

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2294

Three years have passed.

Today's Sanxing Group headquarters is built like the future world in a sci-fi movie.

"Levi Garrison is here to visit!" A shout runs through the headquarters of Sanxing Group.

After hearing the sound, many people all came.

The old people in the past stood up one by one.

"Levi Garrison? What a rare visitor!"

"Hahaha, did you come to see Li Chengmin?"

"It's a man, kind and righteous! Come to save her?"

...

The people of the former Sanxing Group were afraid of Levi Garrison. No, if Levi Garrison came like this three years ago.

It is estimated that the senior management of Sanxing Group was so scared to hide.

But now, they didn't pay attention to Levi Garrison at all.

Three years have passed, they have become the world's top power, only Levi Garrison stagnated.

"Well, smart! I'm here to take her away this time! People, hand it over!"

Levi Garrison said coldly.

"Hahahaha..."

Everyone in Sanxing Group laughed.

"Ye monarchs Hello great courage ah, dare to come here? This is your door you do not go to heaven, hell no one to turn you partial break ah!"

"Right ah, Yangruhukou, it is not obvious came to be dead!"

... ..

Everyone is happy.

Now that everyone knows Levi Garrison's strength, coming to the Sanxing Group for trouble is tantamount to looking for death.

And there are many people in Sanxing Group who want to get Levi Garrison's revenge.

Even if Levi Garrison's strength is not strong, the former king is too famous.

If anyone kills him, his status and reputation must be improved.

"Since you came here by yourself, then kill you!"

Just as everyone was about to kill the killer, someone suggested: "Wait!"

"It's boring to kill directly! Let's torture him, right?"

"How to torture?"

"Does it happen that we have a group of teams going to experience it? Just threw him in!" After the man finished speaking, everyone's eyes lit up fiercely.

Everyone knew what it was referring to-the small town wrapped in a metal fortress.

That is in purgatory on earth!

"Do you want to see Li Chengmin?"

someone asked.

"Of course! Where are the people?"

Levi Garrison had already faintly guessed their plan.

After all, the distribution of the influence of the biblical organization is too wide.

Many of the Sanxing Group are undercover biblical organizations, not to mention that there are several forces in the Star Country that are affiliated with biblical organizations.

I also heard a little about their experiments with Maya Industry.

“As long as you follow us obediently, I will take you to see Li Chengmin!”

the man said.

Levi Garrison agreed: “Okay, I’ll go with you!”

Soon, they took Levi Garrison to the experimental base around the small town.

Here, Levi Garrison met Li Chengmin.

She has not had time to inject the medicine.

“Since Levi is here, let him and Li Chengmin throw it inside, right?”

“Don’t Li Chengmin like him? Let Li Chengmin just see him and have to separate from him again. !”

...

The senior management of Sanxing Group also immediately changed the plan.

Li Chengmin no longer injected medicine.

But to torture her and Levi Garrison.

Seeing Levi Garrison, Li Chengmin was extremely excited. At this moment, she was afraid of death.

She doesn't want to die, she wants to survive.

Therefore, Li Chengmin hysterically begged Sanxing Group to let her and Levi Garrison go.

"It's easy to let you live! Do you see the metal fortress in the distance?"

"As long as you two survive for three hours, let you live!"

...

Li Chengmin immediately agreed.

Someone else entered this time.

It is the experienced team of Sanxing Group.

The team is led by the strongman Li Dazhong. Li Dazhong is the record holder and stayed there for nine hours.

This time, he will challenge for ten hours.

It happened that Levi Garrison and the two entered the metal fortress with them...
