

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2866

Does it exist?

Existence is the best, so that it will be more certain to deal with the gods laboratory and the main gods.

If it doesn't exist, you have to find a way to bring out the main divine division.

This is another way.

But then it's good to have ideas.

Therefore, it takes a certain amount of time to arrange.

The next battle still cannot be fought.

To reduce casualties!

"Pass my order!"

Soon all the lieutenants walked in.

Staring at Levi Garrison fiercely.

Waiting for Levi Garrison's decision.

"Give my order-give up the eleventh line of defense! The seven nations behind them collectively retreat!"

Levi Garrison said this.

The audience is silent!

That's it?

Everyone waited for half an hour!

Thought Levi Garrison was going to organize a decisive battle.

Everyone was excited about screaming.

The result is really a retreat!

After the persecution, after thinking about it for half an hour, it turned out to be a retreat?

And let the seven countries behind them all withdraw like the giant cow country.

This this this...

Like a bolt from the blue sky, this is the result after waiting for a long time.

Dozens of lieutenants froze in place, like stone statues.

They didn't leave after a long time, but they all stared at Levi Garrison.

"Huh? What are you doing in a daze? Don't hurry up to perform the task, did I make it clear just now?"

Levi Garrison looked at them and said.

It's just that everyone didn't talk, they still stood there, their eyes widened.

"Huh? What's the matter?"

Levi Garrison asked.

No one speaks!

Silence in the field!

No one left, and no one to carry out Levi Garrison's orders!

"What are you doing? Talk!"

Levi Garrison shouted angrily.

“Sorry! We can’t accept this decision, commander of you!”

The lieutenant of Zhanxiong Nation was the first to stand up.

“Yes, we can’t accept it! The eleventh line of defense is very important! We must not give up! The seven countries behind us cannot retreat!”

“We must fight on the eleventh line of defense! Fight to the death!”

Everyone looked at Levi Garrison: “Please order from the commander-in-chief to let the coalition fight a decisive battle on the eleventh line of defense!”

“Please order the commander! A fight to the death!”

...

Dozens of people shouted one after another.

They weren’t asking at all, but forcing Levi Garrison to order a decisive battle.

Being persecuted, Levi Garrison also became angry.

“Do you not understand what I mean? I order you to retreat immediately!”

“Am I the commander, or are you the commander? Do you deny me the commander?”

Levi Garrison scolded.

“If you still treat me as the commander-in-chief! Just listen to my orders! Go and perform the tasks I arranged! I promise to win the final victory with minimal casualties!”

Of course this is wrong.

Following Levi Garrison’s strategy of blindly retreating, casualties can be reduced to a minimum.

“I counted three times and got off to perform the task! Otherwise, I would disobey my orders! I want military law to do it!”

Levi Garrison shouted.

But there was still no movement.

Everyone rushed and said: “If you give the order to fight to the death! Then we will treat you as the commander in command! We will respect you, and everything is up to you! But if you give the order to retreat, sorry! We can’t execute it! We too! I won’t take you as the commander-in-chief!”
