

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2637

“It can be said that the disappearance of the laboratory of the gods has a direct relationship with them!”

“They are the enemy in our imagination!”

“For you, they are equivalent to dark Internet cafes, mastering all the information in the world!”

Mr. X explained.

Lord Tiandun’s Black Hawk agents heard bursts of breath.

The great apprentice of the Dark God also opened his eyes.

Who would have thought that Daxia still existed like this?

But Daxia has been the most shining existence since ancient times...

Not long ago, the power of absorption and the magical power of King Kong not bad came from Daxia.

“Next, you need to check more! The identities of these three must be found in the shortest time! We need to do it as soon as possible!”

Mr. X, they can’t wait any longer.

“Understand! I want to investigate too! I have to know who he is, I can’t get revenge. It’s up to you!”

The great disciple of the Dark God, pinned all hopes on the laboratory of the gods.

Mr. X smiled: "By the way, wait a minute, I have an idea..."

"What idea?"

"Does Tiance Master know of your existence?"

Mr. X asked.

The dark god disciple nodded: "I should know, but he doesn't know who it is, and he hasn't looked for it!"

"If you can't find any other clues, you can go to him! He is the helm of the God of Heaven, and he probably knows who these people like the Dark God belong to!

Others may be tight-lipped! But you are his son! If you forcefully avenge your mother, Tiance Superintendent may not tell you all, and may reveal some clues..."

The great apprentice of the Dark God immediately understood what Mr. X meant.

"I see!"

"Waiting for my good news!"

He left immediately.

“As for the current master of the ancient Ye clan, your Sky Shield can start from other people, such as members of the ancient Ye clan, etc.!”

Mr. X asked.

“clear!”

Agent Black Hawk was about to leave.

But was stopped.

“I can’t let you do things in vain. I have prepared some equipment for the Gods Lab! The kind that can’t be found outside! It’s completely above the world!”

When Mr. X said this, Agent Black Hawk’s eyes lit up.

All the things in the Lab of the Gods are definitely good!

Especially now that the secretly developing Gods Laboratory has no idea what the situation is.

Finally, Agent Black Hawk took away the equipment with satisfaction and even excitement.

Mr. X made several preparations.

The spies who entered Kunlun College were also ordered to actively search for clues.

And the best way is to get the top spot.

Become an excellent student, so that you can get close to the three dark gods.

Close contact will definitely know a little bit of information.

“Kunlun College made such a big move on the first day it opened! What kind of existence does this have to be?”

“This is obviously a punch! The fist marks are too obvious!”

Lucifer and the others looked at the pictures of the fault in the Kunlun Mountains and were deeply shocked.

Can't accept this scene in front of me!

“Will Mr. X have this possibility...”

Lucifer asked.
