

CHAPTER 1369

“roll!”

Levi Garrison said angrily.

This group of people blocked it and didn't talk about it, and deliberately embarrassed him.

The words are not astonishing and endless. When Levi Garrison said this, everyone in the Xishu clan was dumbfounded.

Someone actually let them go?

Is this crazy?

Provoked to the head of the Western Shu gate...

“kill!”

The servant behind Emperor Tang directly killed Levi Garrison.

This is a century-old master!

It is better than the demon sword! m.bg.

Back then, if these people couldn't get out of the world, there would have been a time when the demon swords were rampant in Dongfang Continent.

“boom!”

Just a punch.

Can have a mighty power!

It's like a big mountain is coming under the pressure...

The terrible feeling of oppression is beyond description.

Most people are afraid that their organs will be crushed by the terrifying aura before the power of this punch...

This is the horror of a century-old master!

An ordinary punch with no surprise has the power to destroy the world!

This punch fell on the person, fearing that the flesh and blood would have to burst...

When he shot, everyone knew a result-Levi Garrison would undoubtedly die.

“boom!”

There was a dull loud noise.

“??...”

The blue bricks under my feet burst one by one.

Everyone was forced to retreat by this powerful Yu Wei...

The most desperate thing is that Levi Garrison has trouble!

He abruptly took this punch!

The punch hit hard with the punch of the servant of the century-old master.

“puff!”

The servant of a century-old master vomited blood, and the whole person flew out.

“boom!”

A blood hole burst into his body.

Just now, Levi Garrison’s punch blasted into his body, unable to disperse...

Horrified!

Very horrified!

Everyone's eyes widened, and their eyeballs were about to fly out.

What power is this?

You must know that the top ten servants of the Western Shu Emperor, even in the entire Western Shu family, are the top-notch existence.

But it's no match for a worldly hairy boy...

This is simply unimaginable!

"I come!"

Another century-old master moved instantly.

Do all you can to kill Levi Garrison!

"boom!"

Levi Garrison still punched.

He also flew out.

"I come!"

The third century-old master played.

“Boom!”

He also lost.

“I don’t believe it!”

The fourth hundred-year-old master shot, and the result was equally defeated!

shame!

Absolute shame!

For hundreds of years, the four main gate valves, I am afraid that there is no such shame!

The personal guard of the Western Shu Emperor was actually lost to a kid.

Lost in consecutive battles...

“Let’s go together! Kill him!”

In the end, the remaining two servants also shocked and shot.

It is bound to kill Levi Garrison.

Otherwise, if this matter spreads out, the clan of Xishu will become a joke.

The two hold the belief that they will kill.

Use the most powerful combat skills.

Levi Garrison was still the same as before, motionless, blasting against their powerful combat skills with unpretentious fists.

“Puff!”

“puff!”

But in an instant, these two servants all flew out.

Blood spilled all over the floor.

At this point, all six hundred-year-old master slaves fell to the ground.

In everyone’s eyes, it’s all incredible.

too frightening!

Is this young man a man or a ghost?

Is this still dunya?

Is this still modern society?

How could there be such a strong man?

The key is so young...

unimaginable!

There are countless geniuses in the clan of Xishu, whose strength is comparable to that of a century-old master.

But there is absolutely no such thing as an easy defeat of six hundred-year-old masters at once!

Levi Garrison said with a cold face and looked at the two emperors and granddaughters of Xishu: "Do I still need to kneel down and apologize now?"
