I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1759—"David, what's the mission your master gave you? Do you need us to help you?" Valerio asked.

"Yes, of course! But I have an agreement with Miss Fellowes, and she agreed to help me," David answered.

"What about other things? For example Archimedes and his protector Bernard. From what I know, they are out there waiting for you. Not only that, Bernard even contacted the head of Splendor's branch to ask him to set traps around here just for you."

Alba was worried. She said anxiously, "Master David, you should not go out for the time being. Archimedes won't wait for too long. As long as you're in here, he won't dare to come in to take action."

"Don't worry, Miss Fellowes. I will take care of him myself. If he dares to do anything to me, I will make sure he never returns home," David said casually.

He did not sound like he was bothered about Archimedes

David had predicted that Archimedes would wait for him out there.

After what happened in the tavern and the auction, judging from Archimedes' vengeful character, he would not spare David after being hit by these dual humiliations.

However, David was not the same as before.

Back then, he was only a mid-Sovereign Ranker. Even though he was not scared of Bernard, the late Sovereign Ranker, he was not confident he would beat him.

Now, with Archimedes' help in the auction, David was a Saint.

What was the difference between Archimedes and an ant to David now?

If the Lightfoot family did not send their Saint Realm grandmasters, it would not matter how many people they sent over.

"David, Archimedes is the first-in-line heir of the Lightfoot family after all. Moreover, not only does the Lightfoot family control Splendor, one of the top five trading companies, but they also have the Ginger family as backer. It's better to not offend them. I will mediate it and get you two to meet so you can resolve the conflict between you two. What do you think?" Valerio suggested.

"Mr. Valerio, do you think I'm scared of them?" David asked with a grin.

“I know you’re not, but ultimately, you just got here and you have a mission from your master. It’s better to avoid trouble,” Valerio explained.

David scoffed and shook his head. He said, “No, Mr. Valerio, you misunderstood me. My master gave me a mission, but before I left, he also said we shouldn’t cause trouble, but not to be afraid of anyone. No matter who they are, we will pay back ten times if they dare to bully us.”

Boom!

After he said that, David released a little of his Saint Realm energy.

The temperature of the room plummeted, causing Alba and Valerio to shiver. They felt as if they were in a ten-thousand-year-old ice cavern.

Just a second ago, it was bright and sunny.

However, in the next second, it was freezing.

The two experienced what it was like to be trapped in a combination of sharply contrasting elements.

After David did that, he retracted his energy after he had achieved his goal.

Alba was fine.

Since she was initially weak, it was normal for her to not be able to resist David’s mid- or late Sovereign

Rank energy.

On the contrary, Valerio was different.

At this moment, he was completely shocked.

As a partial Saint, he knew what the energy David released meant.

That was Saint power.

It was much purer than his.

They were on completely different levels.

Now, Valerio’s mind was blank.

No matter what, Valerio could not wrap his head around how a young man like David could be a Saint. 'Is he still human?'

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1760

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1760–The strongest one among the most talented geniuses in Star Kingdom was only a partial Saint after getting unlimited resources from their force. Among them was Anders, a peak Sovereign Ranker.

However, this harmless-looking young man in front of Valerio had secretly surpassed all the younger generation in Star Kingdom and got into Saint Realm one step ahead of them.

How unimaginable!

How unfathomable!

Valerio could not even describe David with the words genius, the chosen one, or lunatic.

'How did he do it?

'I don't think there's someone like him in the history of Star Kingdom.'

David's energy disappeared in a flash.

Alba was the first to come back to her senses.

Perhaps this was what they meant when they said 'They who know nothing fears nothing'.

She had no idea that David was already at Saint Realm, so she was not as shocked.

When she saw Grandpa Val frozen on his spot, she asked in confusion, "Grandpa Val, what's wrong? Are you okay?"

Her voice pulled Valerio, who was still stunned, back to reality.

"N-Nothing," Valerio answered, sounding a little unnatural.

He only had one voice in his heart after coming back to his senses.

'I must get on David's good side!

'This kid's master might not only be a beginner Sacred Saint. He might even be a late or peak Sacred Saint!

'From what I know, the grandmaster of the Palmore family is only a beginner Sacred Saint. Even if they are hiding their strength, that person would not be over mid-Sacred Saint Rank.

'Therefore, they would need to bow their heads respectfully in front of a late or peak Sacred Saint.

"If David's master can speak for us, then we might be able to escape the Palmore family's control effortlessly.

*This is good news for the Fellowes family!

'It seems that God doesn't want the Fellowes family to die out

'When the family was losing all hope and is about to die out, a god-like person shows up out of nowhere and runs into Alba, the direct descendant of the Fellowes family.

'Isn't he here to save us?'

Valerio thought excitedly to himself.

"Mr. Valerio, do you still think I'm scared of the Lightfoot family now? So what if their grandmaster comes for me? I still have my master even if I can't defeat them. He doesn't have a lot of good points, but he's extremely protective of me. If I was even slightly hurt by the Lightfoot family's grandmasters, my master might annihilate them if he gets mad."

"M-Master David, I was too short-sighted. If you need anything in the future, please ask. We will do our best to help you," Valerio said respectfully.

This was a world where the strong people got the final say.

Whoever was strong would be respected.

Even if Valerio was older than David, he still had to respectfully call David Master David when he was in front of a young Saint like him.

"You're too kind, Mr. Valerio. Miss Fellowes can help me. However, if your family can support Miss Fellowes, it will be amazing. As long as I can complete my mission, I will put in a few good words about your family to my master," David hinted.

He knew he had suppressed Valerio by releasing some of his Saint Realm energy.

Next, with the help of Treasure Trove, one of the top five trading companies, East League Trading Company would surely experience rapid growth.

“I understand. Alba, you should focus on helping Master David now. If you need anything, just tell me. You don't need to worry about the family, I will convince them. Remember, you must make Master David happy,” Valerio looked at Alba and said seriously.

“I got it, Grandpa Val.”
