

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2274

After everyone is gone, I bet that Levi Garrison will immediately fall down and roll and shout pain!”

Someone immediately agreed. “Yes, I also think that Levi Garrison is holding on! The former kings are more worthy of face than anyone else?”

“Yeah, what ? Hundreds of thousands of people watch, he won’t cry out in pain! Let alone fall down! He wants to pretend to be shown to us!”

“I am looking forward to Levi Garrison’s miserable appearance in private! And the special elements of this knife are already there. Invading the body, Levi Garrison will surely be gradually corroded until death!”

...they thought of Levi Garrison’s miserable look next, everyone laughed.

At this moment, Levi Garrison glanced at the audience, “I, Levi Garrison, have a word for words. I have stabbed myself a hundred times!

Should you let my wife go as agreed?” If someone says nothing.

Levi Garrison will really get angry.

Charged up and slapped to death.

“This...”

Although some people want to go back, it's not easy to say it in front of so many people.

"Since you did it! We also fulfilled our promise! Let go of your wife!"

Tiance Young Marshal took the initiative to speak.

"Okay, we agree! This account has been written off!"

...

everyone agreed.

"Wait! Let me say a few words!"

Ye Wudao stood up at this time.

"Levi Garrison now we are talking about the hatred between Zoey and Erudia, and the hatred with the whole world is resolved! Do you know what I mean?"

Ye Wudao asked.

"Well, I understand!"

Levi Garrison nodded.

Already knew what he was going to say.

“Listen to me, this is Zoey’s hatred with the whole world! We let him go! We won’t kill her today!

But the private enmity between one of us and Zoey is still counted! If we want to revenge, we still have to take revenge! Tiance You can’t stop the mansion either!”

Ye Wudao said.

His meaning is very simple.

It is the public who kills plums today, everyone, and the whole world.

This is the hatred of the whole world, and it has nothing to do with private hatred.

Young Master Tiance nodded, “Well, I understand! We don’t care about private enmity!”

This is the word game Ye Wudao played.

For example, the hatred between Garrison Clan and Levi Garrison, he has to continue.

But Levi Garrison didn’t care about it.

Today, I stabbed myself a hundred knives and gave the whole world an explanation.

Levi Garrison sneered, “Okay, it’s okay! But I have paid for my wife! As for the private vengeance, you are welcome to report it! I’ll wait!”

Levi Garrison will do it if he comes to avenge the private vengeance.

“Hahaha...”

Everyone laughed.

Just like Levi Garrison, you are welcome to take revenge?

I don't know how to die.

You can hardly protect yourself, and want to keep Zoey ?

Dream it!

What's more, you don't have that strength!

“Next, let's abolish Zoey 's skill! For the sake of justice, let Tiance Mansion execute it!”

Ye Wudao and the others would naturally not forget to abolish Zoey 's skill.

“I'm coming!” In the end, the marshal Tiance personally abolished Zoey 's skills!

But seeing Zoey spit out blood, Levi Garrison felt relieved instead.

It is more likely that the plums will be dyed back.

“Well, everyone’s goal has been achieved! The punishment for Zoey and Levi Garrison is enough!”

Tiance Marshal shouted.

Hundreds of thousands of people slowly dispersed, half an hour.

Almost all disappeared.

But Levi Garrison and the others knew that many people looked like they had left, but in fact they were hiding in the dark, observing Levi Garrison all the time.

Among them are Levi Garrison’s enemies and deceased people.

They wanted to see how long Levi Garrison could last, and even more wanted to see his miserable appearance.

However, young marshal Tiance and Ye Wudao, with noble identities, really left.

Staying here to watch jokes is detrimental to your reputation.

They have been in control of Levi Garrison’s news anyway, and there are more opportunities to humiliate and torture. “Haha... Levi Garrison is going to make a prototype, right?”
