

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2884

“Therefore, Levi Garrison just retreated from the war, and didn’t reveal his strength!”

“What’s the point of holding on like this now? What’s the point of fighting to the death? Winning is easy to say, but losing?”

“In fact, Levi Garrison’s initial plan was to think about how to win, so that it would be like this! He warned us very early that the kingdom of God is very powerful and cannot be won! Construct multiple lines of defense!”

...

The more this is the time, the more people miss Levi Garrison.

Seeing that the defeat was set, the eleventh line of defense was simply unstoppable.

If this battle is defeated, what will be the outcome?

Following Levi Garrison’s words, although he had to retreat and make more space, it was at least safe.

The situation can still be controlled, he might have thought of a way.

But now it’s different!

After all, after fighting against the Kingdom of God, there is no future in sight.

The momentum is completely crushed.

No matter how many people there are, it is all cannon fodder, which can only stop delays and cannot solve the root cause.

“Yes! There is still no message from Army Master Ye? If he is there, maybe there is any way!”

“We can’t withdraw even if we want to withdraw in this situation! There is no way out!”

“Yes, if you retreat, the consequences will be even more serious! I can only stare at it abruptly!”

...

The command room was dark.

Everyone is thinking of a way.

Can’t think of it at all!

The Titan God of War also had a gloomy face, his own violent and invincible tactics were useless at all.

The two sides are not at the same level at all.

Head-to-head equals death...

“What to do? What to do?”

...

Everyone is so nervous that they are sweating!

But there is no way.

The loss is getting bigger and bigger.

The offensive of the Kingdom of God became more and more fierce, and more and more positions were lost.

And on the other side.

The faction of the War Eagle Nation has been paying attention since the start of this war.

“The situation is clearly one-sided, what should we do?”

Agent Black Hawk asked.

Wrong!

The third-party influence on the battle situation is the faction of the war eagle country.

It may even be the decisive factor.

It made Levi Garrison jealous, and also made the Lab of the Gods jealous.

Mr. X has never dared to expose all his powers. On the one hand, he is afraid of Daxia's Heavenly Master's Mansion and the Suppressor.

But the other main aspect is the war eagle country!

After negotiations, the War Eagle Nation will not help Daxia, and will not unite with Daxia.

But after all, the Eagle Nation is the enemy of the Lab of the Gods!

If the Lab of the Gods wants to sweep the world, the Eagle Nation must also sweep.

Therefore, the Lab of the Gods is very worried about the problems of the Factions of the Eagle Nation in the rear.

Especially Mr. X understands that once the war starts, showing his hole cards is equivalent to telling others the weakness of the Eagle Nation faction.

In this way, the Hawk Nation faction can easily target them!

But before launching a full-scale attack, Mr. X applied to the chief priest for an inquiry.
