

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2723

It is expected to reach the attack range in two minutes! The number is uncertain! There are hundreds of them...”

The monitoring department has already monitored it from the sea.

They are actually super fast, and they arrived in the blink of an eye.

“All ministries are ready!!!”

“Everyone listens to my orders!!!”

Xiao Liejun looked serious.

Everyone behind him was nervous enough to sweat.

After all, the enemy is unknown.

No one knows how powerful it is.

“One minute!!!”

Time counts down.

It was like a death bell ringing.

Millions of soldiers on the defensive line were so nervous that they held their breath, and there was a faint sound, to the point where the needle dropped.

You can see how nervous everyone is...

“Thirty seconds!”

“Twenty seconds!”

...

“ten!”

“Nine!”

...

“three!”

“two!”

“one!”

...

“Rumble...”

Amidst the shaking of the earth and the mountains, huge figures emerged from the sea.

The height is about 100 meters and the length is hundreds of meters.

The huge body is as big as a mountain.

The shadow of the figure fell on the sea, and it was all black all at once.

too frightening!

Scared everyone!

When the behemoth emerged, the entire line of defense was shocked.

“hiss!”

Gasping and surprise sounds endless.

The oppression brought by giant creatures is too much.

Anyone must be horrified.

Even the talents of Tiance, the supernatural and handsome, changed their expressions and paid more attention to it.

“Call me!!!”

The moment Xiao Liejun saw the giant creature, he immediately ordered.

“Boom boom boom...”

“Chichichichi...”

...

All deployed modern weapons opened fire.

“Rumble...”

The power is terrifying!

It is completely devastating!

In an instant, the sea in front of him turned into a sea of fire, like billowing magma after a volcanic eruption.

The key is not just a small sea area.

It is the entire sea area in front of the Daxia Coastal Defense Money that has become a sea of flames.

It's like boiling a pot of steel soup with cannonballs...

The scene is particularly spectacular!

The battle is terrifying to the extreme!

Even the Lab of the Gods was stunned...

If you don't rely on the strong, is Daxia terrifying to this point with modern weapons alone?

Sure enough, no enemy can be underestimated.

Yanlongwei and modern warriors faded out of everyone's eyes.

But once a war is fought, they are still strong enough to explode.

This firepower turned the sea area in front of the thousands of miles of coastline into a sea of fire, which is too terrifying.

The terrifying fire bombarded the bodies of these giant creatures.

"boom!"

These giant creatures can't bear the mighty power.

One by one was bombed into the sea.

Immediately drowned in the sea of fire.
