

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2826

Lucifer said: "We should send someone to investigate immediately, know where this place is from Daxia..."

"Now we have basically all the spies and undercover agents in Daxia! How do we check? Daxia strictly guards this place! No one will know about it!"

Mr. X roared.

"Then what to do? Isn't it Leviathan that we can't find it?"

Everyone's faces are full of haze.

"Immediately notify Doctor Dark about this matter! Leviathan was researched by him, and see if he can get in touch!"

Mr. X calmed down.

"Sir, the decision of the chief priest is here!"

At this time, a message came from subordinates.

"What? Let me see!"

Mr. X received the message anxiously.

This is the first time the chief priest has released a decision...He eagerly wanted to know what decision the chief priest would make at this critical moment?

Others also want to know.

After all, from the plan to the present.

The chief priest has never been in control.

Give it all to Mr. X and the others...

Now things are not right, they finally make a decision.

Moreover, the main gods that Levi Garrison has been thinking about are not at all with the major bases of the Gods Laboratory.

They have other places.

It can even be said that he has never moved.

It's just that the large forces of the Gods Lab came to Daxia...

Mr. X looked at the decision of the chief priest, his eyes were deep, his brows furrowed, and his complexion gradually became serious.

Others are puzzled!

“What is Mr. X’s decision?”

The clown emperor finally couldn’t help asking.

Everyone else came up too.

“The decision of the main divine division-let the laboratory of the gods return to the world! Renamed the kingdom of the gods! Declare war on the world! Those who follow me prosper, and those who oppose me perish!”

“No matter who, whoever does not surrender will be killed without mercy!”

“Those who belong to the kingdom of God must take it seriously!”

...

The language is not surprising and endless.

The words came out.

The Lab of the Gods is about to explode!

The Lab of the Gods wants to proclaim the whole world and stand on its own as the kingdom of God?

Declare war on every part of the world!

Self-reliant as the kingdom of God?

Unexpectedly!

Everyone in the Lab of the Gods didn't expect it!

Not including Mr. X.

The decision given by the chief priest turned out to be like this...

Want to declare war on the whole world? ? ?

Also announce Leviathan's message!

It's so arrogant!

silence!

Everyone fell into a long silence!

After a while.

Mr. X smiled and said: "Yeah! We are superpower today! No longer be afraid of the Great Xia Warhawks and others! Why hide in hiding? We should directly declare the world that we are back!"

“We are the strongest force in the world, should we still call it a laboratory? We should stand on our own as the kingdom of gods! The kingdom of gods! The whole world must obey the orders of our gods!”

“Anyone who obeys the kingdom of God is a slave of God! Disobedience is a demon. Kill them all!”

...

Some words made everyone excited.

Everyone was full of excitement.

I almost yelled.

They are gods!

To be above the whole world!

Everyone else should be crawling under their feet!

Worship them!

This group of humans also made a god list!

It feels ridiculous to think about it! ! !

Daxia should be occupied by them, and everyone is enslaved by them!

They are now superbly powerful!

Not afraid of everything!

Just Leviathan makes the world helpless!

“Yes! The matter is now! Our tactics are useless! It is better to suppress everything directly with pure strength!”

“How about the God of Forbidden Land No. 76? Come on, right?”

“There are two types of existences in Daxia’s legend that have the ability, otherwise Daxia will be killed!”

“God blocks and kills gods, Buddha blocks and kills Buddha!”

Mr. X they are excited.

“Quickly, quickly! Send my order, everyone goes to the address designated by the main gods! We are going to establish ourselves as the kingdom of God!”

soon.

The Lab of the Gods has acted collectively.

This time they didn't hide it anymore.

Swaggering towards a certain place in the Western Continent.

Whoever takes the initiative will destroy whoever!

Just then.

No one thought that something happened.

The dark web, which has been silent for a long time, suddenly released a major message—

The giant creature that wreaked havoc on the world was named Leviathan, and it was actually made by the laboratory of the gods that had disappeared for more than three years!

They want to use Leviathan to destroy Daxia in order to achieve the goal of dominating the world.

Secondly.

The Lab of the Gods will immediately announce their coming to the world, and it will also establish itself as the kingdom of the gods and initiate a declaration of war on the whole world.

...

As soon as the message came out, the whole world exploded.

The Lab of the Gods also flew the pot...

They still haven't started, how did the dark web know?
