

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2305

That's right.

It is indeed a mountain of bones!

The corpse, stumps and broken arms were stacked together to form a mountain.

As for the blood to wash this place over and over again... the smell of blood is even more overwhelming, almost disgusting everyone.

The marks on these mutant monsters show that they are all gathered together, which is how they were gathered together.

But none of this scared everyone.

It was the standing man who really scared everyone!!!

Levi Garrison!

Standing is Levi Garrison!

At this moment, everyone felt that the world had collapsed.

How could he still be alive???

“Boom...”

Everyone only felt that five thunders rushed to the top, and countless sky thunders smashed down.

Everyone was bombarded with incomplete skin, burnt on the outside and tender on the inside.

This...

this is definitely the most incredible thing everyone present has ever encountered!!!

He is still alive!!!

He survived the twenty-four hours alone, and if the previous time is added, it would be thirty hours!

The highest record was nine hours before!

But before the mutant monsters were restricted and could only play 70% to 80% of their strength.

Nine hours is a big discount!

So Levi Garrison accomplished a miracle!!!

But the most important thing is not here!

The most important thing is that all mutant monsters are dead!

They were all killed by Levi Garrison and left here.

And many of them are probably not left behind, all of them blasted into powder.

Only half is placed here.

Because the door has been opened for a while, such a big movement, according to the past, if the mutant monsters were alive, they would have all arrived long ago.

For such a long time, there is no movement at all.

The only possibility is that Levi Garrison will kill all mutant monsters.

This this...

impossible!

This is absolutely impossible!

No one wants to believe all this.

But I saw the facts before me...

At first, I thought that Levi Garrison could hold it down because of the medicine Li Chengmin gave.

Now think about the potion for farts!

It's all bullshit!

For Sanxing Group, none of the mutant monsters here can be beaten to death.

You can't even hurt it.

Li Dazhong, the strongest of the gods, can't do it!

Not to mention killing all tens of thousands of monsters!

For a while everyone was immersed in the shock!

One by one, they looked like walking corpses... they were stunned.

It took a long time for no one to react...

"How did you open the door? I was ready to punch it open! Ah..."

Levi Garrison stretched out and yawned.

He also just woke up, just ready to punch through here and leave.

Unexpectedly, the door was opened.

Levi Garrison smiled.

It’s just that everyone in front of them was stunned, as if they were all frozen.

It took a long time to wake up.

“Forget it, ignore you, I’ll go and take a look outside!”

Levi Garrison smiled and left from here.

Most of the people are still there in the nearby Sanxing Group’s experimental base.

Seeing someone back.

They subconsciously asked, “How? Did you see Levi Garrison’s body? How about the others? Why didn’t they come back?”

Someone also asked , “How can I see the body! These mutant monsters are violent! If Levi Garrison is alone, it is estimated that even the bones are powdered, let alone a complete corpse!”

Levi Garrison smiled and said, “Levi Garrison’s corpse has not been seen, but a living person has seen it!”

“Huh?”

At first glance, everyone felt like it was. Nothing strange.

But after a few seconds, everyone was very surprised.

“I didn’t see the corpse, did Levi Garrison, a living person?”

“How is it possible? How could Levi Garrison live?”

... After

speaking, they all looked over.

“Ye... Levi Garrison... it’s... you!” After seeing Levi Garrison’s face clearly, all of them exclaimed in exclamation.
