

Prodigies 1145

The Prodigies War

Chapter 1145: Kill All

Shua!

A blue spear swathed in a thunderbolt pierced the air with terrifying destructive power rumbling around its body.

Previously, the successor from the Moon Worshipper Sect also used the same move to stab Toady's shoulder and almost smashed his head.

He followed the same tactic to pierce Lin Xun's head!

However, the tip of the spear froze just as it reached three inches away from the space between Lin Xun's eyebrows, unable to move at all.

Huh?

Lie Yunhai's pupils shrank. The look of excitement and ruthlessness on his face was also instantly dispelled.

His spear was firmly clutched by a huge, fair hand.

Additionally, all the destructive power contained within the spear had been neutralized!

This is bad!

Lie Yunhai's heart shook violently. He suddenly gathered power and tried to lunge the spear further forward.

Boom!

But Lin Xun had already tightened his grip around the spear and a majestic power burst out from it like a torrent.

Lie Yunhai's hand tore apart and he was blasted through the air like he had been knocked by a wild bull.

Pu!

At the same time, Lin Xun lunged the spear forward like a dazzling blue lightning bolt and skewered it through his chest, leaving a bowl-sized hole!

Blood shot everywhere and Lie Yunhai died on the spot. He was the first to charge forward, but he was also the first to be propelled backwards from the impact.

With a boom, he smashed into the ground and fell motionlessly.

"This..."

"It's bad!"

Wu Lingfei's and others' expressions changed dramatically. The joy and excitement in their minds subsided like a tide, replaced by disbelief and horror.

How would Lie Yunhai, the peerless monster of the Moon Worshipper Sect, be killed just like that?

"His injury..." Xuan Jing shrieked, shocked to discover that the wound in Lin Xun's chest had miraculously healed some time ago. Not a trace of it remained apart from some bloodstains.

"How can that be?" The others also felt their hearts tumble in their chests.

Before this, Lin Xun was badly injured and almost disemboweled, so they all became full of excitement thinking that they would succeed in getting revenge and washing away their shame.

Who would have thought that in just a short time, his injuries would heal and he would be back to normal?

"His aura...is much stronger than before!"

Some people trembled inwardly, realizing that despite Lin Xun being covered in bloodstains, he exuded an aura more frightening and powerful than before.

The unexpected change made them feel uneasy.

Boom!

Lin Xun, on the other hand, wasted no time. After killing Lie Yunhai, he rampaged through the area like a storm sweeping across the world. He glowed an azure hue as the power of the Star Annihilation Heaven Devourer surged around him.

Fist power erupted like dragons emerging from an abyss.

An expert had just been horror struck by Lie Yunhai's death, but now he was enveloped by terrifying fist power. Caught off guard, he couldn't help from screaming sharply and doing everything he could to fight back.

Bang!

His body exploded into smithereens. Even though he had fought with full strength, he still crumbled like paper under Lin Xun's earth-shaking punch and died on the spot.

That single punch was swift, direct and domineering!

"Hurry up and attack!" someone cried in a panic, realizing the unfavorable situation.

The reminder was pointless. The experts present were all top supreme characters. The moment that they sensed something was wrong, they all boldly attacked without hesitation.

However, they were still trembling inwardly, shocked that Demon God Lin could recover so fast.

Rumble!

A battle broke out anew.

This level of battle was undoubtedly extremely humbling. It was a clash between the top supreme figures in the world, and each possessed extraordinary strength.

However, the situation had been reversed!

Lin Xun was only wounded earlier because he had to rescue A'lu and Toady.

But now, after consuming the Lightning Yuan Aeth Liquid and coupled with the astonishing repairing power of the Immortality Grand Dao, Lin Xun had been restored to his peak condition and regained his terrifying strength!

He, who was filled with pent-up rage, would not show any mercy.

He exploded without restraint!

Bang!

Amidst a shower of light, booms and rumbles pulsated in the air.

Then, a shrill howl resounded——

“Do you want to kill me? You deserve to die!”

It was Shang Lan from the Sea Soul Clan. His muscles and bones were smashed under the force of Lin Xun's fist and all seven of his orifices were bleeding. A baleful look distorted his ashen face.

“Do you think you can kill me? Die!”

At the same time, Lin Xun's chilling and austere voice rang out.

Before the voice died away, under countless gazes, Lin Xun, whose clothes were stained with blood, suddenly burst forth with a grievous aura like an abyss. He stepped forward, and the Broken Blade shot out at the same time.

Pu!

It was akin to a ray of light fired from the depths of the starry sky, arising and extinguishing, turning into nothingness. Then, a head hurled into the air.

The head flew high, and the face was still twisted with a look of horror, bitterness, bewilderment, and disbelief.

Reflected in the eyes was Lin Xun who looked like an unrivaled killing god—powerful, fierce and calm.

Thud!

The headless corpse fell to the ground, its flesh and blood mangled.

Another ancient-era eccentric genius had been slaughtered!

The scene once again stabbed the nerves of many people, turning their faces overcast.

Before this, they fought to be the first to kill Lin Xun, hoping to wash away the shame and hatred in their hearts.

But now that they faced Lin Xun, who had been restored to his peak state, they only felt fear, shock, and bewilderment.

They never imagined that the situation would be reversed so quickly and turn so bleak!

No one dared to be careless. Everyone was ready to fight with their lives. In their eyes, Lin Xun was like a ferocious, raging beast, exuding deadly, threatening power.

He was alone and encircled, but he was not restrained in the slightest. On the contrary, he moved across the battlefield like a violent abyss swallowing up the eight wastelands and annihilating everything in his way. His glowing body made him look even more domineering and haughty like an invincible demon god.

His powerful stance chilled many people!

Pu!

Very quickly, Lin Xun seized the opportunity to somersault into the air and slam his body into a man in a yellow robe.

Crack—

The sound of bones shattering rang incessantly. Every inch of the skin, bones, flesh and even internal organs of the yellow-robed man ruptured. He screamed in agony.

Then, his body exploded, and blood sputtered like a waterfall!

Swoosh!

Before this, Wu Lingfei and several others were charging towards A'lu, intending to repeat the same trick to curb Lin Xun.

But, Lin Xun did not interfere.

A'lu also did not run or evade. The burly barbarian grinned and suddenly unleashed an earthshaking roar—

“I’m going to kill you all bastards!”

Boom!

Images of deities surfaced from his rough, rock-like skin, and his monstrous, bloodthirsty aura saturated the air as if to suppress the world.

A giant black iron rod swept across the void, creating a sonic boom that stung everyone’s eardrums.

With a boom, a youngster was hurled across the battlefield like a sandbag and smashed before being embedded into a copper pillar thousands of feet away.

“This is bad! That guy has also recovered his strength!” Wu Lingfei’s heart sank. He felt increasingly uneasy.

“Run!” On the other hand, Xuan Jing was more direct and bolted out of the hall without any hesitation.

Lin Xun was exceptionally powerful and had demonstrated his unrivaled strength before he was wounded. Who could suppress him now that he had recovered?

A'lu was equally strong. If not, he would have been killed by them long before Lin Xun arrived.

But now, he also had been restored to peak state!

The situation had been completely reversed, and it was pointless to continue the battle!

"Are you trying to flee? Have you asked for my permission first?"

Toady also launched into action. With a roar, he charged towards Xuan Jing, endless murderous intent surging around his dazzling golden body.

He would have died if Lin Xun hadn't rescued him in time. Now that he had completely recovered with the help of the Lightning Yuan Aeth Liquid, how would he hold back?

He immediately exploded!

Rumble—

In the palace, the battle became more and more intense. Divine lights beamed, and treasures collided.

However, the situation was indeed different from before!

The combined strength of Lin Xun, Toady, and A'lu was as powerful and magnificent as a tornado. They each demonstrated heaven-defying strength as they sped headlong into the enemies with unstoppable momentum.

Lin Xun activated his strongest killing arts and strengthened them with the Star Annihilation Heaven Devourer Dao.

Toady and A'lu were not inferior to him in any aspect. The former was a descendant of the Three-Legged Golden Toad Clan who had mastered the secret Sun and Moon Engulfing Scripture. He was a true ancient-era eccentric genius.

A'lu was suspected to be related to the ancient Dragon Elephant Battle Emperor, and he had mastered the Emperor Extreme World-Subduing Art. Additionally, he cultivated the Saint's Body, so his strength was abnormally strong.

The combined power of the three crushed everyone with ease and things took a different turn.

Pu! Pu! Pu!

Within moments, several experts had died miserably. Before death, they were all talented geniuses of the world. But after death, they were all reduced to nothing.

At the beginning of the battle, there were twenty-six experts from different clans and sects, all of whom were extraordinary as evidenced by the fact that they could enter the Divine Flame Palace.

But now, only eight people remained standing on the battlefield!

In other words, more than half of the experts had either died or had lost their ability to fight.

Even Wu Lingfei was terror-stricken and turned around to flee.

The other experts also lost their courage and bolted without hesitation.

Demon God Lin was already terrifying enough, but now he had two helpers. How could they possibly compete against them?

“Where are you going?!” Lin Xun thundered as he summoned the Broken Blade and chased after them with Toady and A’lu.

Pu!

A blade-wielding man was severed in half by the Broken Blade.

At the same time, A’lu and Toady worked together to kill another expert.

Wu Lingfei and other experts darted to the palace door, but to their despair, the door was shut tight!

It would not budge no matter how they pushed or attacked it.

“No—!”

“How can this be?”

Furious hisses rang out.

Wu Lingfei and the others were going crazy, and their eyes were bursting with anger.

They never imagined that the mysterious palace was a structure that could only be entered but not exited!

Meanwhile, in the distance, Lin Xun, Toady and A’lu were heading their way at terrifying speed like gods of death.