

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2441

What is Hirai Musashi's strength?

After the thirtieth gods list, he can easily sweep.

Even if he doesn't use King Kong to damage his magical skills, he will be at the forefront of the gods' list!

Xuanyuan Qingya didn't have the confidence to kill within dozens of moves!

But Levi Garrison was blown to death with a fist... it was really shocking!

Xuanyuan Qingya's body was trembling when she saw the scene where no one else was.

I thought of what my father had told Wan Qiang.

There is something extraordinary about Levi Garrison... just enough punch! ! !

This punch is definitely the forefront strength of the gods!

It turns out that this is what my father said!

The extraordinary thing is that Levi Garrison has the forefront strength of the gods!

Sure enough, I was wrong!

It turned out that Levi Garrison was so strong that he didn't even notice it.

But... is it useful?

Now he can face the strong man who can match the top of the gods list and the gods of the gods- Takitani Kuroki.

Just now, he swept all the powerhouses in Erudiaa with the magical power of King Kong's incorruptibility.

No matter how strong Levi Garrison is, it is estimated that it is only the top 100 on the list of gods.

It's too far behind this one.

In fact, he was far worse than Hirai Musashi just now, but he was underprepared, seriously underestimating Levi Garrison's strength, and was killed before he could use the magical power of King Kong.

If he used King Kong to not destroy magical powers, Levi Garrison would undoubtedly die.

Still the same...

Although it gave myself a hint of surprise.

But Levi Garrison's ending is still dead!

Levi Garrison killed Hirai Musashi, but instead angered Takitani Kuroki!

Sure enough, Takiya Kuroki saw his apprentice killed, and he went crazy.

"Boom..." The terrible aura on his body revealed, swallowing the mountains and rivers with anger, sweeping the world.

"Okay, you! Dare to kill my apprentice! Or sneak attack and kill my apprentice! He doesn't even use the magical power of King Kong! You killed him by sneak attack! Erudias is really despicable and shameless!!!"

Takiya Kuroki Roared angrily.

Levi Garrison was speechless, and sneered; "Can you guys from East Island have a f*cking face? Sneak attack? Didn't we just smash it upright? Just because he didn't use King Kong's magical power, I attacked?"

"You really are. Strange! Everything must be done according to your rules? This is a damn battle of life and death! I still have to persuade him to use the power of King Kong? Just stand aside obediently and wait for him to kill me. It is fair?"

Levi Garrison was really angry.

This is the case in this country.

Every time a martial arts competition or a life-and-death battle, various rules must be set to play Lai Lai!

What he just did is a sneak attack?

“Despicable race!!!”

Levi Garrison sneered.

The apprentice Takitani Kuroki has just died and is now being satirized by Levi Garrison’s words.

He is really going to explode! ! !

“Today you must die without a doubt!!!”

“No one can save you!”

“I will show you the seventh layer of the magical technique of King Kong is not bad!!!”

Takiya Kuroki shouted.

King Kong is not bad magic power is divided into nine layers!

The ninth floor is the highest!

Basically, the people who practiced up to the seventh floor are all water chestnuts, and almost no one can touch the eighth and ninth floors.

Takitani Kuroki has been in contact with the seventh floor in a short time, which is really rare.

But he is not proficient in controlling the seventh floor.

It is estimated that it can only be used once in ten days.

Even hurt yourself.

During this period of time, he has swept the Erudiana Gods list of the strong, and the most used is actually the fifth layer of King Kong's incorruptible magic.

Basically everything can be swept.

He used the sixth layer only when facing the Marshal of Heaven and the King Kong Dragon Monk!

No one of these gods can force him to use the seventh layer.

So he won very easily, so he gave them great fear to the young masters of Tiance!

One by one was scared like that!

But now when Takitani Kuroki confronts ShangLevi Garrison, because of his anger, he actually directly used the seventh layer of King Kong not bad magic!
