

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2697

There is no turning back.

Started to give up and will become a sinner.

Giving up halfway is still a sinner.

It is still a sinner if it is not completed in the prescribed time.

If it is constructed, the result is not defensive, and it is still a sinner.

If it is constructed, there will be no expected thing to happen at all, the biggest sinner.

Want to criticize everybody.

Even death can't offset everyone's hatred.

This is something that must be successful and must come in handy!

The price is too great!

Let me put it this way.

If Daxia really builds the defensive model that Levi Garrison envisioned.

Then, all walks of life in Daxia will stop everything.

Don't think about development in a country.

All the power is put into this, it is possible to complete the construction in two months.

It is equivalent to everyone in Daxia doing nothing for the next two months.

Accompany you to build this.

It also means that it is very difficult.

First you have to convince them!

Convince thousands of people to be with you.

As for how to avoid the sight of the Lab of the Gods, this point does not need to be considered.

It is not so obvious that the city wall is built directly.

You can divert your attention and build others.

Even building walls underground and using devices.

When disaster strikes, the city wall will rise from the ground, just towering high on the ground.

Compared with the power of the whole country to build a city wall, this is not a problem.

Even if the Lab of the Gods guessed it, it is impossible not to plan.

Two months are too short, and it is estimated that they will not be able to react.

There is no reaction time, all this is fine.

“call!”

Levi Garrison took a long breath.

What should I do at this juncture?

Dry!!!

Anyway, he must be the one who is most at risk!

The next step is to persuade Daxia’s prestigious people to agree to this matter and start mobilizing everyone to start action.

time is too short.

It must be done right away.

Even if it is vague information.

After waiting for the exact information, it is estimated that more than a month has passed.

There was really no chance at that time.

So we must speed up!

“Next, you continue to contact the Lab of the Gods, if you have any information, come to me!”

Levi Garrison left the war eagle country.

Go to Daxia.

Agent Black Hawk looked at Levi Garrison’s back, lost in thought, and the expression on his face was thought-provoking.

He did not return to Kunlun College.

After all, Tiance Superintendent and Tiance Mansion are different in nature.

There is little chance that they will come in handy.

Levi Garrison came to Yanlongwei.

Found a former principal-Hong Qingcang!

Yan Longwei didn't know Levi Garrison's strength right now, just like everyone else.

After all, in this new era, Levi Garrison had very few dealings with them.

Not even there!

It's just that Levi Garrison listed the title of king side by side.
