

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2444

“Aba Aba Aba...”

Xuanyuan Qingya babbled unconsciously.

She was so shocked that she couldn't even speak a normal sentence.

Shocked!

It was shocking!

She actually watched Levi Garrison blast the seventh layer of the King Kong Indestructible Body into dross with a punch!

Then he has the strength...

unimaginable!

Finally know why his father is going to marry her to Levi Garrison?

Still unscrupulous!

Push hard!

It's not that Levi Garrison is a tool for giving birth, and the probability of offspring being a genius is high.

That's because he is strong!

Strong to the point of invincible in the world!

No wonder my father let himself come to observe his extraordinary place, this is extraordinary!

And Levi Garrison and Mia both said that their father was beaten and beaten by him.

It seems to be true!

Levi Garrison has the ability to easily blast Takiya Kuroki into slag with a single punch, so there is a high probability that he is better than his father!

Father is not invincible.

Levi Garrison is invincible in the world!

At this time, Xuanyuan Qingya was able to associate everything before, and what Levi Garrison said turned out to be true.

Except for the ruins, he was all right.

It is estimated that the matter of the ruins was originally true, but Levi Garrison made a mistake in his prediction.

At that time, Levi Garrison said that it was okay. He would solve the consequences and he would be the patron saint of Erudiala.

It's just that no one takes it seriously!

It seems to be true now!

The father is very hardworking.

I knew Levi Garrison's true strength for a long time, and it was right to let myself marry Levi Garrison with a heart-to-hearted attitude!

Now that Levi Garrison has this strength, what does it mean to have a wife and daughter?

This kind of overlord should marry a few more rooms!

It's me who doesn't deserve it!

Xuanyuan Qingya has been in shock.

Levi Garrison has a cheat book in his hand-King Kong is not bad magic!

He began to look back.

At the same time, his body is changing rapidly.

The surface of the body is flowing with a golden air current, and the body seems to be transparent.

Xuanyuan Qingya could see the golden yellow metal liquid flowing with his naked eyes... At the same time, there was smoke from above his head!

level one!

The second floor

...the seventh floor!

...The

eighth floor!

...The

ninth floor!

“Buzzing...”

Levi Garrison’s body trembled, and there was a huge golden phantom on the surface.

It turns out that the highest state of King Kong's non-destructive divine art is no longer a physique.

Instead, it produces a golden shield to protect the body...It is equivalent to having a double!

It's just that they haven't been to this state, so they can't comprehend it at all.

In a few moments, Levi Garrison had realized the magical power of King Kong's indestructibility to the highest level!

"It's okay!"

Levi Garrison complimented earnestly.

Xuanyuan Qingya looked silly.

Now Levi Garrison doesn't use his previous exercises, just to go out with the power of King Kong is not bad, he is already invincible in the world.

My father and the dark gods can't stop them!

Levi Garrison put away the magical power of King Kong's non-destructiveness.

You have to find a good seedling to spread the magical power of King Kong not bad.

My apprentice brothers are not considered!

In fact, the outside world has been waiting for news after Takigani Kuroki entered Jiangbei.

For a long time, I haven't seen Takitani Kuroki coming out of Jiangbei, or even Levi Garrison's villa.

This is not normal.

The challenged Xuanyuan Qingya was only the tenth on the god list, and Takigaya Kuroki could clean her up in less than a minute.

It's been more than half an hour now, why haven't there been any movements.

Did something else happen?

Marshal Tiance and Kirin (Qilin), Xiao Feng and the others are hiding somewhere in Jiangbei.

Seeing that Takiya Kuroki did not come out.

Marshal Tiance immediately worried about his sister.

She shouldn't be caught by Takitani Kuroki...

this thought came up.

Marshal Tiance ran to Levi Garrison's villa immediately.

Others also rushed up.

But when I came to the villa, it was quiet.

Xuanyuan Qingya lay down on the ground.

"Where are the people? How about them?"

Tiance Marshal asked.

"Dead! Where is it!"

Xuanyuan Qingya pointed to a pool of blood...
