

CHAPTER 1365

“Kill them!”

“Then put their heads on the highest point in North Hampton!”

...

despair!

Endless despair!

Ray didn't even think of this day.

The main reason was that his journey was so smooth that he sat in the supreme position.

He couldn't sit still in this position.

Many things have not been done yet.

Is he going to die?

He is unwilling...

Unwilling to die like this...

Ray tried to delay time, but the other party didn't pay attention at all, and the butcher knife in his hand had already been cut off.

"Are you going to die..."

The two had already felt the killing intent attacking their bodies.

"boom!"

At a critical moment.

A pebble shot out like a bullet, crossed an arc, and struck quickly.

Suddenly, the person wielding a butcher knife was hit like a car accident, and the whole person flew out.

The butcher knife in his hand snapped...

The sudden scene interrupted the Avengers' position.

"what's the situation?"

Everyone looked around, everyone was already panicked.

"Want to kill my general? Have you asked me?"

At this time, the door suddenly opened.

Several people walked in from outside.

The leader, wearing a mask, also has a striking ring on his hand.

The person next to him is holding a sword!

“Yanlong mask, Yanlong ring, Yanlong sword?”

“What? You are the king of the word side by side?”

The faces of everyone in the Avengers changed drastically.

Looking at Levi Garrison incredulously.

According to their information, the king is in the capital or the north.

It will never appear in North Hampton.

But I saw it.

Damn it!

When Ray and Terry, who were on the verge of death, saw Levi Garrison, joy burst into their eyes.

They are saved!

The king appeared side by side!

“That’s just right! Then today, kill it with you!”

On the Avengers side, after the panic, they were all murderous.

“Order, everyone besieged and killed the king side by side!”

The man in the golden tiger mask ordered.

“Master Jinhu is moving outside...”

Subordinates report at this time.

“Don’t waste your effort, all the people outside are dead!”

Levi Garrison smiled.

“That’s the same to kill you!”

With an order from Jinhu, all the hundreds of masters present moved.

It is really rare for dozens of masters to shoot together.

The fighting power is so desperate!

But they happened to meet Levi Garrison!

He had done this long ago on the East Island...

An unprecedented battle is on the horizon...

Quickly.

Ray was dumbfounded.

Terry was stunned.

...

One word side by side, the king is too damn strong!

Simply invincible!

Hundreds of masters in the Avengers fell one after another in front of him.

What about dozens of masters?

How about all god-level masters?

I, Levi Garrison, beheaded with a single sword!

After a while, the Avengers all fell.

Jinhu also committed suicide immediately.

All dead...

Shocked!

Too shocking!

Like the capital before, the faces under these people's masks have long been completely different.

Their faces cannot be recognized at all!

Levi Garrison had anticipated this a long time ago and didn't feel strange.

But this shocked Ray and the others...

"Who are these people?"

The two who reacted immediately knelt in front of Levi Garrison: “Thank you for your help!”

“However, my subordinates have questions, why did you appear in North Hampton, the king of the word side by side?”

Ray was full of doubts.
