

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1881

Wen Lei urged immediately.

In her analysis, which old man did save them at the critical moment.

But the particle collision still affected her more or less.

Give her terrible superpowers!

Then Zoey may also be affected by particle collisions.

“Me?”

Zoey was confused.

“Try it quickly and see if you have changed?”

Wen Lei said.

“Okay, let me try!”

Zoey is now a warrior, and she feels her body carefully.

It seems to be no different from before.

“I’m really lucky to give it a try!”

Zoey was very angry.

In an instant, she felt an electric current in her brain awakened, and it rushed to the brain quickly.

At that moment, there was extreme pain in the brain, as if it was about to explode.

In my mind, a blurry picture appeared, and I didn’t know what it was.

As if there are tens of thousands of silver needles tearing her head...

this feeling is terrible!

“Uh!!!”

Zoey fell directly to the ground, holding his head and crying, rolling constantly, making hysterical screams.

Wen Lei was shocked by the scene before her.

What’s wrong with Zoey?

Zoey was like crazy, all over the floor.

The terrible sound was like a hell demon.

Wen Lei got goose bumps all over her body.

Her eyes were blood red, and her eyeballs almost flew out.

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

...

Zoey slammed his head on the ground frantically, making a terrifying sound.

The most frightening thing is that the ground splits, showing dense cracks like a spider web.

At this moment, Zoey felt like a demon to Wen Lei!

Wen Lei stepped forward and hugged Zoey, not allowing her to make any movements.

“Zoey, calm down! Calm down!”

.....

It took a full minute before Zoey calmed down a little bit and fell asleep.

The whole person is wet with cold sweat.

“What’s wrong?”

“Does the particle collision affect her brain nerves?”

Wen Lei made a preliminary judgment.

It seems that when this kind of experiment fails, not everyone can acquire superpowers.

It depends on everyone’s physique, luck, etc.

At present, it seems that the collision of particles has brought a bad side to plums.

“Take a rest and wait for her to wake up, and check her body when you go back to know what’s going on!”

Wen Lei muttered to herself.

A few hours later, Zoey woke up.

“What happened to you

, Zoey ?” Wen Lei asked.

Zoey rubbed his swollen head: “When I was just getting infuriated, I felt a rush of energy in my brain. My head hurts and it’s almost cracking...”

“At that moment, I didn’t feel like I was myself. ! I don’t seem to exist anymore...”

Zoey rubbed his head, panting heavily.

“It’s okay! It should have affected the nerves! Check it out when you go back!”

Wen Lei comforted.

“Well, I think it’s fine too! My body hasn’t changed much!”

Zoey didn’t take it seriously.

Wen Lei didn’t take it seriously either.

But when Zoey dyed an accident later, Wen Lei was scared to death, of course this is something later.

...

Wen Lei checked herself during Zoey’s sleep.

She not only possesses the ultimate strength, but also has speed and even intelligence.

She can even heal her body automatically.

She tried to cut herself, and her skin quickly recovered...

The benefits of this particle collision were all-round transformations.

“You really survived a catastrophe, you must be lucky!”

Zoey smiled.

“I’m sorry Zoey, I started the particle collider at that time, just want to die together!”

Wen Lei apologized.

Zoey shook his head: “It’s okay! By the way, where is Xu Zhengjie? Is he alive or dead?”

Zoey suddenly remembered.
