Chapter 1137 After Lucifer and Callan signed the liability waiver, they walked into the arena. The noisy arena plunged into silence once the two walked in.

Then, sounds of discussion could be heard.

"Damn, i–isn't that Master Callan from the Elrod family? Why is he in the arena? Who's the other one? Are they going to fight?"

"He looks familiar. Let me think... I remember! That's Master Lucifer from the Grim family. Back then, he was a famous hedonist in the Royal Region. However, I think his family sent him out a few years ago, and he hadn't come back in a while. I can't believe he's here now."

"The Grim and Elrod family are mortal enemies. Their strengths don't differ by much, and the two are first heirs. Since they're here, there will be something interesting to watch. Haha! Thank God I came here today!"

"I didn't think that Master Lucifer would give us a show after he came back. It's so rare to see a battle between the first heirs of two major families. This trip was so worthwhile!"

At this time, a voice came from the speakers of the arena.

"Hello, everyone. Due to special circumstance, the next beast battle will now instead be a human battle. I believe you've seen the people participating in this battle.

"One is Master Lucifer Grim from one of the eight prominent families in the Milky Way, while the other is Master Callan Elrod, also from one of the eight prominent families in the Milky Way.

"These two are peerless geniuses in the Milky Way. Let's wait and see what kind of show they will put on later."

After getting confirmation from the arena officials, the crowd went wild.

They were even more noisy than they were during the beast battle.

This was not just a battle between two humans but also a battle between two major families.

If they won, they would be well-regarded. Not only would they bring glory to their families, but they could also even vent their anger and suppress the opposing family.

However, if they lost, they would be utterly embarrassed.

Not only would they embarrass themselves, their entire family would also be shamed.

This was no joke.

As one of the eight prominent families in the Milky Way, honor was very important to them.

If Lucifer lost, he would be punished by his family, no matter how unique his identity was.

If Callan lost, he would be in a worse situation as he might even lose his position as the first heir.

This was a pretty serious consequence. However they had no reason to pull out now that they were at this step.

of course, the most important thing was they had absolute confidence in their selves. They did not think they would lose to the other. That was why they did this. As the first heirs, they knew what would happen if they lost. Callan and Lucifer stood facing each other in the arena. Their tiny human bodies seemed out of place in the vast arena. However, they could emit incredible energy from their tiny bodies.

Body size was never used to measure the amount of power a creature had. "Cally, you can still pull out now. As long as you kneel and kowtow to me, and then say, 'I'm sorry, Daddy', I will let you go. If not, don't blame me for being merciless if I accidentally kill you or cripple you. We've already signed the liability waiver," Lucifer said arrogantly. "Lucy, are you sick in the head? Pull out? I wonder who will be the one pulling out later. I won't spare you even if you kneel in front of me. I have to show you how powerful I am. Don't think you're invincible just because you've been cultivating with your grandmaster for a few years. You're still nowhere near me!" Callan retorted. Then, the two stopped talking. They were working hard to recompose themselves. They wanted to fight this battle in their best states.

Even though it sounded easy, they knew it would not be too easy to defeat the other. They had been fighting since they were young, so they knew each other very well.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1138

Chapter 1138 There had previously been a period of peace because Grandmaster Grim had asked Lucifer to cultivate with him and could not come out.

David, Mia, and the two old men watched Lucifer and Callan in the arena,

The two old men were paying the most attention and would be prepared to face any danger to save the two.

David was not interested.

To him, these two were too weak.

After Mia knew David's true power, she was much more relaxed.

She did not worry that she would cause trouble for David any more.

According to sources, the Allaband family, ranked third among the eight prominent families, had a grudge against the Tuffin family, but they never did anything because of Grandmaster Tuffin.

This showed how much of a deterrent Grandmaster Tuffin was.

Now, David could kill Grandmaster Tuffin with a swing of his sword.

Therefore, the only family among the eight prominent families in the Milky Way that could threaten David would be the Drake family, which was ranked first.

After all, the Drake family was the unique one among the eight. Mia was delighted right now. The stronger David was, the better her taste. This would be beneficial to her future. At this moment, a strong wind swept across the arena. Rumble!

Lucifer and Callan's energy rose to their peaks.

They moved at the same time.

They disappeared from where they were standing and rushed toward each other.

Then, they met in the middle.

Boom!

The collision caused a deafening noise, and a shockwave started spreading. The audience around them, who were slightly weaker, were all pushed to the ground while holding their ears in pain.

"Ah!"

Some people passed out as they were unable to handle the shockwaves. The audiences were primarily people from the bottom tier of society. Even though they were much stronger than earthlings, they still could not handle the shockwave of two Cosmos

Rankers colliding.

After the collision, Lucifer and Callan backed away quickly. They did not care if they hurt the audience after they recomposed themselves. They could only see their opponent, and they only wanted to defeat them. Hence, they continued to charge at their opponent, soon engaging in a fight.

Boom boom boom!

Everyone heard countless sounds of collision.”

Shockwaves started spreading one after another. There was a strong wind in the arena, and the collisions sounded like claps of thunder.

When the audience saw they were about to get hurt for the second time, they looked horrified. Many of them were fleeing the scene, causing chaos.

At this moment, an invisible shield appeared above the arena, stopping the shock waves from spreading. However, no one could see this shield. Everyone was still trying their best to flee from the chaos.

As time passed, the audience realized the combat in the arena would not affect them anymore.

Therefore, they thought this was one of the arena’s functionalities.

The scene quieted down again, and everyone started attentively watching the battle in the arena.

It was very rare to see a battle of this level.

As expected, David’s mind power was creating the invisible shield. His mind power was at Infinity level 10, so it could resist the attack of an Infinity Ranker. Hence, this shock wave was nothing to him.

Chapter 1139 After David saved the audience, he started paying attention to the fight.

“David, who do you think will win?” Mia asked.

“It’s hard to say. They are at about the same level as each other. It all depends on who has the stronger trump card,” David answered.

Even though he could guess Lucifer and Callan’s realms, he could not see their hidden tricks.

Almost all of these direct descendants from major forces would have some trumps up their sleeves.

It might be some amazing combat skills, or vicious hidden weapons. It could even be a powerful weapon. It could even be a mysterious potion that could increase their combat power in the blink of an eye.

Just like Adan back then.

His strength skyrocketed after he consumed the Blood–Burning Potion. David could not tell what these guys possessed.

So, David could not confirm who would win in the end.

“I hope Master Callan will win. Lucifer is too sinister and shameless, I don’t like him. He kept bugging me back then and caused a lot of trouble for me. I finally got a few years of peace, and now he’s here again,” Mia said, feeling a little pissed. After she said that, the old man next to Lucifer turned around to look at her.

However, Mia did not care. David smiled understandingly.

If it were back then, Mia would not dare to talk about Master Lucifer like that.

Now that she knew his strength and the Grim family was no longer a threat, she dared to say just about anything.

“It’s fine. He won’t get the chance to bug you anymore,” David comforted.

At this moment, the old man next to Callan turned to look at David.

He was very curious why David dared to say that.

Even though he knew David was not that simple, Master Lucifer was not easy to deal with.

Moreover, he had a unique identity. If something happened to him, Grandmaster Grim would come out.

The battle in the arena stopped just as the old man next to Lucifer wanted to say something. The old men turned their heads to look over quickly. David and Mia also looked over. Lucifer and Callan had separated from each other.

The two were gasping for air, and their clothes were torn. There was no outcome from the previous battle, and they were only testing each other. "Lucy, is that all you got after cultivating with your grandmaster for so long? Does your grandmaster know how to teach you?" Callan said sarcastically, "Shut up! Cally, you've successfully injured me."

After Lucifer said that, he disappeared.

Suddenly, he appeared in front of Callan and slapped him.

Callan sneered and caught Lucifer's hand fearlessly. At this moment, a sinister smile appeared across the corner of Lucifer's lips.

Looking closely, one could see a gust of black smoke coming from Lucifer's palm that was aimed at Callan.

'Black Demon Palm!' Lucifer growled in his heart.

Black Demon Palm was a low-grade combat skill, but it was also a skill that made Grandmaster Grim famous.

Once someone was hit, the Black Demon Poison would enter their body, causing all muscles and organs to fail. It was very lethal.

Black Demon Palm was not the same as other skills with strong power.

The other skills would cause huge sounds when used, so the opponent would notice it in advance and then think of an appropriate countermeasure,

However, Black Demon Palm was different.

One could use Black Demon Palm without making any noise. There would only be some black smoke circling one's palm, and their opponent would not notice if they did not pay attention. This was the best trump card when it came to sneak attacks. Therefore, even if Black Demon Palm was a low-grade combat skill, its power was not inferior to any middle-grade combat skill. Grandmaster Grim used this skill to move unhindered in the Milky Way. Even so, Black Demon Palm was famous for being hard to learn.

Grandmaster Grim forced Lucifer to learn Black Demon Palm throughout all these years. Only when Lucifer successfully learned it was he allowed to come out.

A combat skill was every force's rarely shown trump card. There were a few more low or middle-grade combat skills. Usually, the eight prominent families would each have one or two of them. Meanwhile, a high-grade combat skill would be very precious. Its power was more than one level above the low or middle-grade combat skills, let alone top combat skills.

The value of a combat skill at this level was immeasurable.

Boom!

After he was hit, Callan flew more than ten meters backward before stabilizing himself.

Just now, Callan reacted hurriedly, and the impact caused Lucifer to stagger a few steps backward.

However, Lucifer was excited.

Success!

Lucifer had just learned Black Demon Palm, so his power was limited.

Chapter 1140 However, it was still enough to defeat Callan. After Callan was hit with Black Demon Palm, the poison immediately entered his arm.

His arm would be temporarily paralyzed, so the coming battle would be much easier for Lucifer after Callan lost one of his limbs.

Lucifer looked at the old man watching the battle and hinted at him to stop Callan's people.

Then, he continued to charge at Callan. He would not give Callan any chances. He had to cripple him in one go. Callan saw Lucifer charging at him again and thought, 'Do you think I'm scared of you?'

He suffered a slight loss because he was in a hurry just now, and he was still mad.

Therefore, Callan also rushed forward. Boom boom boom! The two started engaging in a battle again. The more Lucifer fought, the more he felt that something was off. 'Didn't I just hit Cally with Black Demon Palm? Why can he still use his arm? 'Why does he not look hurt at all?

'Impossible!

'Black Demon Palm was what got Grandmaster famous, and it's great for sneak attacks.

'But why does it not work on Cally?

'Also, Grandmaster was the one who taught me this combat skill. He only let me out after I successfully learned it. So I'm sure there won't be any problems.'

Lucifer did not know that he could not hide this small trick from David's mind power.

David could see his sneak attack early on.

So, he secretly wrapped a thin layer of mind power over Callan's fist that blocked the spread of the Black Demon Poison.

Lucifer did not believe that there would be something wrong with his Black Demon Palm.

Hence, he continued to use it secretly.

'Black Demon Palm!'

'Black Demon Palm!'

'Black Demon Palm!'

Unfortunately, David would secretly use his mind power to stop the Black Demon Poison each time Lucifer used it.

He would get nothing with every attack

Lucifer was wondering if something was wrong with his cultivation. 'Grandmaster! What did you teach me? It doesn't work at all! 'I'm so tired, but my opponent is still jumping around. 'What kind of combat skill is this?

'Isn't this suicide?' Since it would take a lot of energy to use Black Demon Palm, Lucifer started feeling drained after using it multiple times.

His attacks started to become weaker. Callan found an excellent opportunity to punch Lucifer directly on the chest. "Pfft!"

Lucifer vomited blood.

He flew more than a hundred meters back and collapsed on the floor.

Callan followed him and placed his foot on Lucifer's chest.

"Pfft!"

Lucifer vomited blood again.

Right now, he was drained of all energy, and he could only let others do whatever they wanted to him.

Inside, Lucifer was fuming.

He did not lose to Callan, but instead, the grandmaster was the one who indirectly caused this.

If he did not use Black Demon Palm and inadvertently drained his body, he might not have lost. At most, it would be a tie.

He cried in grief inside his heart, 'Grandmaster, you did this to me!' "Master Lucifer!"

When the old man from the Grim family saw Lucifer getting hurt, he immediately went over. However, the old man from the Elrod family stopped him. "This is between them. Let them resolve this themselves. After all, they've signed a liability waiver. Are your family member's such sore losers?"

"Get lost! Listen to me, if anything happens to Master Lucifer, the grandmaster will avenge him. Does your family want to start this battle?"
