

CHAPTER 1659

The boundary line of the southern border of Erudia.

The endless sea was calm and calm.

The sky is still gray.

The warriors in charge of border defense are patrolling.

“It seems something is wrong! Look ahead!”

A warrior suddenly exclaimed.

In the sea ahead, there are great fluctuations.

It’s still a large area.

It’s as if something is sliding fast in the sea.

“Danger, danger, danger approach!”

The warrior shouted. ..

“boom!”

The next moment, the cruise boat they were riding in was overturned directly.

Soon, a bloody color appeared on the surface of the sea...

“Boom boom!”

Soon, a signal bomb exploded in the air.

The maritime coalition led by the southern ruler invaded.

Among them, the powerful Sea King Palace was the forward, and the first to penetrate the waters of the southern border of Great Xia.

With an unstoppable offensive, they swept the Erudia Warriors who were guarding the sea area.

In particular, the sea king's hall master, Sea King, shocked his shot, even more so that no one could stop it.

A supreme-level Sixth Heavenly Powerhouse, it's terrible!

Erudia's southern border waters were caught in the flames of war.

Not only that.

Dominate the Alliance army, and invade other places in the southern border.

There are many strong men, and the great summer warriors retreat steadily with a devastating offensive.

Mainly, they suddenly launched an attack, which caught everyone by surprise.

So the first defensive line of the southern border fell quickly...

The northernmost part of the northern border is full of endless snow-capped mountains.

The cold wind howled, the sky was cold and the ground was freezing.

Especially the highest point is even more terrifying, the biting cold wind, even the warrior can definitely hold it.

Messiah was still alert.

Some time ago, defense was added to each line of defense.

Many warriors were sent here to defend.

The endless snow-capped mountains in the north are a natural barrier.

It is easy to defend and difficult to attack here.

Especially defend the fortress Xuelong Pass.

Just holding here is equivalent to holding the entire snow-capped mountain line of defense.

“Boom boom!”

...

Suddenly a signal bomb exploded in the sky.

It was originally white and snowy, but black figures appeared.

“The enemy, there are enemies! Danger, danger!!!”

The warriors discovered the danger for the first time.

“boom!!!”

In the next second, the Daxue Mountain on both sides of Xuelong Pass suddenly experienced an earth-shattering avalanche.

The heavy snow accumulated over the years collapsed for a while, and horribly pressed towards Xuelong Pass.

“Rumble...”

Soon, Xuelong Pass was flooded by an avalanche.

The warriors who guarded the Xuelong Pass were killed and wounded countless.

“Kill!!!”

The Xuelong Pass fell, and the army that dominated the Alliance attacked.

At the same time, several major bases in the northern desert also suffered unprecedented attacks.

This is far more terrifying than the North Demon’s attack.

Among them, many of them are supreme-level powerhouses, and each one is better than the North Demon.

They rushed in frantically, and the warriors of Erudia couldn’t stop it at all.

The first line of defense in the northern desert was quickly defeated, and many bases fell...

In the east, the major forces from the east island all invaded.

The first line of defense didn’t hold up for half an hour, and it was broken.

The East Territory is the more powerful side that dominates the Alliance Army.

Led by the Eastern Ruler, it is composed of major forces such as the East Island and the Star Country.

Even Xu Zhengjie's weapons were carried by this team.

Their combat effectiveness is unprecedentedly strong.

It is the strongest side that dominates the alliance that has broken into the West.

The windbreaker men and the western forces they contacted are all in this team.

They attacked the first line of defense in the west with a thunderous momentum...

Almost Erudia was surrounded by wars...
