

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2925

It's like the sky under your feet, and the solid earth above your head!

Everyone feels it!

The blood is really flowing backwards, everything in the body is reversed.

It's unknown for what reason.....

The most terrifying thing is the army of the Kingdom of God, they feel the strongest.

In addition to the basic feelings with everyone, they only feel that their blood and talent are suppressed.

For example, their superpowers and various tricks are no longer available.

Everything is going upstream.

The other way around!

They won't use it anymore!

For example, there is a strong man who is similar to the Devourer of Darkness, who originally swallowed and absorbed others.

But now he felt everything was upside down.

As soon as he activated his talent, he only felt that the power in his body was being absorbed outwards.

The whole person will be swallowed by the air.

And can't control it at all!

There are many similar powerhouses who have encountered this situation and simply cannot cope with this situation.

Everyone else is unavailable for talent tricks, and everything is going against the flow.

Shocked! It was shocking!

Of course, many people in the Galactic Guardian Alliance and the World Alliance are also affected in this way.

Even the Black Hawk agents in the command room were also affected by this.

It was just a few people from Smith who came over and handed a box to Agent Black Hawk, which was placed directly on him, after driving the button.

A set of battle suits flashing with blue light quickly enveloped the whole body!

moment.

Agent Black Hawk's feeling of reversing just now disappeared.

Everything is back to normal.

After other people put on this armor, they are all the same.

Everything is back to normal.

Everyone is shocked!

It seems that the Eagle Nation is well prepared for all this.

“This is.....”

When Levi Garrison felt this change.

His face also changed drastically.

The variants on the 13th and the Four King Kong were completely restricted, and the energy in their bodies was completely restricted to death, causing a counter-current situation, which could not be used at all.

Was completely restricted to death.

There is nothing wrong with him and Huoyun Cthulhu!

It's just the same changes as ordinary people...

“They... they seem to have changed this area!” Levi Garrison frowned and muttered to himself.

“Does it affect the magnetic field?”

Huo Yun Cthulhu asked.

In his experience, this is indeed the case.

In the past, in order to target the super-powered people, various countries have specially manufactured some devices that affect the magnetic field.

The stronger the magnetic field interference, the more powerful it can be.

Sora has superpowers and top talents, but he can't show them at all.

“No! It's not that simple, it changes the magnetic field! Even the geographical environment has been changed!”

Levi Garrison said in surprise.

Today, this device of the War Eagle Nation is for Levi Garrison.

It's not just affecting the magnetic field.

It completely changed the magnetic field!

Reverse the two poles of the magnetic field, so the reverse will happen!

The stronger the person, the more he can feel that he enters another place where the magnetic poles are reversed.

It feels too obvious.

The purpose of this device is naturally to deal with the main god!

Presumably, the Eagle Nation has been waiting.

After waiting for the main divine division and the kingdom of God to enter this area, immediately took out the device.

But what Levi Garrison thought about was—this device actually separates this area (including the sea, the sky, etc.) from the world abruptly and becomes an independent small world.

In the true sense of isolation!

This small world has become an area controlled by the Eagle Nation itself!

Magnetic field, gravity, etc., everything is controlled by the Eagle Nation.

In layman's terms-this area is controlled by the War Eagle Nation, they will let you do whatever they want!

Do whatever you want, lawless!

This is the artifact prepared for the Lord God Division! Great gift!

In the command room of the Guardians of the Galaxy Alliance.
