

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2725

Did they prepare for so long?

Feeling prepared for nothing.

But at this moment, a sudden change was discovered ahead.

A giant creature unexpectedly emerged from the waters behind the Daxia team and attacked them.

“what?”

“this?”

...

Everyone is dumbfounded.

When did you go to the back?

And where did they come from?

Wasn't it all in front just now?

Everyone knows that when the cover bombing was just carried out.

Some giant creatures are on the sea, but more are hidden below.

Let the giant creatures above take the damage and cover them.

They quietly go around behind.

These are all new forces.

For a while, it caused a lot of trouble to the death squads and the people of Tiance Mansion.

“Support! Support now!”

Xiao Liejun’s expressions changed.

It is still stronger than imagined and difficult to deal with.

They did so much preparation, but it was still in vain.

Use it all.

“Kill! Kill me!”

Tiance Shenshuai took the lead.

A large number of people charged behind.

...

This battle was so dark that the sun and the moon turned upside down, and the mountains and rivers turned pale.

Both sides are injured.

Available at the end.

Under the leadership of Tiance Superintendent.

This battle is won!

Annihilate all the giant creatures, leaving no one behind.

In the end, more than a dozen of them were captured and taken back.

Despite the casualties, it was much smaller than expected.

The death squad only suffered a third of the casualties.

There were fewer other casualties.

To know.

Yan Longwei's previous expectation was that the death squad would not withdraw alive...

All the mecha legions were destroyed.

I didn't expect to win so easily...

They are not even hurt at all...

"Hahaha... I said it earlier! With Daxia's current strength, these giant creatures are not afraid at all!"

"Have you seen the king of the word side by side? We have defeated these giant creatures! They are not as powerful as you described! They are also flesh and blood, and they can still be killed! One shot can still blast through!"

"They can't work!!! There is no need for a safety island to prevent, let alone a protective wall to block it!"

"They were defeated by our own hands! Hahaha..."

Xiao Liejun and the others yelled extremely domineeringly.

"Neither can you say that! At least the King of Words side by side discovered these giant creatures in advance! Let us be prepared!"

There is someone on the sidelines.

"That's true! But these giant creatures are really not strong!"
