

CHAPTER 1435

Jiulong Mountain was bombed and flattened.

The fire has been filled.

The smoke skyrocketed and couldn't disperse for a long time.

“According to the information sent back from the front, all the creatures on Jiulong Mountain were erased.”

There is no complete body.

No corpses even appeared.

“Even if it was not blown to pieces, it was abruptly burned by the fire.”

This is a proud day for Erudia.

It is also a day of grief!

That Erudia Hao Erlang still couldn't escape death after all.

“If he was in full condition before, everyone still has hope.

He might be able to escape.

“But now he has truly reached the limit of his body, and it is difficult to even stand up.”

“Putting the Erudia Dragon Banner at the highest point, he exhausted his last breath.”

How could he escape under such dozens of coverage bombings?

It has become an indisputable fact that the king fell side by side on Jiulong Mountain.

“If you don’t accept it, you have to accept it.”

Prince William deliberately sent a crowd to search ten times.

There is no figure who has found the word side by side king.

Only a piece of Yanlong mask and a broken Yanlong sword were found at the scene.

“As for Yanlongjie, I don’t know where the bomb went.”

The thing is too small to be found.

“But if the mask and sword are found, it means that the king of the word side by side has been blown up.”

he died!

“””The king is dead side by side!”””

“After Prince William sent the message, the whole world was boiling.”

This man who was so powerful that people could not imagine finally fell.

Especially Erudia is even more sad.

This blow is too big.

Messiah was silent from above and below.

This time it was not Levi Garrison’s joint suspended animation design with them.

The trip to Jiulong Mountain was completely beyond their control.

They can only watch.

“““I regret it, I shouldn’t let him go!”“““

“““Hey, accept the reality!”“““

“““Guo Shi Wushuang! It’s a blessing to have him!”“““

...

The house of the ancestor of the Lopez family was also gloomy.

It is a double whammy for them.

Everyone is depressed when such a big backing falls.

“Zoey didn’t know why, and he felt very uncomfortable.”

My heart seemed to be blocked by something.

“I don’t know why, there was the bad news of the word side by side king, and she immediately thought of Levi Garrison.”

Both of them went out of the country at the same time.

It’s really similar...

People have to be suspicious.

“As for Levilia without warning, he started crying: “”Dad is dead, Dad is dead...”””

“””Dad, you promised Levilia, you must come back to pick me and mom back!”””

“Seeing Levilia howling and crying, everyone felt very uncomfortable.”

Levilia has always said that father is the king by one word.

“Now that he is dead, it also means that Dad is dead.”

“In everyone’s opinion, this is an absurd thing.”

“Levi Garrison, a traitor, can be compared with this great hero who is unparalleled in the country.”

But no one interrupted the child’s innocence.

“““Levilia, don’t worry, your father is alive, and he will come back to see you soon.”””

“““Yes, your father will be back!”””

“After hearing everyone’s persuasion, Levilia stopped crying.”

“““Is what you said is true? Dad is still alive?”””

“Levilia asked, blinking his big eyes.”

“““Yes, your father is alive and will come to see you soon.”””

Zoey took Levilia into his arms.

Helped her wipe the tears.

The emperor Xi Shu and Tang Yanran in the distance held back tears.

They want to tell everyone the facts.

Wang and Levi Garrison are one person.

Levilia's father will never come back.

"However, he is Erudia's super hero!"
