

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 1459

Zoey was taken aback.

Looking at Levi Garrison incredulously.

Levi Garrison's body is now recovering wrongly.

But I don't have the qualifications to disregard the four gate valves...

"Not to mention the unification of the four main gates, which is rare in the world."

How many people are fighting for an invitation letter.

"To be honest, this is the highest-level banquet in history."

"When Levi Garrison spoke, it turned out to be a broken celebration."

"This is a bit too arrogant, right?"

""In order to punish us, grandma deliberately prevents our family from participating! Everyone has a share!""

""I don't know how you offended the people of the North Liang family! Let Tang Elder intercede with you."" .."

Zoey sighed.

“Levi Garrison looked at her and asked, ““Zoey, do you want to participate in the ceremony?”””

“Zoey thought for a while: ““I didn’t want to, it’s just that everyone around me went to participate! It seems that something is wrong if we don’t participate.”””

““Well, let’s go and participate!”””

““Let Mom and Levilia join them!”””

Levi Garrison immediately said.

““Ok?”””

Zoey was stunned.

Looking at Levi Garrison suspiciously.

“Levi Garrison’s words are also casual, right?”

Can I participate in this ceremony if I want to participate?

How can it be?

“The invitations are limited, and each one is sent out.”

You can't buy it now.

"Did Levi Garrison not only let himself go, but also bring a bunch of people there?"

Is it his own family to be the four gate valves?

Go if you want?

""I ask you, there is no invitation letter, how do you bring us in?""

Zoey asked.

"Levi Garrison smiled and said, ""If I want to go in, I will go in. Who would dare to stop me? The King of Beiliang, the King of Xishu, dare they say a word?""

This ceremony is still what he requested.

Used to paralyze the Avengers.

"In this way, the four gate valves are unified for their own use."

"Originally, the Northern Liang King and the others invited Levi Garrison to participate, but he refused."

Now he is going.

""puff!""

Zoey laughed.

She has only heard that the man at the helm of the unification of the four main gates is the King of Northern Liang.

Not Levi Garrison!

What happened to people stopping you?

""Well, the ceremony will begin tomorrow morning! I want to see how you can take us in?""

“Zoey didn’t question too much, just let Levi Garrison prove it.”

""Okay, we will go to participate tomorrow!""

“In the evening, Zoey sent someone specially to bring Emma, Zhou Nanyan and others to North Hampton.”

Participate in tomorrow’s ceremony together.

The next day.

The ceremony was held in the largest villa in North Hampton.

It's heavily guarded here!

The master-level powerhouses and god-level powerhouses of the Western Shumen clan are everywhere.

Songkui and others were in charge of receiving at the door.

"They sent the invitation letter, and they checked and identified it."

It is inevitable that some people will be false.

"They stood at the door, their waists straight, and their faces haughty."

"Once, they were humble like ants."

"Now, the richest man everywhere has to nod and bow at them."

This feeling is really wonderful.

Their goal of being a master has been achieved!

""Huh? What are you doing here, Zoey?""

""And Levi Garrison's mother and sister?""

...

“When everyone saw Zoey and his party appear, their expressions immediately changed.”

“““Let’s take part in the ceremony!”””

Zoey said.

“““Participate in the ceremony? Didn’t grandma not allow you to participate?”””

Songkui was cold.

“““You can also come to participate, come up with an invitation letter!”””

Concubine Jennie stared at several people.

“““We don’t need an invitation letter to get in!”””

“Everyone was taken aback and asked: ““Who said that?”””
