

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2668

Levi Garrison smiled.

“Of course I won’t be 100% assured of you! My people will be like ghosts, staring at you and your family all the time! And you are the same!”

Levi Garrison glanced at everyone.

This frightened Daxia very much.

I’m most afraid of the feeling of knowing someone is staring at you, but not knowing where you are, and feeling that you are always there.

And they believe Levi Garrison can do it.

But in fact, how do they understand, that’s what Levi Garrison said.

He wouldn’t send anyone around them at all.

But just such a sentence, firmly grasp their psychology.

A word calmed them.

“The equipment on your body belongs to the laboratory of the gods, right?”

Levi Garrison looked at Agent Black Hawk and asked.

“Well, it is!”

“Your equipment is obviously different from others! Give me the equipment! I will study it!”

Levi Garrison said.

Black Hawk very obediently gave Levi Garrison the equipment.

In the end, Levi Garrison was sent back to Daxia in the name of the Sky Shield Bureau.

After Agent Black Hawk, he immediately contacted the Lab of the Gods.

Tell Mr. X that this method really works.

“Mr. X, Levi Garrison is completely different from the past...”

Agent Black Hawk said deliberately.

“Yeah, he was our worst enemy in the past. Now it is definitely different. I have no interest in killing him!”

Mr. X obviously did not understand Agent Black Hawk’s suggestion.

But think about it, how can you think about it in other ways?

“If you want to check next, you have to be more careful! Now the ancient Garrison clan should notice you!”

Mr. X is still very disappointed.

It is equivalent to nothing done by the Sky Shield Bureau.

You can only rely on the great apprentice of the dark god.

the other side.

After Levi Garrison was sent back, Zoey Lopez still surrounded them.

Look at whether Levi Garrison has any accidents, whether there are any injuries.

Many people came to see Levi Garrison’s jokes.

But only Levi Garrison’s students were calm.

Who dares to catch this?

No one really thinks that this can be taken away, right?

Although they don’t know what happened, they are sure that he was arrested deliberately.

Levi Garrison brought his team back to the station.

“Practice! Continue to practice for me! Then you will all retreat, and nothing can disturb you!”

Knowing that the Lab of the Gods was in Daxia, Levi Garrison knew that time was running out.

Must hurry up.

Then let them practice with all their strength, and absolutely can't be disturbed by anything.

He also found Tiance Shenshuai and others.

“By the way, how did that kid's King Kong not be bad magical skill practice?”

Levi Garrison asked.
