

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2703

That definitely won't work!

The only way out of retreat is for him to shoot directly!

He and the super powers he cultivated, who were originally going to be given to the chief priest of the Gods Lab, were exposed in advance.

Used on these giants.

no!

I still have to defend myself!

Fortunately, I still control the Bible organization and the ancient Ye clan!

Although it is impossible to build a defensive wall around Daxia.

However, relying on the human resources in his hand, Levi Garrison still has no problems in building several safety islands.

Save people as much as possible!

Otherwise, what else can he do?

I can only rely on my best efforts...

But he wanted to ask the gods of Tiance about their thoughts, to see if there was any good way, and if they could get a little help or something.

the other side.

The great disciple of the Dark God came to Daxia after receiving the information from the Gods' Laboratory.

And went to Kunlun College.

When Ce Shenshuai saw him that day, he was also taken aback.

After knowing it was his own child.

There was a thump in his head.

"I just want to know the God of Darkness today, who is the one who killed my mother..."

"You tell me one to five! Who is the murderer of my mother???"

"At this time, you won't lie, right? Of course you can lie to me! After all, you never had this son in your heart!"

The big disciple of the Dark God gritted his teeth and questioned Tiance, the master.

he is very smart.

After saying this, Tiance Shenshuai was under a lot of psychological pressure.

After all, it involved him deep in his heart.

One is a younger sister, and the other is a son.

Even if the younger sister is the one who killed his wife.

But the child in front of him is his own flesh and blood.

The appearance of this one was completely unexpected by the superintendent Tiance.

really.

The words of the great apprentice of the dark god came out.

Even Tiance Shenshuai's body was trembling, and his face was tangled.

I can't say it!

Don't say it!

"You hesitate? Will you participate in my mother's death, right?"

The great disciple of the dark god poke the gods of the sky with a word.

“No! I don’t know! When I came back from retreat, she...she was gone!”

Tiance Shenshuai’s voice trembled.

“Then tell me who he is???”

The great apprentice of the Dark God suddenly raised his tone.

Tiance Shenshuai said painfully: “I can’t say it! It’s not good for you! You can’t get revenge! Don’t think about it!”

“Even if I die, I have to take revenge!”

The great disciple of the Dark God persists.

“I killed it! What happened?”

On the day when the strategy master was entangled.

A figure appeared.

It was Levi Garrison who had just rushed back.

He had received the message some time ago-the former great apprentice of the Dark God had secretly investigated in the Bible organization.

He had guessed that this kid was inseparable from the laboratory of the gods.

Unexpectedly, he would come directly to ask Tiance the superintendent.

This is a good way.
