

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1159

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1159

Chapter 1159 Mia looked at the Grims, who disappeared inexplicably. She was still unable to wrap her head around this. 'Did David do that with his sword?

'How is that possible?

'He was clearly just fooling around just now, and it did not look like it would do any damage.

'How did it cause such destruction? 'Even an Infinity Ranker like Grandmaster Grim could not resist it.' When Mia thought about this, she froze.

'If Grandmaster Grim, a mid-Infinity Ranker, could not resist David's sword, what rank is David? 'Late Infinity – Ranker? Or peak Infinity Ranker? 'David kept telling me he's powerful, but this is too powerful!' "Mia, what are you doing? Let's go."

At this moment, Mia heard David talking to her. "O-Oh, I'm coming." 1 Mia quickly walked into the Octagon. When she walked in, she saw David drinking tea leisurely.

It was as if he was not the one who killed the core elders of the Grim family.

"David," Mia called out softly.

"Come sit," David poured Mia some tea and said.

Mia obediently walked opposite David. "What do you think? I told you I was powerful. Do you believe me now?" David smiled.

"I believed you long ago, but I didn't think you were that strong," Mia answered. "And now do you?"

"Yeah!" Mia nodded.

"You should know what to do now, right?"

"Don't worry, David. I know what I should do. I won't embarrass you again."

"That's good. Let's head to the Royal Region," David said.

"Alright, David. However, I have a suggestion," Mia said.

"Go on."

“David, you killed all the core elders of the Grim family. The Octagon we’re in is slow, so why don’t we steal one of the Grim family’s Galaxy Warships? That way, it’ll be much faster for us.” David thought about it and figured it was a good idea. They could save a lot of time using other forms of transportation.

However, he did not want to take it.

He would prefer to buy it as he could even get some lavish points.

Even if it would not be much, he would still be getting something, right?

He could kill two birds with one stone.

David said, “Alright, but we shouldn’t steal it. I have principles and don’t want to take other people’s things. I should buy one instead. I killed the Grims because they wanted to kill me. I am only letting them get a taste of their own medicine. If we steal from them, won’t we become space pirates who only know to murder for money? How would others view us?”

“I understand. You’re so righteous, David. Let’s buy one then,” Mia said in admiration.

The Octagon arrived above the Grim family.

The entire family was going to confront their mortal enemy.

They only saw the Grim family’s vessels getting destroyed in the sky just now. No one knew what happened later, and no one dared to go look.

However, the Octagon was the one descending right now, but the grandmasters and core elders did not.

They started overthinking because of this. “Oh no! Oh no! Attack! Attack! Tell Lord Derry!” A subordinate of the Grim family who did not know what had happened yelled.

“Tell Lord Derry? Your head and grandmasters are not back yet, so they might already be dead by now. Everyone, think of a way to escape!”

“Nonsense! How could the grandmasters die?”

“Grandmaster Grim is not invincible. How could he not die? Haha! The Grim family is getting their retribution.” “If you dare to speak more nonsense, I’ll f*cking kill you!”

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1160

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1160

Chapter 1160 "It will continue saying it! The Grim family is getting their retribution! This is your retribution for plundering everywhere! Hahaha! The Grim family is doomed!" When they were about to start fighting, a suffocating aura overwhelmed them from above, and they did not dare to move.

"Get me someone from the Grim family who can make decisions," David said.

The Grim Manor was silent. No one dared to take a step forward because if they did, they might die.

They were all collateral relatives or subordinates of the family.

Therefore, no one was willing to risk their lives.

At this moment, a middle-aged man came forward suddenly. He knelt on the ground and asked, "Sir, are Lord Derry and the grandmasters dead?"

His voice was filled with intense expectations.

"That's right. All of the core elders of your family are dead. However, they offended someone they can't afford to offend, so they deserve it! You don't have to suffer the consequences. I just need someone to take me to a warship. Not only will I let you go, but I will also pay you," David said.

After he said that, he heard someone laughing carefreely. "Hahaha!"

It was from that kneeling middle-aged man. The collateral relatives of the Grim family had devastated looks on their faces. Grandmaster Grim and the cores were dead, which meant the family was also doomed.

Even if some of the direct descendants could return from their explorations, they might not dare to show their faces anymore.

They could only live in the darkness and conceal their identities.

David frowned and looked at the laughing man.

Suddenly, his eyes narrowed.

The middle-aged man had the word 'slave' on his forehead.

A slave mark!

David's heart shook.

'Did the Grim family plant a slave mark on this man?

"No wonder he hates them so much and was so happy after hearing about Grandmaster Grim's death.

As he looked at the middle-aged man, David remembered he promised old David from the other timeline that he would help old David's teammates that had been planted with slave marks when he was strong enough. Without their help, David from that timeline would not have brought the system out of the God Tier Civilization and give it to David in this timeline. David would surely do what he promised. However, his power only increased suddenly recently, so it slipped his mind.

It seemed like he still had a lot of things to do.

It would be better to complete this as soon as he could. He would decide after he upgraded these planets to high civilization planets in the Milky Way Empire.

If not, some forces might find this place and plant their slave marks on it. When that happened, it would be too late.

He could not delay this.

Without the fearless seniors from the other timeline, they would not have gotten the system, and David would not be where he was now. It seemed like he had to delay going to Planet Royal.

The man was laughing so hard he was crying. Then, he started wailing.

It was as if he wanted to release everything in his heart.

David did not interrupt him as well.

He knew this person must have held it in for a very long time.

Once the humans of a planet were planted with slave marks, they would never have been able to make a comeback unless everyone on that planet went extinct. This fate was indeed hard to accept.

If David did not have the system's help, Earth would also have ended up like this.

By then, it might even have helped Pavan reached the peak of the Milky Way. Therefore, David understood. When the middle-aged man got tired from crying, he gradually stopped and started kowtowing to David. Once, twice, thrice... While he was doing that, he mumbled, "Thank you, Sir! Thank you!"

– He kept going more than ten times.

David could not take it anymore, so he used his mind power to stop the man, preventing him from continuing

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1161

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1161

Chapter 1161 A Galaxy Warship was speeding ahead in the void. Inside the ship were David and the others. This time, David did not just take a Galaxy Warship from Planet Grim. He also brought along the middle-aged man who had been planted with a slave mark.

Or rather, that middle-aged man insisted on following David and wanted to serve him as his master because David avenged him and his planet.

David pitied this man.

After all, he had almost been like him.

The middle-aged man's name was Balu.

He had a peaceful and prosperous life on a tiny planet. According to Balu, that planet was tiny and even smaller than the moon. Not many people stayed there, so it was still pretty primitive.

This was until the Grim family went and destroyed their peaceful life more than a hundred years ago. Back then, Balu was very young, and his father was the head of the planet.

After the Grim family planted their slave mark on the planet, Balu and his family were brought to Planet Grim. From that day on, they lived like slaves. Hundreds of years passed, and Balu had no idea if anyone was still living on that planet. Thus, he hoped David could take him back to his planet to check on his homeland. To be honest, David could not say no to this request. He was not cold blooded. Even though he would waste more time, David decided to take Balu back to his planet. The slave mark's feedback to the planter was closely related to the talent of the victim. S

Even though the Grim family planted their slave mark on Balu's planet, since this planet was still primitive and had limited talents, its feedback to the Grim family was not that great. Hence, the Grim family never improved in these hundreds of years.

If it were Earth, then it would be a different story. David from the other timeline said after a declining family like the Tuffin family planted a slave mark on Earth, they prospered.

After that, Pavan, the family's eldest son, became the Master of the Milky Way. In that timeline, the Tuffin family's status was even higher than the Barlowe family, which was also the royal family of the Milky Way Empire. This showed how talented and rare earthlings were.

"Master, since you're so powerful, do you know any way to remove the slave mark? I'll pay any price if I can get rid of the slave mark," Balu, the middle-aged man, asked expectantly. David did not answer. He only shook his head to show that he did not know. From what he knew, a bloodline curse from the slave mark was impossible to remove once it was planted. At the very least, a level 3 civilization like the Milky Way could not remove it. It was unknown if the other higher-level civilizations could.

Even if David was powerful and the strongest in the Milky Way, he had limited knowledge.

After all, he came from a remote planet like Earth and did not spend much time growing.

Balu was disappointed when he saw David shaking his head. If someone powerful like David, who viewed the Grim family as ants, had no idea of how to fix this, then who would?

"You don't have to be too disappointed. Even though we don't have a way to remove it here in the Milky Way, it doesn't mean the higher-level civilizations don't. We need to find out and discover this slowly," David comforted. "I got it, Master. From now on, I will do anything for you to repay your grace. I hope you can keep me around," Balu said after kneeling in front of David and kowtowing to him. "Balu, you don't have to do this," David said.

"Master, I won't get up if you don't say yes. I've nowhere to go. I will only have a glimmer of hope if I'm with you. Even though I know I am weak, I promise your enemies will have to step over my dead body if they want to hurt you," Balu said firmly.

David knew Balu was being sincere.

After he thought about it, David decided to keep Balu.

He needed someone to work for him now anyway.

Right now, the people driving the Galaxy Warship were Pavan's people. To be honest, David did not like this.

However, he could not find suitable people for the job, so he had kept them around.

David would feel more at ease using someone like Balu.

“Alright, you should stay with me from now on, but if you want, you can leave at any time. I won’t stop you.”

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1162

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1162

Chapter 1162 “Thank you, Master! Thank you, Master!”

Balu answered happily while kowtowing non–stop. “That’s enough. I am very casual, and I don’t like all this complicated etiquette. Don’t do it to me anymore.” After David said that, he waved his hand and helped Balu up with his mind power. “Yes, Master. I understand.” After Balu said that, he took a step backward. “Balu, do you remember where your home is?” “Yes, I do. Even though so much time has passed, I always wanted to go back to visit my people.”

“Go to the control room and tell them the direction. We’ll stop by your home first.”

“Thank you, Master! I will never forget your kindness and grace!”

“I told you not to be so polite with me. Off you go.” Balu left the room happily and headed to the control room.

He was about to return to his previous home, so he was very excited.

After Balu left, David said, “Mia, we might need to change our plan. We’re not going to Planet Royal now because I just remembered there are many things I need to do.”

“That’s up to you. I’ll go wherever you go,” Mia said. “We’ll fulfill Balu’s wish before we do the rest.”

“Yes, David.”

Planet Callisto in the Royal Region. Right now, the Callisto family was very lively. This was because they were hosting a family meeting, and almost all of the cores were back. This time, they were looking for the first heir of the family, meaning they were going to determine the head of the younger generation. Initially, three people were eligible to compete for this position, Fergus, Beck, and Micah Callisto. Right now, Fergus was crippled, so Beck and Micah were the only ones left.

Once the next head of the younger generation was determined, the title would not go to anyone else unless anything significant happened. . The head of the younger generation would be the next head of the family.

Everyone figured that since Fergus was crippled, the family felt a sense of urgency, so they wanted to determine the next heir as soon as possible.

Moreover, the grandmasters were the one who announced this. Initially, the family was very concerned about Fergus being crippled. No matter what, he used to be a direct descendant who was eligible to compete for the title of head of the younger generation.

Even if he was crippled, they had to find who did that and make them pay. However, Fergus refused to say when his family asked him about that. Back then, he had already fused with the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan's genes, and his strength skyrocketed. Hence, he wanted to seek revenge on David himself. Furthermore, his family found out from Heathcliffe that this was related to Planet Boundless. Planet Boundless was related to the Lutgen family and Princess Astrid's incident. Therefore, the Callisto family stopped looking into this. They would only decide after this pressing issue was over. If not, the Callisto family would not sit idly by after David crippled Fergus. This was not what the second-ranked family among the eight prominent families would do.

However, since it was related to Princess Astrid and the Sangruil Sinners, the Callisto family had no choice but to tread carefully.

Beck and Micah came in their Sunday best.

They were the main characters today.

One of them would become the first heir of the family.

When they thought about how they might be the head of the younger generation, they were ecstatic.

Moreover, they did not think they would lose to each other.