

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2774

But at this moment, it's not just that he can't contact the Underworld God.

No one else can be found.

...

"It's not good, it's not good!"

"All the people of the Bible Organization and Maya Industry are gone!"

"What are the gods of Forbidden Land No. 76 doing? Why did they suddenly disappear? What are they doing? Did we make a wrong prediction?"

...

At this time, spies in the Lab of the Gods suddenly discovered that the group of people from the Bible Organization had disappeared.

Suddenly no longer under their surveillance.

It was originally on the way to Daxia.

Suddenly disappeared.

This scared many people in the Lab of the Gods.

If it is not planned, it will be troublesome.

Everything that God's brain does is useless.

After all, the early Leviathan offense is not important at all.

The later stage is the highlight.

If Maya Industry and the Bible Organization were not involved, then something big would happen.

For a while, Lucifer and the Great Clown panicked.

This is an extremely bad message!

"Check it out! Check where they went!"

Everyone is anxious.

Immediately send someone to investigate.

I must find out!

"Nothing! It's a good thing that they disappeared at this time!"

Mr. X pretends to be a mysterious way.

The others were stunned and smelled incredible: "Huh? Good thing? How is it possible?"

"Now Daxia is in dire straits...all busy dealing with Leviathan! If these guys from Forbidden Land No. 76 suddenly appear from somewhere, thunder strikes. How much does Daxia lose?"

"For example, this place is the central capital of Daxia?"

As soon as Mr. X said so.

Everyone was shocked in a cold sweat.

"If the God of Forbidden Area No. 76 next attacks Daxia Capital, then the possibility of Daxia's collapse is too great!"

"Maybe when the No. 76 forbidden area was started, the guards of Daxia Capital were already slack, and all the top powerhouses in the city were dispatched to the front line. By then, the capital will be unguarded!"

"If Forbidden Land No. 76 breaks through the capital and the Yanlong Guard, Daxia will lose half!"

Everyone said one after another.

Lucifer's face was full of horror: "Wonderful! This trick is really amazing! Even we don't know where they disappeared, and Daxia will never know where they are!"

“So what are you worried about? Daxia should be worried! It’s a good thing that they disappear! When they reappear, it will be Daxia’s end!”

Mr. X is already looking forward to it.

...

The news of Daxia’s death spread to Tiance Mansion and Baolong clan.

It also caused chaos.

At the same time, Tianji Pavilion already knew the general information, and gave the Tiance Mansion how to deal with this giant creature.

Almost all Tiance Mansion was dispatched.
