collided, producing terrifying Saint fluctuations that spread all the way to the other districts of North Light City.

Structures and buildings were instantly obliterated, and streets were turned to dust...the horrifying destructive power felt like the herald of the end of the world.

There was no doubt that a huge number of lives had been lost amidst the destruction.

"A face-off between Saint treasures?"

"Quickly run away!"

The cultivators watching the battle from afar were so absolutely terrified and didn't dare to stay any longer.

The might of a Saint treasure was enough to destroy heaven and the earth. It was unbelievably powerful and wasn't a force just anyone could ever hope to withstand.

Xue Qianhen's emotions didn't ripple in the slightest at the extensive destruction. He didn't care how many buildings were destroyed or how many innocent people met their demise.

He was only surprised that the Sunfire Golden Spear had been blocked!

"The rumors were true. Demon God Lin possesses a Saint treasure!" Xue Qianhen's pupils shrank.

The Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples were also dumbfounded. They had originally thought the opponent would be easily crushed after the Sunfire Golden Spear was brought out. Who would have imagined that the other party would summon a Saint treasure as well?!

Shit!

Yu Baobao's relief was short-lived. Her heart immediately lurched in her chest as her beautiful face paled.

Demon God Lin was already terrifying enough, but now he even brought out a Saint treasure. What else would he have up his sleeves?

These thoughts were soon cut short due to Lin Xun's approach. Yazi's Rage was activated as he easily broke through all of Yu Baobao's defenses with unstoppable momentum and grabbed her fair goose-like neck.

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1006: There Can Only Be Peace of Mind by Killing

Simple, brutal, and swift!

Ever since Yu Baobao stepped into the realm of the supreme, it had been difficult for her to meet a worthy opponent. Hence, it never would have occurred to her that she would one day be crushed so easily.

She had been soundly defeated in a proper battle without any tricks.

Indescribable fear rapidly spread throughout her body like a tidal wave, causing her hands and feet to turn cold.

Bang!

In the next moment, her vision turned black and she lost consciousness.

Meanwhile, Lin Xun had already moved again.

Rumble!

In the sky, the Sunfire Golden Spear glowed with holy splendor. The fluctuations it emanated caused the surroundings to ripple violently.

It boasted peerless sharpness, unmatched might, and an unstoppable aura. The divine power it exuded flowed with a golden radiance that made the world seem dull in comparison.

The huge North Light City was plunged into an apocalyptic catastrophe where the sky and land seemed to have turned upside down and almost everyone was in a state of collapse. The devastation would terrify almost any cultivator.

However, although the Sunfire Golden Spear was strong, it failed to break through the defenses of the Nameless Pagoda.

The entire pagoda was forged from Genesium and gave off a gorgeous glass-like gleam as if it was floating amidst millions of divine rays. The faint sound of Saints chanting the scriptures seemed to drift from the pagoda.

As it hovered in the air, it gave off a sensation of immeasurable might capable of suppressing everything. No matter how fiercely the Sunfire Golden Spear attacked, it was unable to shake or suppress the pagoda in the slightest.

Rumble!

The horrifying destructive power generated by the collision of the two Saint treasures was absolutely unimaginable without personally witnessing it.

"How is this possible?! Even the Sunfire Golden Spear can't beat it?" Xue Qianhen's heart churned violently as his expression turned graver than ever.

Although the superb battle power displayed by Lin Xun previously had surprised Xue Qianhen, he didn't panic because the sect had given them the Saint treasure, Sunfire Golden Spear, for the operation.

With the spear, Xue Qianhen was confident in taking down even long-established supreme heaven prides in the East Victory World, let alone a mere Demon God Lin who had stepped into the realm of the supreme.

Now, however...

Xue Qianhen's confidence was shaken after witnessing the Nameless Pagoda's power.

To think that the other party also possessed a Saint Treasure!

This completely exceeded Xue Qianhen's predictions. It felt like being suddenly struck by a baton and was very difficult to accept.

From what he knew, Lin Xun came from extremely humble origins. He was a youngster from the countryside of the barren lower plains. How could anyone believe that such a person would possess a Saint treasure?

Rumble!

While distracted by such thoughts, a terrifying force suddenly arrived and jolted Xue Qianhen back to his senses.

When he raised his eyes to look, Lin Xun was already aggressively rushing in like a demon god.

With the Sunfire Golden Spear stuck in a clash with the Nameless Pagoda, Xue Qianhen had basically lost his strongest trump card.

When this was coupled with Lin Xun's overwhelming display of combat power that had suppressed Zhang Zheng and Yu Baobao in rapid succession, Xue Qianhen no longer had any intention of facing Lin Xun.

He realized the situation was terrible and planned to retreat.

"Baxia Imprisonment!"

However, restriction undulations spread from the approaching Lin Xun and soundlessly enveloped Xue Qianhen.

He immediately noticed his movements become sluggish. It felt as if he was a swimming fish that was suddenly frozen in a layer of ice.

"Shit!" His expression abruptly changed as he shouted, "Open up!"

With a rumble, fire-like radiance violently surged from him, instantly breaking the power of the Baxia Imprisonment.

However, Lin Xun had already used that split-second gap to arrive in front of him!

If Baxia Imprisonment was employed against any other Cyclic Derivation cultivator, it would definitely leave the opponent unable to move and only able to wait for death. However, it wasn't very effective against a supreme path expert like Xue Qianhen.

However, trapping him for a split second was enough!

Kill!

Electricity seemed to blossom in Lin Xun's cold eyes as he released a burst of plain, boundless fist-force.

"Get lost!" Xue Qianhen formed a blade with his fingers and tore apart the fist-force.

To his surprise, however, the torn fist-force didn't scatter but reshaped into sharp blades and shot toward him.

It was like ashes burning once more!

This was one of the techniques from the Black Phoenix Silent Annihilation Art. It enabled the user's attacks to be reborn like ashes burning again and was extremely bizarre, frightening, and impossible to guard against.

Plop plop plop...

Xue Qianhen was clearly caught off guard. Although he tried his best to defend himself, his defenses were still pierced. The razor-sharp forces entered and drilled bloody hole after hole in his body.

His expression abruptly changed as he screamed due to the unbearable pain. There was no hesitation at all as he tried to withdraw and flee.

It was only after personally facing Lin Xun that he experienced what Zhang Zheng and Yu Baobao had felt earlier. Lin Xun was simply overwhelming. Rather than supreme heaven prides, he better resembled an unbeatable demon god!

Shiing!

The Sunfire Golden Spear returned as Xue Qianhen reached out to grab it.

He felt extreme danger and didn't think twice about defending himself with a Saint treasure despite already retreating.

However, how could the Nameless Pagoda allow the Sunfire Golden Spear to be retrieved so easily?

Omm~

The pagoda glowed brightly, sending out thousands of wonder-gold dao light rays that rapidly enveloped the Sunfire Golden Spear, causing it to shudder.

Noo!

Xue Qianhen's pupils widened as his soul seemed to leave his body.

Before he could react, however, Lin Xun was already attacking. His five fingers were akin to dragon claws as they reached out and clutched Xue Qianhen's body, firmly imprisoning it.

Another supreme heaven pride had lost!

Only a few breaths had passed from Xue Qianhen joining the fray to Yu Baobao being suppressed, and finally to Xue Qianhen being captured.

However, so many soul-trembling events occurred during this brief span of time.

The Saint treasure showdown that nearly destroyed North Light City...

The retreat of the cultivators who no longer dared to take a single step closer...

The distortion of space that caused the entire area to ripple...

Each of these events could be described as earth-shaking and terrifying.

In the end, Yu Baobao was defeated along with Xue Qianhen!

Far away, Nangong Huo, Gu Yunting, and the rest of the Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples were dumbfounded and shocked.

How could they have imagined that they would be incapable of achieving anything even with the Sunfire Golden Spear?

Lin Xun's demon-god-like offensive and invincible aura made their hearts turn cold.

Rumble!

To everyone's surprise, after capturing Xue Qianhen, Lin Xun's attention shifted to the Sunfire Golden Spear and directed the Nameless Pagoda to subdue it.

However, he did not expect that the unrivaled battle spear would become more powerful than ever before after losing Xue Qianhen as if it had a spirit of its own. After a slight struggle, it broke free from the Nameless Pagoda.

Chla!

In the next instant, it transformed into a golden streak of light, tore apart space, and swiftly disappeared without a trace.

Lin Xun frowned as he inwardly sighed. He knew that a Saint treasure like this wasn't something just anyone could subdue even after losing its wielder.

The Sunfire Golden Spear had also left...

The Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples despaired, feeling as if the sky had collapsed as they turned and fled in fear.

Even though they still outnumbered the opponent and had a powerful line-up remaining, the defeats of the three supreme heaven prides, Zhang Zheng, Yu Baobao, and Xue Qianhen had already made them lose their fighting spirit.

Moreover, the opponent possessed a Saint treasure!

What did they have left to fight such a foe?

Rats scattering from a sinking ship was an apt description of these Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples at this moment.

"Run!"

"That abominable Demon God Lin. He will surely suffer!"

"Quick! Spread the news back to the sect!"

They ran for their lives like frightened beasts.

Swish!

How could Lin Xun possibly allow them to escape like this? With the Hornless Ice Dragon Step, he dashed over without hesitation like flowing light that could partially ignore the rules of space.

Plop!

One of the fleeing Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples suddenly felt a pain in his abdomen. When he looked down, he was horrified to find that the lower half of his body had been chopped off.

Darkness rapidly filled his vision as he lost consciousness.

Thud!

On another side, a man's head exploded. His headless body kept its inertia for another hundred feet or so before crashing to the ground with a thud.

Plop plop plop...

Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples were killed one after another, losing their lives in different districts of the city amidst splatters of blood.

In this moment, Lin Xun was akin to an executioner who mercilessly took their lives.

North Light City was a highly populated city and was still lively and bustling just a quarter of an hour ago.

However, it was now deathly quiet and desolate. There were broken walls and devastation everywhere, and almost all the buildings were reduced to ruins.

The number of innocents that had been caught up in the earlier battle and lost their lives was simply unimaginable.

Although it wasn't all caused by Lin Xun, it was still related to him, which made him feel guilty.

People weren't grass and trees that would feel nothing.

Although Lin Xun had killed many people since he began his cultivation journey, he had retained a clear conscience. This was the first time that his state of mind had been affected.

As such, he became increasingly cruel and heartless as he hunted down the Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples. It was the only way to make him feel a little better.

Little Silver was also dispatched. He carried out his orders cleanly and efficiently, seemingly sensing the abnormality of Lin Xun's mood.

Plop plop plop!

Blood splattered in the air.

The number of Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples gradually decreased.

It didn't take long for Lin Xun to encounter Nangong Huo. His almost transparent face was filled with terror and helplessness.

He begged for mercy in a trembling voice, "Lin Xun, this matter has nothing to do with me. It's Senior Brother Chu Beihai who wanted to capture you at all cost and seize your blessings and treasures..."

Plop!

He was killed by Lin Xun before he could finish. His eyes were still wide open in death as if he was unable to believe what had happened.

Soon after, his older brother, Nangong Shui, was also unable to escape his fate. His body crashed to the ground with a loud thud after Little Silver noiselessly slayed his primordial spirit.

Shortly after, Lin Xun caught up to Gu Yunting.

Lin Xun: "....."

Gu Yunting was in a sorry state. There was a touch of bitterness in his expression when he saw his acquaintance from the past. He seemed to want to say something, but ultimately shut his mouth as if resigning himself to his fate.

"You should leave Heaven Axis Holy Land."

With these final words, Lin Xun turned around and left.

From the start, Lin Xun knew that Gu Yunting, who had previously had a slight disagreement with him, had changed. At the very least, Gu Yunting didn't have any choice in this pursuit operation.

Gu Yunting was in a daze as he watched Lin Xun leave, unable to believe that he had survived...

"Even if you didn't warn me, I still would have broken away from the sect..."

Gu Yunting had a complicated look. So many people had died, yet he remained alive and unharmed. If the sect found out, there was no guarantee that they wouldn't become suspicious!

Chapter 1007: Aspiration

The dusky darkness of twilight descended.

Lin Xun stopped outside the city and looked back. Roughly half of the huge North Light City had been destroyed and turned into ruins.

The power of a Saint treasure was too terrifying. Moreover, Lin Xun knew full well that the Nameless Pagoda could only exert 0.0001% of its power in his hands.

Despite this, the power it could display was still earth-shaking.

Under the dusky sky, the evening breeze was mixed with the smell of smoke and blood.

Little Silver returned. His usually proud head was slightly lowered as if a little depressed as he reported, "Master, two of them escaped."

Lin Xun was slightly taken aback and said, "That's okay."

"But it's shameful to me!" Disappointment appeared on Little Silver's handsome face as he clenched his fists and said, "I won't let this happen again in the future!"

With these words, he turned into a flash of silver and returned to the mind-sea.

He was extremely arrogant and viewed dignity as important as his life. Hence, his expectations toward himself were higher than Lin Xun's.

Upon seeing Little Silver's angry state, Lin Xun couldn't help but worry. He didn't know whether it was good or bad for Little Silver to maintain such a mindset to cultivate.

Lin Xun took a deep breath and decided not to dwell upon it. As his gaze swept over the ruins of the city, he made a certain aspiration in his heart.

"If I one day ascend above the dao, I will bestow great luck to this place to bless the innocent souls here and protect the peace of all future generations!"

As soon as this aspiration was made, Lin Xun suddenly had a peculiar feeling. The guilt in his heart was expelled by a pure, determined power, becoming clear, resolute, and free.

"This might be a sliver of the mysterious wishpower. It is rumored that the Saint experts who set foot on the Saint path need to establish a grand aspiration of the dao. Only by doing so will they be able to forge an immortal and indestructible Divine Dao Fruit..."

Lin Xun deeply pondered.

Outside the city, numerous cultivators were hiding far away while watching Lin Xun.

An earth-shaking battle had broken out earlier where several Heaven Axis Holy Land core disciples were subdued while the rest of the disciples were almost annihilated. It was a result that would inevitably cause a huge uproar.

These cultivators had witnessed it all, and their minds were still in a state of upheaval and unable to calm down. It was easy to imagine how this news would be akin to dropping a bomb and would shake the entire Ancient Blue Province.

Moreover, it was impossible to suppress or conceal. After all, there were too many witnesses and even North Light City was half destroyed.

Several days ago, Heaven Axis Holy Land launched a pursuit operation targeting Demon God Lin. However, their forces were now mostly defeated or wiped out which was a huge slap to their faces!

Although Demon God Lin looked rather dashing from afar, everyone could only see him as a demon god.

He was truly a young demon god who boasted overwhelming strength!

However, they also wondered whether he would be able to stay alive after Heaven Axis Holy Land found out the news.

Heaven Axis Holy Land an ancient orthodoxy with a great reputation in the East Victory World. If Lin Xun provoked them, there would be no place that would take him no matter how big the world was.

"Have you guys watched enough?" Lin Xun turned around, and his deep black eyes swept over the cultivators.

Many cultivators immediately shivered and quickly departed.

However, there were also many cultivators who didn't move. Although North Light City wasn't that big, it still had several powerful experts from the older generation. They had watched the earlier battle and some of them had become interested in Lin Xun's pagoda.

After all, it was a Saint treasure!

It was impossible for anyone not to be tempted by it. However, no one dared to make any rash moves. They had also witnessed Lin Xun's combat power and were somewhat wary of him.

Lin Xun ignored them and flew away.

Trapped in the Nameless Pagoda were the four core disciples of Heaven Axis Holy Land: Ling Hongjin, Xue Qianhen, Zhang Zheng, and Yu Baobao.

He didn't kill them because he still had other uses for them.

"Foolish death seekers..." Lin Xun suddenly noticed several cultivators following him, which made him feel a murderous impulse.

Lin Xun stopped, turned around, and asked, "Are you guys worried that Heaven Axis Holy Land will retaliate against me and decided to join me to fight against Heaven Axis Holy Land together?"

Many cultivators' expressions changed after hearing that. They naturally didn't wish to be implicated and viewed as Demon God Lin's companions by Heaven Axis Holy Land.

Some cultivators immediately hesitated and ultimately decided to withdraw. Although the Saint treasure was tempting, they needed to be alive to enjoy it.

There were also confident cultivators who didn't give up and continued following Lin Xun.

Saint treasures were rare and almost impossible to come across. Even a Saint expert would try to vie for one, let alone the likes of them.

However, they didn't immediately take action. Instead, they used secret methods to call their friends, intending to gather a strong enough force to attack Lin Xun.

At the sight of this, Lin Xun threw away his hesitation, turned around, and summoned the Broken Blade.

Lin Xun had not used the Broken Blade in the previous battles against Xue Qianhen and the others. Hence, none of the cultivators realized that it was his best killing method.

Several cultivators at the front were immediately slain. Blood rained from the sky, accompanied by screams that would make anyone's hair stand on end.

"People die for wealth and birds die for food. I advise everyone to consider whether this is worth it." With that, Lin Xun turned around and left.

"What ruthlessness!"

"Sigh, that was a Saint treasure..."

"C'mon, let's go. He's already capable of suppressing supreme heaven prides. It will be impossible to suppress him unless a King stage old monster makes a move."

In the end, the remaining cultivators didn't dare to continue tailing Lin Xun.

Fifteen minutes later.

Amidst a tumultuous mountain range, Lin Xun suddenly paused, turned around, and said, "Old fellow, come out. I have something to discuss with you."

However, there was only silence, and no one to be seen.

Swish!

Lin Xun was unfazed. The Broken Blade swept out and shot toward a certain location like a silver streak.

"I can't believe that you found me." Before the Broken Blade could approach, a gray figure rushed out with a bewildered and grave expression.

It was a thin middle-aged man with sunken eyes and an extremely powerful aura. It was the half-step King expert, Wen Xingzhou, who once fought Lin Xun!

Lin Xun naturally wouldn't reveal that he had detected the other party's presence ever since he left North Light City.

"You lost last time and have no chance of winning this time either. However, I will not kill you because I have something I need you to do."

Wen Xingzhou was livid. When had a mighty half-step King expert of Heaven Axis Holy Land like himself ever been ridiculed and ordered in such a manner?

However, the situation was pressing so he had to restrain himself. He coldly said, "I admit that it's very difficult to kill you. However, do you think that gives you the right to order me around?"

Lin Xun ignored Wen Xingzhou's angry words and continued, "Go back and tell Chu Beihai that I will wait for him in Sand Cloud City. Remember to bring along the teleportation array control talisman or Heaven Axis Holy Land will not see Xue Qianhen and the other core disciples ever again."

"That's why you captured Xue Qianhen and the others!" Wen Xingzhou immediately understood, causing his expression to turn incomparably stormy.

Lin Xun indifferently said, "Remember, Chu Beihai must come alone. If I discover that an existence beyond the King stage has moved, I will immediately kill them."

He believed that with the lives of the four core disciples in his hands, the other party would have to give in no matter how much they hated to.

Wen Xingzhou's expression fluctuated indeterminately.

It was precisely as Lin Xun had speculated. Wen Xingzhou knew that if there was a chance to save the lives of Xue Qianhen and the others, the sect would inevitably agree to Lin Xun's conditions no matter how angry they were or how humiliating it was.

Because every core disciple was crucial to the sect and the loss of each one would cause an immeasurable blow to them.

After all, for a sect to continue prospering it needed constant infusions of strong new blood.

Xue Qianhen and the others were supreme path experts. In fact, it could be said that they represented the future of Heaven Axis Holy Land!

"Even if you ultimately manage to leave the Ancient Blue Province alive, you won't live for long!" Wen Xingzhou gnashed his teeth in anger.

Lin Xun responded with a nonchalant attitude, "Since I dare to do this, why would I be afraid of such things?"

Wen Xingzhou threateningly said, "Little shitbag, just you wait. If you never become a King expert, you will never be in control of your own fate. The power of an ancient orthodoxy is definitely not something that an ant like you can withstand!"

"Heh." Lin Xun smiled, "But if I do one day set foot in the Supreme King stage, will you still dare to say such things to me?"

A frosty look emerged from between his brows, "At the end of the day, you guys are bullying me because I'm alone. If the opportunity comes in the future, I will personally pay a visit to Heaven Axis Holy Land to see if you guys can stop me!"

With that, he turned around and left.

"Ignorant fool!" Wen Xingzhou's face was white with rage. He wanted to give chase, but ultimately stopped because he was worried about angering Lin Xun.

At the same time, he was also genuinely a little frightened.

Lin Xun's potential was simply too terrifying. He was only at the Cyclic Derivation stage, but he already possessed the strength to suppress his supreme heaven pride peers. Who would be able to stop him if he were to become a King or Saint expert in the future?

"I must report this matter to the sect as soon as possible!" Wen Xingzhou realized the severity of the problem and quickly departed.

Whoosh!

Lin Xun summoned the Grand Universe Ark and headed toward Sand Cloud City at full speed.

He had to arrive at the ancient teleportation array as soon as possible to prevent the enemy from setting up a trap in advance.

As long as this was achieved, it would not be difficult to leave the Ancient Blue Province.

"After killing so many Heaven Axis Holy Land disciples again, they are probably going to go crazy with anger..."

Although he knew it was a very serious matter, Lin Xun didn't feel any psychological burden. As long as he left the Ancient Blue Province, the threat from Heaven Axis Holy Land would greatly weaken.

Moreover, Lin Xun was certain that they would at most dispatch King stage old monsters to deal with him to maintain their dignity.

As for Saint experts...

Heaven Axis Holy Land wouldn't be foolish enough to request such existences to move.

After all, it would be simply humiliating. If the other factions in the East Victory World found out, Heaven Axis Holy Land would lose all of their dignity.

It was absurd for a Saint expert to be dispatched to kill a Cyclic Derivation expert. Moreover, it would only prove that Heaven Axis Holy Land was incapable.

As such, Lin Xun wasn't worried while he traveled to Sand Cloud City. Even if King stage old monsters were dispatched, he had ways to deal with them.

Of course, that was only if the other party dared to send them!

Chapter 1008: Treacherous Situation

North Light City was destroyed, and the casualties were so great that they were innumerable.

Demon God Lin displayed his divine powers and suppressed all successors from Heaven Axis Holy Land.

The battle of Saint treasures was earth-shaking.

Overnight, the news spread throughout the Ancient Blue Province at an astonishing speed like a prairie fire, setting off countless uproars.

The Ancient Blue Province became as turbulent as a gathering storm and countless cultivators were shaken to the core

Rumor had it that when the sect master of the Heaven Axis Holy Land heard the news, he crushed the teacup in his hand and uttered six words with a livid face—

The boy needs to be killed!

Very quickly, another piece of news came out that everyone in the Heaven Axis Holy Land was enraged, and several Life Death King Stage old monsters came out of closed-door cultivation and quietly left the sect.

Some people even spotted Chu Beihai, who should have been at the Stone Appraisal Event in Jade Flame City, in front of the ruins of North Light City that night.

He was a leading figure of the younger generation of Heaven Axis Holy Land. He seemed to be shrouded in a halo of light, drawing the attention of everyone wherever he went.

But to deal with Demon God Lin, he had to go to North Light City in person!

Soon, it was reported that Demon God Lin had already gone to Sand Cloud City, intending to exchange the several captured core disciples of Heaven Axis Holy Land for the opportunity to leave Ancient Blue Province.

Comotions immediately broke out all over the Ancient Blue Province.

Discussions constantly rang out in different areas, all involving Demon God Lin.

“When everyone had doubts about Demon God Lin who came from the lower domain, he prevailed! He is amazing.”

“Unquestionably, Demon God Lin is a remarkable character who has set foot onto the Supreme Path. Amazingly, he could counterattack after being hunted down for so many days and utterly crushed Heaven Axis Holy Land. He is indeed worthy of the title Demon God!”

Soon, Lin Xun’s unbelievable feats in the West Infinity World were revealed by the investigators of the Windspeaker Clan and stirred the world again and again.

“He has no one but himself yet he managed to stir up a storm in the West Infinity World! That boy...is truly terrifying!”

“He holds a pagoda, which is a true Saint treasure! It once suppressed the supreme Saint treasure Longevity Palace of the Longevity Land in the South Wonder World. It also blocked the attack of the Sunfire Golden Spear, the Saint treasure of Heaven Axis Holy Land.”

“A Saint treasure like that will make any of the ancient sects and clans envious. As the saying goes, an innocent man can get into danger because of his wealth. Even if the Heaven Axis Holy Land takes no action, his treasure will be coveted by many other forces.”

“I wonder whether the boy can escape the wrath of Heaven Axis Holy Land...”

Some people pitied Demon God Lin, thinking that he lacked nothing but an identity and status that could deter the world.

If he was a successor from an ancient sect, then his situation would have been completely different.

“Since ancient times, there have been dazzling figures who walked the world alone and stirred up storms with their own strength as Demon God Lin had done, but it never ended well for those who start a feud with the ancient sects and clans.”

“I was looking forward to the rise of a peerless figure, but now it seems like Demon God Lin also can’t escape the fate of death.”

What did it mean by name quaking the world?

This was it. Even if Lin Xun had been hunted down in recent days, he had proven his strength with bloody feats and caused a sensation in the entire Ancient Blue Province. Within a short period, his name had spread all over the world.

Every advantage had its disadvantages. As cultivators analyzed Lin Xun’s situation, many believed his situation was not optimistic.

Ultimately, there was only one reason. Although Lin Xun was powerful, he had yet to fully grow. He might be able to summon the wind and rain among the younger generation, but he was no threat to ancient sects such as Heaven Axis Holy Land.

Adding to that, he was alone and had no one to rely on. He also carried a Saint treasure on him which could ignite a covetous desire in anyone and bring trouble to himself.

He had stirred up too big of a storm this time and infuriated Heaven Axis Holy Land. It seemed impossible that he could leave the Ancient Blue Province alive!

.....

Before the news spread, Lin Xun had already arrived in the Sand Cloud City.

The ancient teleportation array was still the same as when Lin Xun arrived for the first time: a group of cultivators was surrounding him.

Also, it was the same group of people.

“Heavens! That guy is back again...” Yang Chengbo, the city lord of Sand Cloud City, stared wide-eyed at Lin Xun as if he was seeing a ghost.

How would he not know about the terror of Lin Xun after he subdued him in one blow? That tragic defeat also left an unerasable shadow in his heart!

The other cultivators were also aghast.

They were still unaware of Lin Xun’s unbelievable feat in the North Light City. Otherwise, they would be even more terrified.

“Off you go, it won’t be peaceful here,” Lin Xun directly urged the cultivators to leave.

The simple sentence made Yang Chengbo and the others scatter and flee in a panic as if their butts had caught fire.

Lin Xun blinked blankly. “Am I that scary?”

A quarter of an hour later.

After Lin Xun had set up the Four Divisions King Array in front of the ancient teleportation array, he sat down cross-legged in it and waited quietly.

Although he knew that Heaven Axis Holy Land would begrudgingly accept his demand in exchange for Xue Qianhen and others, he still dared not be careless.

An ancient sect had to possess a foundation beyond imagination if it could stand to this day.

Lin Xun had utterly offended them, so it was hard to say that they would not take some special measures to deal with him.

Time slowly passed by.

As night fell, Sand Cloud City looked cold and lonely. There was not a shadow on the usually bustling streets.

The atmosphere was not only silent but also oppressive.

In the great array, Lin Xun, who was meditating, suddenly furrowed his brow, realizing a serious problem.

The opponents might not attack openly, but there is no guarantee that they will not secretly set up some tricks to stop me!

“On the surface, the Saints might not deal with me to protect their reputation, but who would know if they attacked in the dark?”

At this thought, Lin Xun felt a chill run down his back. He realized that he hadn't fully considered everything.

He held a Saint treasure that even Saints coveted!

“Then I need to change my strategy...”

As a precaution, Lin Xun decided to not wait any longer.

Buzz!

He brought out the Dao Immeasurable Bottle and, at the same time, activated the Four Divisions King Array.

The next second, terrifying forbidden waves of energy soared into the sky around the ancient teleportation array, turning into a divine brilliance that flooded the sky. It was an amazing spectacle under the night sky.

But very quickly, all the visions faded.

At the same time, Lin Xun collapsed on his buttocks, his clothes torn, his face deathly pale, and his brows wrinkled with unconcealable exhaustion.

However, he felt relieved as he gazed at the Dao Immeasurable Bottle in his hand.

“Thirty thousand high-grade aeth essence is needed to activate the power of the Four Divisions King Array once. Now, the power of this array has been absorbed by the Dao Immeasurable Bottle...

“After being strengthened by the Dao Immeasurable Bottle, the power will be twice that of the Four Divisions King Array!”

Lin Xun’s dark eyes were as bright as the stars.

This was one of his trump cards. It gave him the confidence to deal with even old monsters of the Life Death Stage. The Four Divisions King Array was already extremely terrifying, capable of imprisoning and killing Life Death Stage Kings, but now, its power had been absorbed and strengthened by the Dao Immeasurable Bottle!

If it was used against the enemy, then it could release incredible destructive power.

However, even if the Dao Immeasurable Bottle was amazing, Lin Xun had to exhaust a lot of energy to manipulate the bottle to absorb the power so he almost collapsed.

At present, Lin Xun could at most manipulate the Dao Immeasurable Bottle to accumulate power equivalent to the level of the king stage. Otherwise, he would also be impacted by the power.

As Lin Xun carefully put away the Dao Immeasurable Bottle, he drew a deep breath and arranged the Illusion Forbidden Array near the ancient teleportation array.

Although the Illusion Forbidden Array could not compare to a king-grade array, it was very effective in concealing his whereabouts. Even old monsters of the Life Death Stage would not be able to see through it.

“In addition to the rune materials needed to set up the arrays, I have to waste another ten thousand high-grade aeth essence...” Lin Xun sighed.

Many materials and aeth essence were required to set up arrays. Although he did not lack those items, his heart still ached a little at the thought of spending so much of his fortune just to escape.

Before long, the Illusion Forbidden Array was activated, spreading across the surroundings of the ancient teleportation array. A dense fog enveloped the area, which not only blocked cultivators but also spirit sense from prying into the truth.

.....

The sky was still dark, but it was already early morning.

Everything was deathly quiet. There was not a chirp of birds or insects. The entire Sand Cloud City seemed to have turned into a desolate city.

The atmosphere grew more and more oppressive, and it was unknown when rapidly thickening black clouds scudded across the sky and obscured the sky of stars.

Hu—Hu—Hu—

The wind whistling in the boundless sky resembled the spine-chilling cries of ghosts and howls of wolves.

Suddenly, a dazzling figure descended at the gate of the city. The golden light flowing around his entire body quickly dispelled the darkness.

The feathered hat crowning his face and the feathered cloak draped over his body accentuated his noble and handsome appearance. His every movement and gesture exuded an unrivaled elegance and confidence. He was precisely Chu Beihai, the leading figure of the younger generation of the Heaven Axis Holy Land.

With his hands clasped behind his back, he paced along the dark street. In the blink of an eye, he came to the ancient teleportation array in the center of the city.

He was at first slightly taken aback by the Illusion Forbidden Array, but then a cryptic smile curled the corners of his lips.

“Lin Xun, as you wish, I am here.” Chu Beihai stated, his clear and melodious voice echoing endlessly in the night.

However, no one responded from the Illusion Forbidden Array.

Chu Beihai smiled and took out a palm-sized prohibition talisman that was inscribed with dense and mysterious runes.

“Let Xue Qianhen and the others go, and this talisman is yours.” From the start, Chu Beihai appeared very calm and composed.

Still, no one responded.

Chu Beihai’s eyes flashed like lightning as he peered into the Illusion Forbidden Array. Frowning, he reassured, “What? Are you worried about an ambush? Don’t worry, in my opinion, saving Xue Qianhen and the others is more important than killing you now!”

His voice was tinged with a hint of disdain as if he thought that Lin Xun was too cautious and cowardly.

The only sound that could be heard was the howling wind, which felt like a whetted knife, but it still failed to disperse the thick fog within the Illusion Forbidden Array.

After a long moment without a response, a bad feeling surged in Chu Beihai’s heart.

Chapter 1009: Canglan Province

Chi!

Suddenly, golden flames emerged within Chu Beihai’s eyes. Like a flash of lightning, it tore through the darkness in the direction of the Illusion Forbidden Array not too far away.

Flame Golden Eye!

This was Chu Beihai’s innate talent, which allowed him to see through all illusions and into the truth.

But soon, he furrowed his brows. The fog within the Illusion Forbidden Array was so thick that even if he could see through it, it was still impossible to locate Lin Xun.

Could it be that he's not in this array?

A chill struck Chu Beihai's heart. The vast Sand Cloud City had been deserted. There was not a single living creature in it.

Moreover, he scanned the surroundings and saw no suitable place for Lin Xun to hide.

"Lin Xun, if you don't show up now, don't blame me for destroying this array with force!" Chu Beihai's slender and tall body erupted with frightening power like a god descending upon the mortal world.

He was starting to lose his patience after being repeatedly ignored.

Boom!

As he swiftly brought out a short, purple battle ax, a splendid shower of purple light rained from the treasure. The magnificent spectacle was no doubt an indication of its unfathomable powers.

However, before Chu Beihai could make a move, a powerful voice resounded through heaven and earth, "Beihai, retreat, that boy is cunning. He once used a king-grade array to trap and kill Old Monster Moxi. Let me break this array!"

As the voice echoed, a mighty middle-aged figure emerged in the air. His figure seemed as tall and strong as a mountain, exuding the frightening majesty of a king. The surrounding clouds dissipated and the air whimpered in his presence.

It was an old monster of the King Stage!

"Thank you for your trouble, Master Xuan Wei." Chu Beihai stepped aside, trembling inwardly.

After these days of hunting, he had come to realize that Demon God Lin was not only fearless and wild, but also scheming and cunning. It was hard to not worry whether there would be murderous traps concealed within the Illusion Forbidden Array.

Boom!

With a turn of his hand, Xuan Wei formed a skyful of light and transformed it into a giant hand that blotted out the sky. He fiercely launched it downwards.

Instantly, the Illusion Forbidden Array wailed and crumbled like paper, fading in a chaotic rain of light.

Both Xuan Wei and Chu Beihai were a little dumbfounded to see the array break so easily. But when they looked ahead, their faces immediately darkened.

A note was left in front of the ancient teleportation array that was covered by the Illusion Forbidden Array earlier. Written in elegant but strong strokes were: "I couldn't bear to see you off so I will leave first. If there is a chance in the future, I will definitely pay you a visit."

Flames flickered cold in Chu Beihai's eyes, and a dark cloud of gloom and frustration hovered in his chest. He almost coughed up blood.

"It's a diversion...Damn Demon God Lin!" He paused at every word, his expression was ice-cold and terrifying, and his body released terrifying killing intent.

He had plotted for a long time before he came. He thought that he had made enough preparations and he could kill the opponent once and for all, but who would have thought that the opponent would use such a cunning tactic as pretending to set up a formation but had already fled?

When Chu Beihai remembered him talking to the array, thinking that Lin Xun was inside it, an uncontrollable sense of shame rose from his heart.

“That boy needs to be killed!” Xuan Wei’s face also became overcast. If word got out that he was tricked by a junior, he would be ashamed to death.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Meanwhile, terrifying figures loomed in the vicinity of the Sand Cloud City. Each one possessing the strength of the king stage!

However, their expressions dramatically changed when they saw the words left by Lin Xun.

We’ve been tricked!

They could only blame themselves for being too convinced that Lin Xun would leave via the ancient teleportation array.

“Mobilize all forces to find that boy. No matter what, we can’t let him escape from the Ancient Blue Province!” Xuan Wei commanded in a deep voice.

Despite the fact that there was such an order, everyone knew that it would be near impossible to stop Lin Xun from fleeing this time.

They originally had the Yin Yang Spirit Locking Mirror that could lock onto Lin Xun’s aura, but that treasure had fallen into Lin Xun’s hand after he captured Xue Qianhen and the others.

Additionally, Lin Xun could take on the appearance of different people using the Great Formless Art. It was no doubt going to be extremely difficult to capture him again.

“That boy left about five hours ago. I can roughly lock in on his aura. Maybe there is still a chance to catch up to him!” A thin old man in a black robe suddenly stepped forward.

The man was called Cheng Huaikong, a Life Death Stage King of Heaven Axis Holy Land who had made a name for himself years ago. He was a tyrannical existence that had survived the first longevity tribulation, earning himself an overlord-like status within the Ancient Blue Province.

Chu Beihai’s and the others’ eyes lit up.

He only left five hours ago?

That’s not too late!

.....

Swoosh!

The Grand Universe Ark whizzed across the vast night sky like a silver rainbow, covering hundreds of miles in the blink of an eye.

“From this direction, within a day, I will leave Ancient Blue Province and arrive in Canglan Province...” Lin Xun spread out a map and studied it carefully on the ship.

Before this, he was stopped by the enemies every few hours because they had the Yin Ying Spirit Locking Mirror so he did not dare to escape using the Grand Universe Ark for fear of old monsters of the king stage intercepting him.

But now that the Yin Yang Spirit Locking Mirror had fallen into his hands, he had no such worries anymore.

The Grand Universe Ark could travel at unbelievable speed. Its speed was comparable to that of old monsters of the king stage.

This fact was already proven when Lin Xun was hunted down by two old monsters of the king stage from the Black Nightmare Sky Dog Clan in the West Infinity World.

“Even if they lock onto my aura, by the time they catch up to me, I would have already left the Ancient Blue Province...” Lin Xun inhaled deeply. He knew that this would determine whether he would succeed or fail.

He could not relax at this critical juncture.

The night soon faded and dawn broke.

Several hours later, Lin Xun left the territory of the Ancient Blue Province without any problems and came to a city in the Canglan Province.

Not long after entering the city, Lin Xun left again. He had made some inquiries in the city and learned that there was also an ancient teleportation array in a city called Shuiming around thousands of miles away.

The array was controlled by Scarlet Sun Sword Sect, a top sect in the Canglan Province.

Not long after Lin Xun left, Cheng Huaikong arrived at the city with Chu Beihai, Xuan Wei and the others.

Except for Chu Beihai, the others were all old monsters of the king stage so their entrance naturally caused a sensation in the city.

“The boy has left. Based on the direction he left in, he must be heading for Shuiming City. He plans to leave using the ancient teleportation array there. Hurry! Chase after him!”

Within seconds, Cheng Huaikong and the others vanished like a gust of wind.

Shuiming City.

This city was rather peculiar as it was built on top of a huge mountain range. From a distance, the endless rolling mountains resembled the spine of a dragon. The city above it was like a country in the middle of a mountain.

Lin Xun stored away the Grand Universe Ark, disguised himself as a middle-aged man, and entered Shuiming city.

As he neared the ancient teleportation array in the city, he saw that there were already hundreds of cultivators waiting in a long queue.

“Brother, dare I ask when will this array be opened?” Lin Xun asked.

“It will be quick, in around a quarter of an hour.” answered a bearded man next to him casually.

“Then can I ask which province will the array lead to?” Lin Xun continued to ask.

The bearded man rolled his eyes and said irritably, “Of course, it’s Azure Rain City in the Gold Wood Province! Do you not know about that either?”

Lin Xun chuckled and asked no more.

The Gold Wood Province was located in the north of the East Victory World and was separated by hundreds of provinces from the Ancient Blue Province where Heaven Axis Holy Land was located.

As long as reached there, he would not need to worry about being hunted anymore.

“Everyone, the ancient teleportation array will be opened soon. The fee needs to be paid now. It will be three thousand high-grade aeth essence per person!” shouted a goateed old man.

He was an expert from the Scarlet Sun Sword Sect, which controlled the ancient teleportation array. Anyone who wanted to borrow the teleportation array had to pay them a fee.

However, Lin Xun was shocked to hear about the enormous fee. No ordinary cultivator would be able to afford to pay three thousand high-grade aeth essence.

After collecting the fees from each cultivator, the goatee old man took out the prohibition talisman, activated the ancient teleportation array and said loudly, “Everyone, I wish you all a safe trip!”

Hundreds of cultivators entered the ancient teleportation array one after another.

At this point, Lin Xun breathed a sigh of relief. Once he left this place, he could fly freely. Regardless of how powerful Heaven Axis Holy Land was, they would not hunt for him all over the world.

After all, although the territories of the East Victory World spanned a huge area, many places had been controlled by ancient sects and clans. Regardless of how crazy and arrogant Heaven Axis Holy Land was, they would not dare to stir up trouble in the territory of other forces.

“Wait!” Following a loud roar, a group of figures rushed over.

Rumble!

The leader stretched out his hand before he arrived and removed the control talisman inlaid in the ancient teleportation array that was about to operate.

Everyone was astonished at first before dissatisfied looks crossed their faces, but when they saw the figures rushing over, they dared not utter a single word.

Even the experts of the Scarlet Sun Sword Sect froze, showing fear and respect.

This was because they were several old monsters of the king stage!

The group was strong enough to sweep the entire Shuiming City. Even the sect master of the Scarlet Sun Sword Sect would have to treat them with courtesy and respect.

Lin Xun's pupils shrank. He saw Chu Beihai!

Moreover, the old man that headed the group exuded an aura as unfathomable as the sky and as deep as the sea.

Lin Xun had met many experts of the king stage so he knew right away that the old man was superior to ordinary old monsters of the king stage. He was likely to have already embarked on the Longevity Path!

In addition to him were four old monsters of the king stage. This lineup was terrifying.

In comparison, Chu Beihai did not appear to be a threat.

Lin Xun sighed in his heart. My luck is so bad. Why did this happen at the last moment...

Following the arrival of Chu Beihai and the others, the area fell dead silent and a feeling of unease and restlessness filled everyone. They did not know what was happening.

At the same time, Chu Beihai's flaming golden eyes were fixed on the middle-aged man that was Lin Xun. A chilling smile cracked over his lips. "Lin Xun, we meet again!"

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1010: Immeasurable Power

His ice-cold voice reeked of contempt and murderous intent.

Lin Xun also knew that the Great Formless Art could not fool Chu Beihai who possessed the Flame Golden Eyes. He revealed his true face right away.

Only then did the cultivators realize that the group of powerful experts came specifically for the young man!

Unbelievable! How could a youngster at the Cyclic Derivation Stage receive such a treatment from a team of king-stage cultivators?

Moreover, some sharp-eyed people identified that Chu Beihai and the others were experts from Heaven Axis Holy Land based on their appearance and clothing!

Heaven Axis Holy Land was an ancient sect in the Ancient Blue Province, but it was so powerful and influential that it was famous all over the East Victory World.

Meanwhile, Cheng Huaikong, Xuanwei and other king-stage old monsters studied Lin Xun. Is he the famous Demon God Lin?

He looks nothing special!

“Release Xue Qianhen and the others, and I will let you die with dignity.” Chu Beihai’s eyes shone a cold and ruthless light.

In fact, he had a lot of pent-up anger throughout the long pursuit.

Firstly, he was tricked by Lin Xun and wasted a trip to the Sand Cloud City, and then he followed him all the way to Shuiming City in the Canglan Province and almost lost his target once again.

Regardless of how calm and collected he was, he could not contain his anger any more.

“Step back and hand over the prohibition talisman and I will let them go,” Lin Xun calmly negotiated.

“Little bastard, how can you still have the guts to bargain with us?” Xuan Wei roared violently like a god. Everyone felt their spirits becoming oppressed.

Seeing the dangerous situation, many cultivators retreated into the distance, lest they be impacted.

The wrath of a king could cause a blood bath!

The violent roar even sent Lin Xun’s blood leaping around his body. He had to admit that there was still a huge gap between him and a true king.

However, he was not afraid, and said coldly, “Old bastard, you say you are from Heaven Axis Holy Land and hold a high position and authority, then why do you have such bad breath?”

“Do you want to die?!” Xuan Wei raged, his face darkening. He looked frightening as if a vortex of lightning was swirling within his eyes.

When did anyone ever dare to call him an old bastard?

The kid must have a death wish!

Boom!

Lin Xun felt a mountainous weight bearing down on him from the power spreading outwards from Xuan Wei’s body.

“Ah—” A tragic scream escaped from Lin Xun, but it was not Lin Xun’s voice.

“Junior Brother Zhang Zheng!” Chu Beihai fumed, “Lin Xun, what did you do to Junior Brother Zhang Zheng?”

“Nothing just took half his life. If your attitude remains so overbearing, then I might take the other half,” Lin Xun uttered indifferently.

The oppressive aura of an old monster at the king stage might be terrifyingly powerful, but it was not enough to deter Lin Xun.

“You!” The faces of Chu Beihai and the group of old monsters all became overcast with murderous intent. Their terrifying power spread and soon the palpable killing intent pervaded even the sky above Shuiming City.

“Hand over the prohibition talisman, otherwise, you will never see Zhang Zheng and the others again in your life!” Lin Xun demanded, wasting no time with them. He looked directly at them with ice-cold eyes, seeming extremely domineering.

Chu Beihai and the others almost went crazy with rage.

After all the trouble to catch up to Lin Xun, they were being threatened and domineered like that. How would they not be burning with anger and frustration?

“Fine!”

Unexpectedly, Cheng Huaikong, who had been silent all this time, agreed in a straightforward manner. Then, with a flick of his sleeve, he launched the prohibition talisman that he had put away earlier in the direction of Lin Xun.

At the same time, Lin Xun’s pupils shrank.

This was because coming his way along with the prohibition talisman was a giant hand that obscured the sky like a dragon’s claw stretching across the void. Suddenly, it bloomed with endless dao light, producing an unblockable mighty force!

Lin Xun would be caught as easily as picking a flower.

That was the power of a Longevity First Tribulation King. Lin Xun, a Cyclic Derivation cultivator, was like an insignificant ant under his boundless power.

Chu Beihai and the others heaved a sigh of relief. They had to admit that Cheng Huaikong’s blow was absolutely miraculous and unstoppable!

Lin Xun couldn’t possibly escape, nor would he have another chance to kill Xue Qianhen and the others.

However, to everyone’s surprise, Lin Xun did not resist at all. On the contrary, he seemed very cooperative and rushed over.

Silently, a jade bottle several inches tall emerged in the air. It was activated by Lin Xun.

Boom!

The rumble and roar resounded like a landslide while blinding waves of forbidden array power poured out like the rays of a blazing sun. It resembled a vast explosion.

Within seconds, splendid light soared into the sky and flooded the area, as if the door of destruction had been opened.

Complex king-grade forbidden runes surged fiercely, enveloping the entire world.

What an indescribable, earthshaking power!

“This is bad!” Cheng Huaikong’s cold and confident expression faded from his face, replaced by shocked horror. The palm strike he launched had been crushed to smithereens.

Moreover, before he could dodge or retreat, the boundless forbidden power had swept over him. His body burned all over. He screamed in agony, writhing around wildly

Xuan Wei and other old monsters planned to escape when they saw the bad situation, but it was already too late because the power quickly moved to envelop them next!

This wasn't because they were incompetent, but because the Dao Immeasurable Bottle was stored with the strongest power of the Four Divisions King Array. After being strengthened by the Dao Immeasurable Bottle, that power had more than doubled in strength.

They were basically facing an intensified king-grade forbidden array. How could they withstand it?

Moreover, the attack happened too suddenly. They never imagined that there would be such a mysterious and incredible treasure in Lin Xun's hands that could bring them imminent danger.

It was a pity that Cheng Huaikong, a king-level expert who had stepped onto the Longevity Path, was being suppressed within the terrifying power of the forbidden array before he showed his might. Someone as powerful as him could only scream miserably.

His entire body seemed to be on fire, every inch of his skin was charred, and his flesh and bones were all burnt.

It was the same with Xuan Wei and the others. Their bodies were submerged in the terrifying forbidden power, unable to move an inch regardless of how they struggled. Their skin and flesh split open from the unbearable force.

In the far distance, countless cultivators were aghast. In the blink of an eye, several old monsters of the king stage were being unbelievably suppressed.

No one could believe that Lin Xun, a youngster at the Cyclic Derivation Stage, could possess the power to severely wound several king stage experts. This news would no doubt shake the world if spread.

But what was most unexpected was that Chu Beihai managed to escape.

Firstly, this was because Lin Xun was specifically targeting the old monsters and thought that Chu Beihai was not a huge threat to him.

Secondly, at the critical moment, Chu Beihai summoned a strange black stone bowl that released a silvery glow that resisted all attacks and took him hundreds of meters away from the spot. It was no different from teleportation!

Undoubtedly, the black bowl was an incredible treasure.

Even so, Chu Beihai still broke out in a cold sweat. He had found the strange black bowl from a Star Debris Meteorite at the Rock Appraisal Event. It was a mysterious and unfathomable treasure called the Sky Transformation Bowl.

He would have been wiped out if he did not have the treasure!

After all, even old monsters at the king stage failed to withstand the king-grade forbidden power.

"Argh!" Chu Beihai's face turned livid, and his eyes became bloodshot.

They all knew that Lin Xun possessed a Saint treasure pagoda, but they were not afraid of it because they believed that it was impossible for Lin Xun to display the full power of the Saint treasure given his current strength.

They believed that old monsters at the king stage were enough to suppress him.

Who would have thought that the Saint treasure did not appear, but he instead unleashed a gush of indescribably terrifying king-grade forbidden array power?!

They were all caught off guard.

Even if Chu Beihai was furious, he was hesitant to go forward. The attack was terrifying, sweeping over the sky and earth. He would no doubt die if he came into contact with the power.

Lin Xun ignored him and frantically activated the Dao Immeasurable Bottle, concentrating all his attacks on Cheng Huaikong and other king stage old monsters.

A thunderous roar resounded through the sky above Shuiming City, "Ridiculous! Who dares to create trouble at the Scarlet Sun Sword Sect?"

The sect master of the Scarlet Sun Sword Sect had been alarmed. He was also an expert of the king stage!

Lin Xun narrowed his eyes and swept a glance over the area. One of the king stage old monsters had already been killed. His body had broken into three chunks like crumbling charcoal, and his spirit aura had long been extinguished.

Cheng Huaikong and the others were not much better. Even if they managed to survive, they were left with unimaginable injuries.

Without wavering, Lin Xun sped into the ancient teleportation formation like a flash of light. He swiftly set the prohibition talisman on the altar of the ancient array.

Buzz!

The ancient teleportation array buzzed and produced thrust.

Instantly, Lin Xun vanished from the spot.

"Lin Xun, no matter where you run to, I will find you and kill you! I guarantee it!" Chu Beihai threw his head back and roared skywards, his hair standing up in anger.

"Little bastard! You and I can't live under the same sky!" Cheng Huaikong also roared.

He and the other three Life Death Stage Kings had luckily survived, but they were all in a terrible state and almost on their last breath.

In the distance, the countless cultivators were trembling inwardly. They knew this was a huge matter that would shake the Ancient Blue Province and spread throughout the world.

That was indeed the case. In less than one day, the news circulated the Ancient Blue Province and set off monstrous storms.

In less than half a month, several Heaven Axis Holy Land successors who were hunting down Lin Xun had been killed and wounded. Furthermore, several kings ended up with heavy injuries, and one king even lost his life!

Who would believe all that?

But Demon God Lin, who caused all this, escaped unscathed and left through an ancient teleportation array. The news shocked countless cultivators so much that their eyeballs almost fell out.

Before this, they were not optimistic for Lin Xun, thinking that he would not escape death since he had offended Heaven Axis Holy Land.

But the truth struck them like a blow to their heads!
