

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2629

“Are you making a strong face and laughing? Nothing! Don’t hold back! Who in the entire Kunlun Academy doesn’t know your tragic experience!”

“Stand on such a mentor! I can only say that you are bad luck! What does it have to do with your own strength! You still have a relationship to worship other people!”

“Don’t stand firm, just cry out if you want to cry!”

...

Everyone said.

Jiao Tianyu said: “Nothing, no need! I think Teacher Ye is very good! I will learn from him! I won’t join other teachers!”

Zheng Wenbo also echoed: “Well, Tutor Ye is the best! Kunlun College I only recognize Tutor Ye!”

“And me! I only recognize Teacher Ye!”

“Me too!”

Eighty people present expressed their opinions one by one.

And it could be seen that they wanted to talk to Levi Garrison from the bottom of their hearts.

Rather than being arrogant with everyone!

“Um?”

Silly!

Everyone is stupid!

In the end what happened?

Make these people so convinced of Levi Garrison?

This is unscientific!

What kind of magic power does Levi Garrison have that makes these people so convinced?

unimaginable!

Chen Qizheng sneered: “Yin Zhengping, you will never think of what you missed...”

“what?”

This made Yin Zhengping stunned.

Does Levi Garrison really have anything to say?

Make this group of people so convinced?

Did you really miss something?

Other people think the same way.

But soon, they reacted.

impossible!

Just now everyone saw that they were practicing the most basic exercises.

It's not useful at all!

Either these people were confused by Levi Garrison's words, or they had compromised the facts now.

There is no other way without compromise.

Can only pretend to be indifferent!

"Wait! Give me two years! I will step on all of you!"

"Well, this exercise is stronger than you can imagine! We need time to prove ourselves! Give us two or three years, and give you a miracle!"

...

Facing the students in the entire college, Jiao Tianyu and the others have a strong momentum.

Want to stand out from the crowd.

Put others underfoot.

So subconsciously say some bold words.

“Ha ha ha ha.....”

But everyone laughed when they heard it.

Some people laugh so that their belly is about to split, and some even fall to the ground and roll in disregard of the image...

“Give you two or three years?? Hahaha... the day lily is going to be cold, right?”

“To tell the truth in two or three years, maybe Kunlun Academy is dead, who do you prove it to?”

“Now this era is fast-paced, don't you not know it? Maybe there will be one wind direction in two or three months, two or three years is simply too long!”

...

Now Yin Zhengping and the others are relieved.

I thought Levi Garrison really had something to convince this group of people.

Now it seems that it is the temptation of language.

Draw them a pie, describing a good future.
