

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1673 –

Chapter 1673

Alba stared blankly at the smiling face in front of her, her expression a little dazed.

At the same time, her heart was beating rapidly, and her breathing also began to become heavy.

After living for so many years, this was the first time she felt such an inexplicable feeling toward a man.

One must know that Alba never felt this way even when she was with her fiancé, the man who fascinated countless women in Star Kingdom.

Alba did not feel that David was annoying when she first met him, and she did not feel that way now that she was seeing David's smiling and contagious face so close to her. Instead, she started to subconsciously fancy him.

Alba had never been an emotional person, and she had always been very rational.

She would think twice about everything.

Love was never a necessity in her life.

She had her own ideals and aspirations.

Alba never lost her mind even though the fiancé arranged for her by her family was one of the most excellent young people in Star Kingdom and was worshiped and sought after by countless women in Star Kingdom who wanted to marry him.

However, after calmly analyzing the situation of her family and the situation she would be in after marrying him, she quietly tried to escape the situation.

However, the man was too powerful and his family was one of the few top forces in Star Kingdom with a Sacred Saint. Therefore, Alba never had a chance.

Since the Fellowes family was on the weaker side, they did not have the right to break off the engagement.

Otherwise, their family's demise would be hastened if they humiliated the other party.

Hence, after Alba found out that David had an alleged Sacred Saint behind him, she thought she had a little hope.

This was the only hope she saw after so many years.

Without a Sacred Saint as support, the Fellowes family would never publicly break ties with that family.

Alba wanted to cry when she heard David's calm greetings.

She had been carrying too much burden.

She wanted to change her fate but at the same time, she wanted to prove herself and help her family out of their predicament.

Even all the youngsters and the heirs of the Fellowes family combined would not be as considerate as Alba.

Sometimes Alba figured she should not care and not think about anything since she was a woman who was not valued by her family. She felt that she should just follow the path arranged by her family.

She did not want to care what happened to her family.

She just needed to know her place and be a dutiful wife after she got married.

Unfortunately, Alba was more eager to get ahead in life than most men, so she was destined to never be able to do that.

Since her family did not value her, she would insist on proving herself.

Alba wanted to see what expression the elders and grandmasters of her family would have if she changed the Fellowes family's situation and helped them get out of their current predicament.

After David asked that, he sensed something off with Alba.

Not only did not speak, but she was also looking at him with an aggrieved expression.

'What's going on?'

He had been paying close attention to Alba, so he was sure she was not hurt.

If Alba were in danger, he would have acted much earlier.

He would not have waited until the end.

Was she scared?

This would be a little too much!

At the end of the day, Alba was the third young mistress of Treasure Trove!

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1674 –

Chapter 1674

How could she be intimidated by a beginner Sovereign Ranker?

She should have seen more than one Saints, not to mention a Sovereign Ranker.

David would never believe it if the Fellowes family said they did not have a Sacred Saint since they could control Treasure Trove, one of the Central Sacred Continent's top five trading companies.

Even though David had his doubts, he did not overthink it. Instead, he asked again, "Miss Fellowes? What's wrong? Are you hurt?"

The second question finally brought Alba back to reality.

She also felt that she had embarrassed herself.

She had only known David for a few days and was not very familiar with him. How could she show such emotions?

No matter how much wrong she suffered in the Fellowes family these years, she never thought of crying.

However, she suddenly had this urge in front of David, whom she had just met a few days ago.

This was something that this strong woman could not accept.

Alba quickly turned her head, recomposed herself, and replied, "I'm fine!"

"That's good. Don't worry, Miss Fellowes. No one will be able to hurt you when I'm around," David said confidently.

He was originally planning to find a chance to show off his skills in front of Alba and make her help him wholeheartedly.

This sudden incident was a blessing from God.

Only then did Alba remember.

David actually blocked the beginner Sovereign Ranker who wanted to catch her and saved her.

‘Does David possess the strength of Sovereign Ranker, or is he relying on the means bestowed by his Sacred Saint master?’

If it was the latter, Alba understood.

After all, a Sacred Saint was not someone ordinary people could fathom.

Even though Alba was the third young mistress of the Fellowes family, she had never met Sacred Saint.

If it was the former...

“Who are you? How dare you meddle in the affairs of the Lightfoot family? Let go of me if you’re smart and hand over the third young mistress of the Fellowes family. If you do that, I can pretend this never happened. If not, you won’t be able to bear the consequences.”

David grabbed the old man’s wrist, and the old man could not move. Knowing that the other party was stronger than himself, the old man could only threaten David with their hidden backer, hoping that David would not meddle in his business.

“Old man, you don’t have to threaten me. Now that you have made a move, I will protect Miss Fellowes. As for the Lightfoot family, I have never heard of them. If you want revenge, just come at me. I will block everything you throw at me,” David replied without hesitation.

He did not want to cause trouble as this was not in line with his low-key style.

However, he had no choice.

If he wanted to get Alba’s help, he could not just watch her get hurt.

Unfortunately, if he helped her, he would offend the family that was at odds with the Fellowes family.

Even so, this was fine since as long as he had Alba’s help. He would soon be able to break through Saint Realm.

Therefore, David decided to go all out.

“You never even heard of the Lightfoot family? It seems that you have just arrived at the Central Sacred Continent! Kid, I advise you not to meddle in other’s business. Splendor, the trading company controlled by the Lightfoot family is second-ranked among the Central Sacred Continent’s top five trading companies. Believe it or not, a word from Mr. Cornelius is enough to make your life on the Central Sacred Continent a living hell,” the old man snapped.

This kid was very powerful.

Therefore, he had to seize the opportunity and use the Lightfoot family’s background to suppress the other party.

He wanted to scare the other party.

Otherwise, it would be difficult for him to escape from this today.

David suddenly came to a realization.

It turned out that the Lightfoot family was the family behind Splendor.

As the saying goes, the people in the same field were enemies.

Splendor and Treasure Trove were both among the top five trading companies in the Central Sacred Continent.

The Lightfoot family and the Fellowes family each controlled a major trading company. Therefore, it was understandable that they did not have a good relationship with each other.

However, it was not right for the Lightfoot family to block and threaten the direct descendant of the Fellowes family like this.

‘Are the two families about to fight?’

‘Don’t merchants value harmony and believe that amiability will make them rich?’

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1675 –

Chapter 1675

“David is a guest of the Fellowes family. You first need to have the ability to make his life a living hell in the Central Sacred Continent. Besides, can Cornelius represent the Lightfoot family? I’m afraid he can’t! He’s just the second-in-line heir of the Lightfoot family. He should only brag once he surpasses Archimedes Lightfoot and becomes the number one heir!" Alba directly exposed the old man.

"Miss Alba Fellowes, Master Cornelius has come prepared this time. He has made every possible preparation so you can't escape. Just give up obediently," the old man began to threaten Alba again.

At the same time, he was also trying to find a way to escape David's control.

However, no matter how hard he tried, David's hand was like a pair of big pliers. He was tightly gripping the old man's wrist, preventing him from moving.

"Miss Fellowes, what should I do to him?" David asked, looking at Alba.

"David, if I say to kill him, can you do it?" Alba asked back.

"Kill him? Just him or everyone outside?"

"Since we have to kill, we should kill all of them. Do you want to wait for them to go get help? If you don't mind trouble, you can let them go, but you have to be careful in the future. I can protect you if you're within my family's territory, but if you leave, you can only depend on yourself. Of course, I know you will not be afraid of them, but it may expose your identity prematurely."

Alba's words gave David a lot of inspiration.

If he killed all the members of the Lightfoot family, did it mean he would not be exposed?

Otherwise, when Cornelius went back, he would surely find a way to take revenge on himself.

David could still hold on for the first few attempts.

However, what if the Lightfoot family sensed something was wrong and sent a Saint directly?

If he had not broken through to Saint Realm by then, he would simply be slaughtered.

As he thought of this, David gradually became murderous.

Celeste was still waiting for him.

Celia and the others were also waiting for his protection.

No one could disrupt his plan to become stronger.

The old man also felt a murderous intent suddenly rising from David.

His heart froze.

Without further hesitation, he exerted all of the strength in his body.

With his other free hand, he hit David with all his strength.

The blow came very suddenly.

The old man made a move almost as soon as David showed his murderous intent.

If David did not let go of him, he would have to bear the blow.

The old man wanted to catch David off guard.

If he broke free, he would not stay here but instead, he would leave immediately and go out to join the other beginner Sovereign Ranker.

After that, the two would join forces against David.

David naturally would not let him get his wish.

Now that he had decided to kill the old man, he would not waste any more time.

With a burst of strength, he grabbed the old man's hand and pulled it hard.

Then, with his other arm, he grabbed Alba and retreated quickly.

He was not afraid of the opponent's blow.

However, Alba was just a peak Ruler Ranker, so David was worried he would hurt her by mistake.

Therefore, he decided to retreat with her first.

He would wait until she was safe before killing the old man.

While David was retreating with his arms around Alba...

"Ah!" The old man suddenly let out a scream.

His sound was deafening.

All the people in the control room had to cover their ears to barely endure it.

It turned out the old man's arm was ripped off after David pulled it.

The severe pain of losing his arm made the old man howl loudly.

An Eternal could regenerate their severed limbs, but it would take some time.

Furthermore, that kind of pain was unavoidable, and it would also lead to a considerable drop in combat effectiveness.

David retreated to the corner and put Alba down. Then, he disappeared in a flash and headed toward the old man at a high speed.

At this time, the old man was still clutching the area where his missing arm had been torn off. He was in great pain.

He could feel David approaching.

At this moment, the old man could no longer care about the pain of losing his arm.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1676 –

Chapter 1676

David obviously wanted to take his life.

If he did not take extreme measures, he would die today.

The old man did cast the Eternal Golden Body without any restraints.

A huge figure rose from the Fellowes family's merchant ship.

The Eternal Golden Body would not just increase one's attack power and attack range, but it could also greatly enhance the caster's defense.

The old man cast the Eternal Golden Body at this time just to use its defensive power to prevent David's next attack.

At the same time, he could also alert the other beginner Sovereign Ranker and Master Cornelius that there was another powerhouse here.

However, David was prepared for this.

The red Evil-Splitting Sword had appeared in his hand at some point.

While the old man cast the Eternal Golden Body, David had already broken through the defense of the opponent's golden body with a wave of his sword and appeared in front of the old man.

The Eternal Golden Body was particularly vulnerable to the Evil-Splitting Sword, a first-rate Soulbound Weapon, as the sword could cut through everything in the world.

When he saw David appearing in front of him, the old man's brain could not register what was going on for a while.

He could not understand why his Eternal Golden Body failed to stop the opponent even for a moment.

"You... You..."

The old man pointed at David and only said two words.

David had already pierced his heart with the sword.

At the same time, the countless piercing energy from the Evil-Splitting Sword began to coarse through the old man's body, destroying every cell in his body and making it impossible for him to recover.

The old man looked at David with eyes full of horror.

As a beginner Sovereign Ranker, he knew the state of his body.

Countless amounts of piercing energy from the sword was destroying his body.

The old man knew that he would not survive, but he did not expect to die here today.

He had only cast one-tenth of his Eternal Golden Body before it completely disappeared.

After a while, the old man's body also dissipated into the air.

Not a single trace of it was left.

When an Eternal died, no corpse would be left behind.

If there was a corpse, it would mean that they could slowly recover themselves.

If David did not have the Evil-Splitting Sword, it would be quite difficult for David to completely kill the old man.

After all, he was only a small rank ahead of his opponent.

This was unless he used his mind power to easily destroy the old man's mind power that was still in conception. If he did that, the old man would continue to live in another form.

Being a living dead was another means of existence for Eternals.

When the mind power that was being conceived, or had been successfully conceived, was completely defeated by a greater mind power but the Eternal's body was well preserved, they would still continue to generate vitality and prevent themselves from rotting.

After a long tempering with the power of heaven and earth, they would become living dead.

These living dead had no thoughts, no emotions, and no pain.

They would also kill all the living things they laid eyes on.

Even if they were seriously injured, they would repair themselves.

They were complete killing machines.

It was said that some forces in Star Kingdom once specially created the living dead to fight for them.

They tried this technique, but it was forbidden by the rest of the human race.

Under the joint efforts of all human forces, those forces slowly disappeared in the long river of history!

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-