

CHAPTER 1360

That girl 's words quickly caused a chain reaction.

The ancestral home of the Lopez family was boiling.

Dozens and hundreds of people rushed out.

In the end, everyone came to the court surrounded by the old lady.

There are also several super masters of the Western Shu family.

Not to mention the god-level master...

“Levi Garrison, you are so brave! How dare you ignore the ban and come to see Levilia privately?”

“You are looking for death!!!”

Lokita and Loki scolded angrily.

“Yes, I must teach him a little lesson this time. Last time there was a God of War, so he was lucky! Where do I see him going this time?”

had asked Levi Garrison to surround them for fear that they would run away. ...

Aaron sneered: “I heard that your goddess of war has left, so I came to find a son again?”

Caitlyn echoed: "Yes, how smart Levi Garrison is, knowing that our Lopez family is extraordinary nowadays. He must have come back to swear!"

Harry beard silently: "Isn't it? In terms of background, my Lopez family is better than that female god of war! Levi Garrison naturally wants to climb my Lopez family?"

Faced with the accusations from the Lopez family, Levi Garrison took it seriously.

He is still playing with the Levilia in his arms.

"It seems to Levi Garrison that you don't take my words as the same thing? Until you are qualified, I will never allow you to meet Levilia and Niang!"

The old lady said angrily.

"May I ask what status you are now?"

The old lady asked seriously.

"Levilia's father! Zoey's husband!"

"Don't be slick! What I asked was that you came to see them in your identity?"

The old lady is already getting angry.

"My identity is a citizen of Erudia, Erudia is behind me! I represent Erudia!"

Levi approached.

The meaning of his words is very simple, he is the king of the word side by side, and naturally represents Erudia.

“Hahaha...I am also a damn citizen of Erudia, which also represents Erudia. You said something nonsense!”

“Hahaha...you are really humble!”

The Lopez family looked at him playfully.

“Presumptuous! Dare to talk such nonsense in front of me! Are you provoking my Western Shu family?”

The old lady was completely irritated.

At the moment when the sword was violent, Zoey ran out, interrupting the flaming atmosphere.

She ran to the front and snatched Levilia from Levi Garrison’s arms.

“Zoey...”

Levi Garrison shouted.

Zoey stopped for a while, but then left with Levilia in his arms and entered the ancestral house.

Regardless of Levi Garrison.

She still did not forgive Levi Garrison because of the previous incident.

“I.....”

Levi Garrison is really a headache.

This Terry is really a bad thing.

Not only did it affect his plan, it also affected his relationship with Zoey.

The key is also strange, why does Terry treat herself this way?

This makes him still very curious.

Levi Garrison looked helplessly.

Fortunately, Levilia and Zoey have seen it today.

“LEvi, let’s go back!”

Hearing this, the Northern Heavenly King turned his wheelchair to leave.

“Wait!”

“Is the Lopez family a place where you can come and leave as long as you want?”

“Besides, what do you take the old lady’s ban? Let you go, where is the face of the Lopez family? What is the face of the Xishu clan?”

Girl shouted.

Several masters blocked Levi Garrison’s way.

“There was a goddess of war protecting you that day, I will save her face for the time being, what about today? The goddess of war is not by your side, I think how do you escape?”,

The old lady stared at Levi Garrison tightly.

A big battle is on the horizon...
