

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1201

Levi had a really long dream.

It was as if he had relived all twenty over years of his life in his dream.

Things were starting to get blurry as he was about to die, but he couldn't afford to just yet.

Zoey... My family and friends... Erudia... C'mon! Wake up! I have to live on! I can't just die like this! I still haven't found out who Mr. Finch is!

"Dad..."

Levi heard a faint voice shouting in his ear.

He slowly opened his eyes and saw a chubby little face next to his.

"Dad's awake!" Forlevia shouted.

"Evie..."

Levi wanted to hug Forlevia, but realized he couldn't move his body.

Despite trying his hardest, all he could move were his eyes.

Levi was dumbstruck.

His entire body had been paralyzed by the poison from Blood King Palace.

It completely disabled his acupoints, corroded his muscle tissue, and severely damaged his internal organs.

That, in combination with his continuous combat had left him completely disabled.

Though he had his limbs broken eight years ago, this was a lot worse. The man couldn't move at all.

Fortunately, he had regained consciousness, much to everyone's relief.

"It's a miracle! This is definitely going down in history as one of the most miraculous events in medicine!" Benny shouted excitedly.

It's definitely a miracle for Levi to regain consciousness under such circumstances! Of course, it didn't come without a huge price, but still...

Fredrick too, played a part in Levi's recovery.

He ignored Winsor's orders and came to see Levi, so Winsor fired him on the spot and imposed tons of restrictions on him as a result.

Even so, Fredrick didn't care and worked with Benny to treat Levi and help him regain consciousness.

"Mr. Quinton, how is my husband doing?" Zoey asked.

Benny looked at her hesitantly.

"Just go ahead and tell them the truth, Mr. Quinton. I know for a fact that I'm disabled!" Levi said.

Benny sighed. "Yeah, you're right... The God of War has become completely paralyzed and will be bedridden for the rest of his life. He can't even be sat on a wheelchair, and will need someone to take care of his basic necessities."

Fredrick sniffled. "All of his muscle tissues and acupoints have been disabled. The God of War will no longer be able to move at all!"

If only we could remove the Blood King Palace's poison from his body... I can't believe this is actually happening... The great Levi has now become disabled!

Thud!

Emma nearly fainted again from the shock.

Zoey was shocked to hear that too, but she quickly regained her composure. "All that matters is that Levi is awake! Don't worry, I'll look after him!"

At that point, him being alive was all that she could ask for.

Given her financial status, maintaining a life of comfort wouldn't be a problem at all.

Zoey held Levi's hands tightly, and he smiled back at her. "I guess my life is in your hands now, Zoey."

"Sure thing!"

Benny and Fredrick let out a sigh of relief when they saw how well the two were taking things.

In the end, the only things that matters are safety and happiness...

"The God of War of Erudia has become a cripple? What a joke! Hahaha..."

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1202

That incident became the biggest joke of the century as well as the disgrace of Erudia.

The God of War feared by every country had now been reduced to a bedridden cripple who couldn't even use a wheelchair.

Although it was a much greater form of humiliation than death, Levi being alive still posed a threat to some.

Levi had caused a huge scene after killing off hundreds of elites in his final battle, so assassinating him in Erudia would be impossible.

Winsor and the Dragonites were on high alert after the individuals and organizations exposed themselves during their attempt at assassinating Levi.

Ironically, Levi was actually safest now that he was crippled as the assassins would not risk exposing themselves again.

Of course, that was if he remained in Erudia.

Fredrick called out to Levi after having everyone else leave the room, "God of War..."

Levi cut him off, "I've already given up that position, so don't call me that anymore."

Fredrick frowned. "Fine, I'll call you Boss, but you'll always remain the God of War to me and all of your men! Boss, you don't actually have to give up your position. You could just tell everyone about you being poisoned! I'm sure Winsor wouldn't challenge you!"

Benny and I are the only ones who know about Levi being poisoned, and that he's only in this state because of it. Had he told them about his condition sooner, he could've kept his position as God of War and save himself from this humiliation!

"It's useless. They came for me specifically, so it was only a matter of time anyway. Besides, I'm tired of being the God of War. I want to spend some time with my family instead."

Levi was taking it rather well.

Fredrick let out a huge sigh.

Who would've thought that the undefeatable God of War would someday be reduced to a bedridden cripple...

After a few days of treatment, Levi and Zoey made plans for their return to North Hampton as that was their home.

Levi also convinced Fredrick to return to his family before leaving.

Zoey smiled in relief when they arrived home.

"Great! The family is reunited now!"

At the very least, Levi wouldn't suddenly go missing again like he did before...

Forlevia played with him in his arms while Zoey and Emma were cooking in the kitchen.

It was a heartwarming sight to behold.

Levi let out a smile as he experienced a feeling of relaxation like never before.

I suppose a quiet and peaceful life like this is pretty nice, after all.

The peace and quiet were soon interrupted when Aaron, Caitlyn, and Meredith came over.

"Zoey, what's the meaning of this? Are you seriously planning on looking after a cripple for the rest of your life?" Meredith shouted.

"You said he can't even move, so how is he going to be a good husband and father? He was already a huge burden even when he was in good health and things have only gotten worse now that he's crippled!" Robert yelled at her too.

They now had a legitimate reason to reprimand the two.

Aaron slammed his fist on the table. "I will not have my daughter spend the rest of her life taking care of a cripple! You guys wouldn't want Evie to have a cripple as a father either, right?"

Aaron's words had everyone speechless.

"Of course not! I could just hit him like this and he can't even do anything about it!"

Logan gave Levi a kick, who then winced from the pain.

Logan burst out in laughter. "See? This poor b*stard can't even move a muscle! Even a dog would be a lot more useful than him!"

Jennie laughed as well. "Yeah! At least a dog would be able to watch the door or something! What can he do?"

Forlevia cried when she heard all the nasty things they said about her dad. "Don't you bully my dad!" She shouted while standing in front of Levi with her arms outstretched.

Emma was crying too.

I can't believe this is happening to my son... None of these people would dare say any of that if he were still fit and healthy...

Levi frowned and kept his eyes shut as he lay on the bed.

"That's enough!" Zoey shouted.

"Don't you dare talk about my husband like that! He is and always will be my hero, regardless of his physical condition! Evie and I will always take pride in his glory, even if it was only temporary!"

Levi fought valiantly for all of Erudia, and this is how they repay him after he got crippled as a result? I won't stand for this!

“Glory? What glory? And no, Morris Group doesn’t count!” Meredith asked.

Zoey was about to tell them about his identity, but changed her mind at the last second.

No, that’s all in the past now. Telling them about it won’t do him any good. Heck, they’ll probably just mock him even more for it!

“He’s what, hmm? Go on, say it! He’s lesser than a dog if you ask me!” Logan sneered.

“Enough! It is what it is, and I have decided to look after Levi for the rest of my life! That’s all I have to say!”

Zoey was determined to stand her ground.

“Are you stupid or what? How could you be so reckless? Have you ever thought about the future? What would Evie tell her friends when only her mother attends her school’s parent-teacher conferences? Do you know how traumatic it will be for her? She’ll forever be humiliated by her friends for having a cripple as a father!”

“Yeah, that’s right! All other kids have their fathers to take them out on family trips while Evie’s can’t even get out of bed!”

“And it’s not just her! You and your godfather would also have to endure the ridicule and shame as a result!”

Aaron and the others lashed out at her.

Forlevia hugged Levi tightly and shook her head. “No! I wanna be with Dad, and no one’s gonna separate us!”

Meredith looked at Emma and said, “Emma, please tell me you haven’t lost your mind like these two have. Look at the state your son is in! Do you really want to ruin Zoey’s life like this? I would’ve left with him if I were you!”

The others chimed in as well. “Meredith is right! You shouldn’t be so selfish, Emma!”

“Your son is as good as dead! Why don’t you just set Zoey free?”

“Yeah! Just pack your stuff and go as far away as possible!”

They all ganged up and tried to get rid of Levi and Emma.

“Don’t you dare insult my mother!” Levi spoke up all of a sudden.

Everyone turned to look at him.

“So what if we’re insulting your mother? What are you gonna do about it, huh?”

Aaron and the others sneered.

“Get lost, Emma!”

Boom!

There was a sudden burst of energy in the room which sent a chill down everyone’s spine.

All eyes were on Levi.

It’s Levi... He’s mad... I can’t believe he’s still capable of instilling fear in his current state...

“What are you doing?” Logan asked with a shudder.

“I’m gonna knock the teeth out of that big mouth of yours!” Levi shouted furiously.

However, despite struggling with all his might, he found himself unable to move a muscle.

“Get up, damn it!” Levi roared as he forced his body to its limits, only to roll off the bed and fall to the floor with a loud thud.

“Levi!” Zoey and Emma rushed over to his aid.

“Hahaha!”

Everyone laughed when they saw how pathetic Levi looked as he was sprawled out on the floor.

“Is that all you got? So much for hitting me!”

“How are you even going to protect your mother and child like this? I could hit them now, and you’d only be able to watch helplessly!”

Jennie and Logan laughed as they mocked him.

“You guys have gone too far!” Zoey yelled.

Logan chuckled and said, “I’m just showing you what’s gonna happen in the future, Zoey. You’re all fine now because we’re family, but what if you are up against his enemies, huh? Do you think that cripple can protect you? Even a dog could do a better job at that!”

What Logan said was horrible, but he does have a point... What if it were someone else that came today? What could Levi possibly do to protect us in his current state? He’d only be able to lie there and watch us get hurt!

“Come on, grandpa, grandma! Let’s go!” Russell urged the angry crowd to leave.

As much as they wanted to get rid of Levi and Emma, they didn’t dare do anything as Zoey had Dale to back her up.

After all, Dale respected Zoey’s decisions on the matter.

Both Emma and Zoey were in tears after carrying Levi back onto the bed.

Those guys were too much, and yet there's nothing we could do about it... None of this would've happened if Levi wasn't poisoned and crippled!

"Mom, Grandma, don't cry! I'm sure Dad will get better!" Forlevia said as she helped wipe their tears.

Levi took a deep breath. "Evie is right. Everything will be alright!"

"Yeah, we've gotta keep moving forward in life!" Zoey recomposed herself.

Ben, Winnie, Bryan, and Victoria of the Garrison family from North Hampton also came by later that day, much to their surprise.

"So much for being the God of War, eh? Look at you now!"

"Karma sure is a b*tch! Looks like I was right to break your legs eight years ago! This was all meant to be, after all!" Bryan burst into laughter.

"You've been thrown into prison with your limbs broken, and yet you somehow managed to get chosen? Man, you sure are something, Levi! Tell me, how did you get your legs treated back then?" Victoria added.

"Hahahaha... Did you encounter some miracle worker or something in prison?"

"Maybe we should send you back into prison so you can get yourself treated again!"

Levi was the one who ruined their lives, so the two of them took extreme pleasure in seeing him like this.

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1205

"If even Benny couldn't treat him, I doubt anyone else can!" Ben sneered.

"Maybe prison is where he truly belongs!" Winnie said with a chuckle.

They were all so busy taunting Levi that none of them noticed the grin on his face.

"Don't worry, Levi, we're not here to hurt you. We just want to tell you that you should never push your luck, as you could fall from grace anytime! Your condition right now is a good example of that!"

"Yeah! Given that pathetic state you're in, even we can't bring ourselves to bully you right now!"

"He's right! There's no point in bullying someone who can't even fight back at all!"

"Hahahaha..."

With that, the members of the Garrison family laughed as they made their way out of the house.

More guests kept showing up one after another.

They were all former victims of Levi's wrath when he was in power, and had all come to mock him now that he was crippled.

Zoey could only console him. "Don't take it to heart, darling. These guys are just trying to pick a fight with you. With my godfather around, they won't dare do anything!"

They were fortunate enough to have Dale around, or Levi would've received more than just verbal insults.

Bang!

The door was suddenly kicked open, and dozens of men rushed into the room with Lucas taking the lead.

"So this is what's left of the great Levi Garrison, huh? I never thought I'd live to see the day I get to have my revenge!"

Lucas had been holding a grudge against Levi ever since he had him castrated back then, but he was powerless to do anything about it.

After a long wait for his chance at revenge, he had been presented with that opportunity.

"So, you can't even move a muscle, huh? Guess you can only watch helplessly as I hurt your mother, wife, and daughter!" Lucas shouted maniacally.

Clomp! Clomp! Clomp!

A few bodyguards stepped forward.

"Make a move, I dare you!" Sylas said.

She had stayed by Levi's side ever since his downfall.

"Do you think you can stop us? What a joke! I came here to get my revenge on Levi, and I don't give a damn who's backing him up!" Lucas cackled like a madman.

Sylas was starting to panic. Those guys are elite fighters... I'm no match for them alone, and it's too late to call for backup now! Lucas is obviously here for blood, and not even the Grand Master can stop him!

"You guys, take her out! The rest of you, bring me Levi's limbs! Oh, and I want him castrated too!" Lucas ordered.

His men sprang into action, and Sylas was soon overpowered.

“Hahaha! How does it feels like to be in such despair, Levi?”

Lucas had a smug grin on his face.

“Do it!”

His men were about to make their move when a cold voice was heard from behind.

“I don’t think so!”
