The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2851

Leviathan is all dead!

Now he especially wants to go back and tell everyone this message!

Not only was it trapped, but it was all killed.

Who made it?

Does Daxia really have this ability?

Can you kill Leviathan?

first timing.

What he thought of was the two types of existence in the Daxia legend mentioned by Mr. X!

Is it them?

Did they show up?

But when I came here now, I might not be able to go back.

It was too high just now.

I don't remember the way I came.

Now calm down and think about it. When I arrived, the road was super complicated. If there were no map records, it would be impossible to go out.

This is a place isolated from the world!

But before this, Levi Garrison must be killed first!

The gaze of the Dark Devourer was locked on Levi Garrison.

Levi Garrison also slowly turned around.

The corner of his mouth looked at him with a smile.

"Levi Garrison, you run! Even if you run to the end of the world, you will never escape! I don't care where it is, I will kill you first!"

The Dark Devourer doesn't talk nonsense at all.

Immediately kill Levi Garrison.

"boom!"

Shocked with a punch.

As a result, Levi Garrison easily blocked it with his hand and released all his strength.

This shocked the Dark Devourer.

"You… are you… you are so strong?"

The Dark Devourer quickly discovered the problem.

Levi Garrison is not such a weak chicken in the archives of the Gods Lab.

He is a strong man!

"But when you met me, there was still a dead end! Ah!!!"

I saw a shout from the Dark Devourer.

The whole person turned into a black whirlpool and began to devour Levi Garrison.

Levi Garrison just wanted to resist, but felt a terrifying suction, absorbing the power in his body.

Out of control!

"this……"

His face changed a lot!What made Levi Garrison think of was that this person's swallowing ability was different from that of sucking power.

From the beginning when the Dark Devourer started.

Levi Garrison already knew his swallowing ability.

I thought it was about the same as the suction power.

Will suck away the power and skill in his body.

But just after the contact, he found that he was wrong.

Even his face changed drastically!

This person's devouring talent is simply terrifying.

He can swallow everything.

Your strength, your flesh and blood, everything in your body!

Even at this moment, even your spirit and consciousness have been swallowed up!

At this moment, Levi Garrison's biggest feeling was that his spiritual consciousness had also been swallowed.

His mental consciousness is about to start to trance.

This is the most terrible place.

Devour everything!

Devour everything!

This is the most different place from suction power, and it is also a fatal and powerful existence.
