

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2255

It's so funny!

This is the biggest joke Huoyun Cthulhu has ever heard in his life!

Someone is telling Levi Garrison to work hard!

Even Wen Lei and his sister Mia agreed, looking at Levi Garrison with hope.

Although Levi Garrison is no longer a top powerhouse in this era, they believe that Levi Garrison's hard work, if the goddess of luck comes and get some opportunities, it might not be impossible to become a top powerhouse again.

Although hope is slim.

But there are still some.

Once they get the opportunity, they believe that Levi Garrison can grasp it better than anyone else.

After all, Levi Garrison has a good foundation.

Everyone smiled and looked at him expectantly.

This made Levi Garrison dumbfounded.

Everything they have for themselves stayed three years ago.

In the past three years, you have made progress, and I have also made progress.

How do you think I am stagnant?

I won't do anything for three years?

If I don't do anything, how can I get out of the dark prison?

The evil god Huoyun was provoked, and he shouted, "You don't know what power is! You don't know what power is!"

"People who go up the mountain laugh at the god who goes down the mountain? No! This is a god above the nine heavens! None of them is a mountain. God!" The image of the evil god of Huoyun tells the difference between Levi Garrison and them.

All of them are people going up the mountain, but Levi Garrison is a god above the nine heavens!

As soon as Huoyun Cthulhu said this, everyone present looked at him.

The look was like looking at an ignorant idiot.

"We admit that the boss was the world's top powerhouse three years ago! The power of one person is fighting against the entire laboratory of the gods!

But you can't worship blindly! You have changed too much in the past three years! The strength of the boss is the most medium! You have been imprisoned for too long, hurry up and get a good understanding of this new era! "

Do you think you are also a top powerhouse?" Shall we make a move? "

Listening to Huoyun Cthulhu's words was uncomfortable, and everyone shot back mercilessly.

Huoyun Cthulhu's retreat was not effective because he was locked up, so the progress was not much different from three years ago.

They weren't opponents at all against Kirin (Qilin) Azure Dragon (Qinglong).

"You..."

Huoyun Cthulhu was speechless for a while. I don't know what to say.

Blame himself . He has been decadent in the past three years and his strength has not increased.

Otherwise, can he be bullied by these little boys?

Levi Garrison shook his head helplessly.

This group of brothers has abandoned their own practice.

But they are not to blame. If there is something “better”, more efficient, and faster, they will basically choose.

What ‘s more, these brothers have no temperament. Accept defeat!

Always thinking of becoming stronger, becoming themselves, or even surpassing themselves, they will protect Erudia. When encountering this kind of quick exercises and cultivation methods, they can definitely choose.

And they can endure more hardships than anyone else . .

Therefore, in order to progress so fast, basically a strong standings God.

Ye monarchs do not blame them.

everyone has the right of choice.

especially his brothers, he did not ask for too much.

but he now hopes Those apprentices and the secret team trained by themselves.

They shouldn’t abandon them, right?

They all grew up relying on this basic exercise and the method of not breaking or standing.

At the beginning, Levi Garrison heard that this was the oldest exercise method, but he thought it was the method that was not broken or established, and that it was the oldest exercise method.

Later he found out that he was wrong.

Not breaking or standing is just a practice method, and the oldest practice method is actually the basic practice method that has been neglected.

The foundation is always being laid, so it is easy to be overlooked.

But in fact, the most basic of this school is the oldest and most powerful...

Soon, Xiao Feng and the others also came.

Levi Garrison's eyes lit up. Hopeful for my apprentice...
