

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3167

They take on so many tasks.

Received a robbery mission for the first time?

To rob???

Is there anything wrong?

And if they rob other people, they can understand!

But what is in front of you is Tianqi City!

The center of the Apocalypse Empire!

Gather all the masters!

There are hundreds of gods among them!

Let them rob Tianqi Kingdom?

crazy?

Are they dreaming?

Or was the command sent wrong?

It stands to reason that as long as the order came, they would be like crazy, and immediately ran in.

After all, after waiting for half an hour, they were going crazy.

But now that I received the order, I was dumbfounded.

robbery?

Are you playing big?

Everyone looked at the Doomsday Mercenaries, waiting for their opinions.

Since you've accepted the mission, rush in!"

"What's more, they can still issue orders, not necessarily what's going on!"

"rush!!!"

Hundreds of people from all the hiring organizations attacked, turning into sharp swords and rushing towards Apocalypse City.

They are ready for an extreme battle.

"Kill in!"

The gods of the doomsday employment organization rushed to the front.

"boom....."

But when the door was opened, it turned out that no one was guarding.

According to this situation, shouldn't it be full of guards?

How easily the door broke open.

Everyone entered the outer city area of Tianqi City.

It turned out that no one had it.

Confuse!

So confused!

Everything is weird!

And the robbery mission sent by Levi Garrison made them even more confused about what was going on.

"continue!"

Hundreds of people continued to charge, and soon came to the inner city gate of Tianqi City.

Still unguarded.

They became more and more puzzled.

But still a brain rushed in.

But as they walked along, they seemed hesitant and frightened.

“Come in quickly, it’s been a long time for you guys, and you’ll be chattering one by one!”

At this time, a voice came impatiently.

Levi Garrison’s voice!

Levi Garrison watched this group of people grinding and chirping, and he was about to die of anger.

Such a good time to hurry up and rob.

Why are you so afraid of each and every one?

Isn’t it all the horror of licking blood on the edge of a knife?

Afraid of this?

The robbery is over!

When this group of hired organizations came to the inner city, they were shocked.

There are corpses everywhere.

Apparently there had just been a big battle.

Why are all the people who died from the Apocalypse Empire?

It can be easily seen from their armor.

God? ? ?

All the dead are gods? ? ?

Looking at the scattered corpses, they all lost their heads.

But from the residual breath, it can be judged that this is a god!

The dead are gods!

Everywhere!

There are corpses of gods everywhere.

“Ten, twenty, fifty...”

Others began to roughly count.

Some people can see the approximate number at a glance.

Most people can judge it, but they are shocked and unwilling to believe what they see.

Maybe in my heart it's impossible!

Judging from the number, there are tens of thousands of people who fell to the ground.

And the corpses of the gods concentrated in this area are almost thousands.

That means – all the gods of the Apocalypse Empire are here.

But in the form of a corpse...

This shows a big problem – the gods of the Apocalypse Empire are all extinct.

Killed!

Not one left!

All fell to the ground here.

So when these hiring organizations saw it for the first time, they didn't believe it was true.

Everyone stood there stunned.

I don't want to accept this fact!

That is more than 900 gods!

Not Chinese cabbage!

Is it that easy to kill them all?

Not easy is not easy!

It's impossible!!

There are tens of thousands of other powerful people who fell to the ground. Although they are not gods, they all have the potential of gods and can become gods in the future.

All were killed!

In the end what happened?

Why is there such a change in the Apocalypse Empire?

What are they missing?

Who did all this?

The people who gradually reacted turned their attention to the three of Levi Garrison.

It's just that the three of them were clean, not even a trace of blood, and there was no sign of a fight at the scene.

Not to mention three people.

So who is it?

What the hell is going on?

It directly killed tens of thousands of gods and potential gods in the Apocalypse Empire.

So shocking!

No one will believe it!

That is nearly a thousand gods!

What kind of combat power does this have?

But there was no one else there.

The Apocalypse Empire has sealed Apocalypse City.

No one has ever come in.

There are only three outsiders, Levi Garrison.

Is it...

A terrible idea was born in everyone's mind.

Everyone broke out in a cold sweat.

Why was Levi Garrison so calm from beginning to end, and why did he reject them in the first place...

It turns out that he is not afraid of the Apocalypse Empire!

It turned out that he could kill all the gods of the Apocalypse Empire!

It turns out that he has the strength to destroy the Apocalypse Empire!

Got it, got it all.

They even seemed to want to understand some questions – where did Levi Garrison's resources come from.

With the strength of Levi Garrison, he can go to the forbidden area to get it.

Not afraid of any danger at all.

He must follow his own home in the second-level forbidden area, or even the first-level forbidden area.

At this moment, everyone was enlightened.

In the distance, the other high-level officials of the third level of Emperor Apocalypse were all slumped on the ground in fright, and the whole Apocalypse City was in a mess.

Especially seeing the hundreds of thousands of people kneeling on both sides, unable to struggle and angry faces.

They are even more shocking!

Is this all because of Levi Garrison?

One by one was suppressed.

Can't get up at all!

Levi Garrison pulled a group of people who were dazed, and couldn't help shouting: "Why are you all standing there? Why don't you take the task quickly!"

"It's time for me to use you!"

Levi Garrison's voice woke everyone up.

They finally got the task.

All of them stood in front of Levi Garrison, waiting for the mission.

"Start the robbery from now on! Rob it for me in Tianqi City, and steal all the spiritual energy crystals or treasures from heaven and earth!"

"If someone stops you, just kill it! I said it!"

Levi Garrison ordered.

For some reason, the members of these hiring organizations got excited.

And this task is too weird.

Among them, there is the strongest employment organization.

"Steal him!!!"

I don't know who shouted, this group of people started to loot in Tianqi City like crazy.

This is the strangest task they've ever undertaken!

It's the safest mission ever!

Because everyone is crushed.

Don't dare to resist!

But robbery seems a bit addicting!

It feels so cool, doesn't it?

Next, these dozen or so hired organizations "robbed" everywhere in Apocalypse City.

Of course not everything.

Only grab the treasures of heaven and earth and aura crystals.

Only grab the treasures that belong to this era.

bar?

Can't stop it at all!

Those who have the strength to stop them are all kneeling on the ground!
