Chapter 1513

Nek's sudden appearance scared everyone present.

The energy released by a Saint was simply not something that Eternals could bear.

It was the same whether they were a Ruler Ranker or a Sovereign Ranker.

Although Nova and Celeste were Sovereign Rankers and Nek was a Pre-Saint, and they seemed to be only one step away, their lives were fundamentally different.

However, he was still in the Iridescent Sect so Nek did not show his full strength.

If he showed all of his energy as a Saint, Nova and Celeste would be the only people in the room who could survive.

The others would have long been reduced to ashes.

Even if they survived, they would be seriously injured.

This was a Saint's terrifying strength.

There were reasons why being a Saint was the threshold to participate in the formulation of rules in Star Kingdom.

After Celeste recognized Nek, she turned away and refused to face him.

Such a shameless approach made Nek feel insulted.

'Since breaking past Eternal Realm, I have always been respected no matter where I go in the past thousand years.

'Celeste is only a Sovereign Ranker, so what right does she have to feel dissatisfied with me?

'I only planted a mind seed in you without you knowing.

'I only planted it because I took a fancy to you.

'It is an honor for you to be planted with an Eternal's mind seed,

'I wouldn't even give it to others if they begged me for it!'

Nek felt insulted because Celeste turned her back on him.

That was why he suddenly displayed his energy, frightened everyone, and vented his anger this way.

He wanted to let Celeste know what it meant when they said that one should never insult a Saint.

Of course, Nek knew this was the Iridescent Sect.

Therefore, he should do it appropriately. He needed control his strength and immediately retract it after displaying it.

That short moment caused the middle-aged attendant and the seven fairies to slump to the ground. Most of their bodies were drenched in cold sweat and their eyes were full of horror.

David was better off than them. He was still standing, but there was sweat on his forehead, and his legs were trembling a little.

A beginner Ruler Ranker like him was still too weak.

Celeste also turned around at this moment to glare at Nek.

She did not expect this scoundrel to be so courageous.

'How dare he unleash the energy of a Saint in the Iridescent Sect?'

'Is he bullying the Iridescent Sect because he thinks we're weak?'

Nek's unreasonable approach also successfully angered Nova.

As the head of the Iridescent Sect, how would the Iridescent Sect show its face outside if word got out that she let an outsider unleash his energy in the Iridescent Sect to show off in front of her, the head, while she did nothing?

Was she trying to lose her status as the head?

Even if Nek was a Saint, he could not act so recklessly in the Iridescent Sect.

The Iridescent Sect was still one of the strongest in Star Kingdom.

Nek was just a Saint and he wanted to act so recklessly here?

Nova would not allow it.

The four reputable elders would also not allow it.

Chapter 1514

"Nek! Are you provoking the Iridescent Sect?" Nova stared at Nek and asked coldly.

At this moment, she no longer had the slightest bit of respect for Nek.

Since the other party was so disrespectful, she also did not need to respect him.

"Lady Dream, you misunderstood. I only accidentally leaked a little of my energy. Didn't I withdraw it immediately? It's just a misunderstanding. It's all a misunderstanding!" Nek said with a chuckle.

Of course, he would not admit that he was provoking the Iridescent Sect.

If he summoned the four reputable elders, how would a Pre-Saint like him resist the four reputable elders who could be True Saints?

"Misunderstanding? Why does it feel like you did it on purpose? Nek, if you want to show off your strength as a Saint in the Iridescent Sect, then listen up, you've come to the wrong place. This is not where you can act recklessly," Nova roared.

"Lady Dream, it's really a misunderstanding. You also know that I just broke through to Saint Realm not long ago and haven't had time to fully grasp a Saint's power. So, when I'm emotional or in a bad mood, I will inevitably leak a little of it. Please excuse me."

Although Nek said so, his tone and expression did not seem like he was genuinely asking for forgiveness.

In his opinion, it was an honor for these people to even witness the power of a Saint.

If it were not for the four Saint Realm reputable elders in the Iridescent Sect, Nek would not be so polite. He might have already done things his way.

"Hmph!" Nova snorted heavily.

She knew that what the other party said was rubbish.

'He's been a Saint for more than a thousand years, and he hasn't fully grasped the power of a Saint? What a load of cr*p!

'Nek clearly wanted to show off by doing this.'

Nova guessed in her heart that it should be because of Celeste.

After all, as soon as she saw Nek come in, she turned her back toward him. This was obviously a little disrespectful to him.

It was normal for a Saint to have a bit of a temper.

Even so, if Nek was truly disrespecting the Iridescent Sect just now, Nova would have asked the reputable elders to suppress him.

It was just that the opponent immediately humbled himself slightly, making it very difficult for Nova to escalate this.

If a Saint provoked the Iridescent Sect, then she would have no problem getting reputable elders.

Apart from the reputable elders, no one in the sect was a Saint's opponent.

However, if Nek was acting like this, the conclusion would not be ideal even if Nova got the reputable elders involved.

At that time, it was possible that the reputable elders would blame her for making a mountain out of a molehill.

After going over the pros and cons in her mind, Nova said again, "Nek, I'm warning you. This is the Iridescent Sect, not the Simmons family. If you want to show your strength, please go back to the Simmons Continent. If you dare to reveal your energy in the Iridescent Sect, I can only ask reputable elders to suppress you."

"I said it was a misunderstanding. Why won't you believe me, Lady Dream?" Nek said helplessly.

"Misunderstanding? You have been a Saint for more than a thousand years, and now you say you can't control your power. Do you think we are fools?" Nova snapped back without hesitation.

"Lady Dream, you have no idea. A Saint and an Eternal are completely different. You're not a Saint yet, so you don't understand, and I don't blame you. When you have the opportunity, you will know that I'm telling the truth."

"I am not yet a Saint, and it's hard to say if I will be able to in this lifetime, but the reputable elders have been in Saint Realm for tens of thousands of years. Do you want me to ask the to confront about this?"

you "That's unnecessary! It's just a trivial matter, and it didn't cause any serious consequences. Why do you want to make such a fuss and alarm the four reputable elders?"

Nek still had an expression that screamed 'You can't do anything to me' on his face.

He was certain that as long as he did not go too far, Nova would not easily disturb the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.
