

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2675

“Don’t talk to us about your set of theories! It’s not you who are choosing people! It’s the dean and the deputy dean who are choosing people!”

Levi Garrison smiled.

It’s a coincidence.

It is he who is choosing people.

The reason why he is interspersed among the people is actually to choose people.

The deeper he goes, the more careful he is.

“Okay, everyone, don’t quarrel. Don’t forget, the dean and deputy dean may be watching. If you stop, it may affect performance...”

At a critical time, Zoey Lopez reminded him.

Everyone reacted.

One by one quickly joined the battle like crazy...

At this moment, Levi Garrison is not important anymore.

He doesn’t affect it anymore.

Where is he important to the dean.

The inspiring battle continues.

Everyone struggled to express themselves.

Levi Garrison finally observed it.

This time, I got a comprehensive understanding of every student.

Also selected the right person in mind.

It is impossible to create the super power you want.

But there is hope for the quasi-superpower.

This month, their respective tutors have passed on their utmost knowledge.

The corresponding foundation has been laid.

Next, Levi Garrison only needs to point them to special training.

Practice their respective exercises to the strongest position.

That is to say, the master of Tiance, Ye Zhantian and the others.

The field is still going on.

Everyone's performance is too strong.

Some people started out one-on-one.

To the back is one-to-many...

Especially a few spies, in the end directly confronted hundreds of them.

Look at the posture and wait for one to deal with all.

But where do they know, what they are doing now is useless.

No one saw it at all.

The person who was observant had already turned around.

Levi Garrison turned and walked out of the crowd, standing on a high place, shouting: "Okay, let's go here!"
