

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1897

“Boom!” The

imposing and powerful Levi Garrison was suddenly discouraged.

The body trembled fiercely.

Zoey’s situation is unknown now.

The mother, child and sister fell into the hands of Tiance Mansion again.

He...

really embarrassed!

“Don’t worry! Although you are a descendant of Cthulhu! It does not mean that your mother and children are!”

“They live very well in Tiance Mansion! Especially your children and sisters are amazing! They have been accepted as students of Tiance Mansion. Now! Especially the talent of Levilia should be regarded as the core of Tiance Mansion’s future.”

“But I think it’s better for you to see the mother and child!”

Deputy Pavilion Master Hei Shen smiled.

At first glance, there is nothing unusual.

Even everyone present praised Tiance Mansion.

Levi Garrison is now an evil god, and his family has to be taken care of.

Logically speaking, it's only right to kill together!

But in fact, that's not the case at all!

The point of his remarks is the last sentence.

Let Levi Garrison visit the child and mother!

This sentence is very meaningful!

On the surface, they told Levi Garrison how good they were to the three of Levilia , but they were actually warning him – your mother and child are in their hands and they are not subservient.

This is a threat in disguise!

Levi Garrison, your child's mother is in our hands! Do you dare to disobey our meaning?

Levi Garrison said helplessly: "Well, I want to see my mother and children!"

No way!

Levi Garrison understood what they meant and had to accept it.

After all, you can't make fun of Levilia 's mother and their lives!

He had to make sure that his mother was all right!

As for Zoey, this is also a headache.

However, Wen Lei is currently taking care of him. He generally understands Wen Lei's strength and is very strong.

No one is in the top three of the top three, no one is her opponent.

Next, Levi Garrison left traces again.

The seven evil gods will understand what he means after seeing them.

He goes to Tiance Mansion first, and it is best to rescue the three of Levilia .

Things are urgent now!

& First, the status of plum dye is unknown.

Second, the second plan that Ono Ichiro said.

Everything is very urgent!

Don't allow Levi Garrison to be a little sloppy!

"Come on, take Levi Garrison away! The result will be announced on another day!" The deputy pavilion master gave an order, and the Tianlong four immediately went forward and took Levi Garrison away.

In front of 100,000 people, Levi Garrison was arrested by Tiance Mansion!

"Hahaha... It's so happy!"

"The descendants of the Heretic God were arrested! The power of the Heretic God is disintegrated!"

"Today is a great moment of great light for Erudia!"

...The

audience burst into thunderous applause.

The news that the descendant of the Heretic God, who was second in the ranking list, was successfully arrested by Tiance Mansion spread.

Erudia is boiling!

The world is boiling!

Those who claim to be decent are even more excited.

The banners were pulled again, the colorful flags were erected, and the gongs and drums were beaten again.

Everywhere is celebrating the eradication of the great demon Levi Garrison!

“Since ancient times, evil is invincible! Have you seen the end of the evil demon?”

“You don’t have to kneel down one by one! Then Tiance Mansion will destroy you one by one!”

“Haha, Commoner Killing God !” Even Levi Garrison can get rid of it, you guys, don’t you see one kill another? Don’t you surrender?”

...

All parties began to clamor for the evil god army led by the seven evil gods.

“Hahaha, Levi Garrison has finally reached this day for you!”

Both Richard and the East Island forces heard Levi Garrison’s fall and were arrested.

All very excited!

Richard brought things from Erudia back to Warhawk Nation...

No one knew.

The forces of the East Island will start their second crazy plan at the last moment!

As for Wen Lei, she realized the seriousness of the problem.

Zoey and Ono Ichiro deliberately took to a hidden place.

“Zoey, what’s wrong with you?”

Wen Lei was very worried.

At this moment, Zoey suddenly opened his eyes.
