

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1899

“Zoey!”

Wen Lei immediately bounced away vigilantly.

The whole person makes a fighting posture, bringing all the powers together.

She is a little afraid of plums!

Zoey’s combat effectiveness shocked her just now!

Once Zoey goes mad again, she will not be able to control the situation.

Ono Ichiro next to him was also full of horror.

What if Zoey goes crazy and slaps him to death?

Wen Lei’s posture as if facing an enemy made Zoey startled.

“What’s wrong with Miss Wen...”

Zoey looked at Wen Lei in confusion.

The whole person is gentle and virtuous, gentle and generous.

Where is the look of the devil just now?

Wen Lei was in a trance.

Zoey just now is fake, right?

She suspected hallucinations!

“Zoey, you... are you okay?”

Wen Lei asked nervously.

“I’m okay, what’s the matter? I just had a dream, as if fighting!”

Zoey rubbed his head, thinking hard.

But it’s only vague.

Don’t know the point at all.

Even her combat effectiveness has dropped drastically, Wen Lei did not feel much power in her, which was far different from before.

“You can’t remember what happened just now?”

Wen Lei asked in surprise.

The woman like this is Zoey.

“Yeah! What happened?”

Zoey asked.

“You did fight just now, you fought with... a few bad guys, and then fainted!”

Wen Lei just wanted to say Levi Garrison, and immediately shut her mouth.

The name of Levi Garrison was mentioned earlier, and this woman went crazy.

She dare not!

If you go crazy, who can stop it?

“Zoey, do you feel anything wrong?”

Wen Lei asked.

Zoey felt it carefully and shook his head: “There is nothing wrong with it. Before, there was something blocked in my mind, but now it is completely unblocked! I have to thank you! You invited the doctor to help me heal it!”

& All right?

Wen Lei didn't know what was wrong.

And that's not a doctor at all.

It was deliberately to stimulate plum dyeing.

"Zoey, you can think of everything, right?"

Wen Lei asked again.

"It should be, I have...I did...I have a daughter named Levilia . But...Who is my husband? How come I don't have an impression, why can't

I remember ?" "I can't remember my husband anymore? Who is he?"

Zoey rubbed his head, shaking violently.

Her memory was missing her husband, as if she had been taken away.

"Huh?"

Wen Lei was taken aback for a moment.

She doesn't remember Levi Garrison?

How is this going?

it's actually really easy.

Richard forcibly stimulated Zoey's brain, causing the two consciousnesses to violently collide with each other.

Richard originally wanted Xu Zhengjie's consciousness to occupy Zoey's brain and dominate her body.

But how is it possible?

Only part of Xu Zhengjie's consciousness, plus Zoey's strong will.

Under the strong stimulus, the two consciousnesses were forcibly merged.

Plum dyeing naturally dominates!

Although Xu Zhengjie's consciousness was fused, it didn't exist anymore.

But the side effect is...

Xu Zhengjie's final consciousness turned into hatred and merged into Zoey's brain.

This hatred is Levi Garrison!

The only side effect is to treat Levi Garrison as his worst enemy!

In layman's terms, it is equivalent to planting instructions in Zoey's brain-kill Levi Garrison!

Finally, the result of incorporating hatred-

first, the memory fragment of Zoey losing her husband.

The second is to kill Levi Garrison as an enemy.

This is why Zoey tried her best to kill Levi Garrison when she heard Levi Garrison's name or saw Levi Garrison!

"Zoey, calm down! Just take a break!"

Wen Lei quickly appeased Zoey.

Let's talk about Levi Garrison.

Taken away by Tiance Mansion.

He didn't even let him see Levilia ...

Tiance Mansion deceived him.
