

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1429

Chapter 1429

Time passed day by day.

After getting instructions from Celeste, the enormous tortoise headed toward the high-level civilization Star Kingdom as fast as possible.

It was also Celeste and Amadi's hometown.

The place where countless geniuses and powerful people lived.

When one was traveling through the space crack, one could not distinguish between day and night, and the outside world beyond the enormous tortoise was always pitch black.

However, the luxury building had lighting.

Celia and the women sat and chatted together after they had had enough sleep.

In the beginning, Lorraine was still aloof.

Celia invited her several times, but she never went to chat with them.

However, over time, she saw that her master Celeste was still in retreat.

Gradually, Lorraine could not stand not having anyone to talk to.

Slowly, she also started to interact with Celia and others and joined them.

Everyone was a woman, and they were all from Earth. At the same time, they were about to go to a strange place.

Lorraine was also Celeste's direct disciple.

It was possible Celia and the others might need to rely on Lorraine when they got to the Iridescent Sect!

Therefore, even though Lorraine was just looking for someone to talk to and pass the time and she was not really part of their extended family, Celia and the others still welcomed her with open arms.

Most of their chats were about Celeste.

In the Beast Galaxy, David and Amadi were besieged by dozens of powerful people of the same level, and they were facing certain death.

Celeste's voice not only scared the galaxy beasts sh*tless, but it also shook Celia and the women to their cores.

Their previous impressions were that a woman could never catch up with a man.

There were very few strong women on Earth.

Selena was an exception.

Now, there was a female powerhouse of Celeste's level.

It could be said that after this incident, Celia and others began to slowly change their perspectives.

It turned out that women could be so strong.

Lorraine was born in The Krums, a hidden sect, and was extremely favored by two talented seniors. Hence, she was very arrogant.

Even though David later became the savior of the earth, she never lowered herself to find David.

Now that she was being mentored by Celeste, a peerless powerhouse, she was even more confident.

Moreover, Celeste wanted to train Lorraine to even surpass herself.

It was no exaggeration to say that Lorraine's taste was higher now.

Therefore, she did not bother with Celia and the others.

She only chatted with Celia and the others so she would have someone to talk to and not be bored to death. That was all.

"Celeste is so powerful. How amazing. She can easily kill so many powerful enemies with her voice. I have decided that I will work hard in the future and be as powerful as Celeste. I'll kill whoever dares to bully Dave and you all in the future!" Sandy clenched her fists and said excitedly.

"Okay, okay! Then you have to work hard, and we will count on your protection in the future," Celia patted Sandy's head and responded with a smile.

The others smiled too.

Now, they were like a big family, and David was the head of the family, protecting them from harm.

After what happened in the Beast Galaxy, it turned out that David, who was invincible in everyone's mind, would sometimes feel alone and helpless too.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1430

Chapter 1430

Therefore, they wanted to grow, become stronger, and be able to protect David as well.

Sandy was not the only one thinking this.

Everyone else thought this in their hearts, but they did not say it out loud.

"Okay! Rest assured, Celia, I will."

"Tch, you're truly still a child. Do you know what realm Master is? You even say you want to reach her level. Aren't you worried that others will die from laughter when they hear what you said? What an ignorant youth," Lorraine cracked down expressionlessly.

"Lori, I know Celeste is very, very powerful, but I will not give up. I will use her as my target and work hard," Sandy said seriously.

"Master is a remarkable existence even in a high-level civilization. You need talent, luck, and resources to reach her level. What do you have, little girl? You have nothing. It's unrealistic to make her your goal. You should come back to your senses! Don't be so ignorant anymore, lest you will be laughed at in the Iridescent Sect. By then, don't say that I come from the same place as you. I don't want to be humiliated."

Sandy was deflated soon after Lorraine said that.

-She lost all of her excitement.

It was replaced by a disappointed expression.

She pouted and tears glistened in her eyes.

The smiles on the faces of the others also disappeared.

They were all glaring at Lorraine angrily.

They all knew that it was impossible for Sandy to reach Celeste's level, but everyone would not speak out against Sandy. Instead, they would give her confidence and let her persevere.

Sandy was still young after all.

She was only a little over twenty.

“Why are you looking at me like that? I’m just telling the truth,” Lorraine said indifferently.

“Lori, what are you doing? Sandy is still young, we should give her support and encouragement, not attack her like that,” Selena said.

“Is it wrong to tell the truth?” Lorraine asked back.

“It’s not wrong to be honest, but please also read the room. Everyone is from Earth, and we are going to a completely strange place. What we have to do now is to help and support each other, not to fight and look down on each other.”

“Sorry, my character does not allow me to lie.”

“Then you don’t have to speak! No one is forcing you to.”

“I’m not used to seeing others boast about things they can’t achieve, and I’m doing it for her own good so that she won’t do something stupid in the future when she is unable to accept the huge gap.

“This is for the future! Besides, we will always be by Sandy’s side and slowly enlighten her. If you can’t stand this, you can leave. You are not welcome here.”

“You...”

Lorraine froze for a moment.

She stared straight at Selena, and Selena also looked into her eyes without fear.

“Hmph... I hope that you won’t need any favor from me in the Iridescent Sect, otherwise...”

Lorraine dropped the unfinished sentence and got up to leave.

She did not know why she would retort to Sandy like this.

It stood to reason that all this had nothing to do with her.

In fact, deep down in Lorraine’s heart, she still held some resentment toward David.

She hated David for rejecting her in front of almost every force in Somerland.

It was fine if he rejected her, but he even found so many lovers.

Among David's little lovers, who could compare to her besides Selena?

Despite this, David turned her down.

It was one thing Lorraine could never get over in her life.

If it was a stranger who said what Sandy said just now, Lorraine would just laugh it off.

However, if it was from David's lover, so she could not stop herself from snapping back.