

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 1767

• • •

Chapter 1767

“Archimedes, it’s not good to always be overconfident. It’s better to stay humble. Your family is not the decision–maker of the Central Sacred Continent and you’re not qualified to do that,” David said calmly. “Haha! What a joke! What a hilarious joke! If I can’t be the decision–maker, does it mean you can? The ignorant are indeed fearless. David, do you know what kind of family we are? Do you know us? How dare you talk nonsense here,” Archimedes mocked and laughed maniacally.

It seemed that he was trying to vent all of his dissatisfaction.

David was his prey, and he could not run.

“I don’t! But of course, I have no interest in knowing either.”

“Very good, David. I will soon let you know how strong my family is. Let’s skip the nonsense. Do you want to surrender, or do you want us to take action? You can’t escape today no matter what,” Archimedes pointed at David and said.

He could not wait to take down David.

“I never wanted to run, but I never wanted to surrender either.”

“Do you want to fight back then? Or do you want to buy time and wait for rescue? Listen to me, no one can save you today.”

“Come on then! Let me see what you have to act so arrogant in front of me,” David said casually.

His actions enraged Archimedes a lot.

From Archimedes' point of view, David should not have this kind of expression after he chased after him with so many powerhouses. David should kowtow and apologize.

Moreover, he should kneel and beg for mercy.

In the end, who would have expected that David would not take him seriously at all?

How would Archimedes accept this?

“David, you asked for this. Attack him! Take him down! I want him to wish he was dead!” Archimedes roared.

Once he said that, the late Sovereign Ranker beside him and the powerhouses behind him charged at David after turning into flashes of light.

Meanwhile, David stood his ground, waiting for them to approach him.

Archimedes was still standing on his ground. He never intended to take action.

He was already scared in the tavern.

That was the first time he had been so close to death.

Archimedes was scared, and he did not dare to approach David. He was worried that once he did, David would kill him.

Who was he?

He was the first-in-line heir of the Lightfoot family, so how could he stoop to the same level as David?

A late Sovereign Ranker was very fast.

In a blink of an eye, Bernard and the other late Sovereign Ranker were in front of David.

The two acted at the same time and they grabbed David on either side.

When they were about to touch David, David disappeared.

He vanished from where he was standing.

The two immediately stopped in their tracks and looked around curiously.

‘What happened?’

‘Why is this kid gone?’

The space around them was not moving, so it meant David did not escape through a space crack.

Even if he wanted to do that, he needed to have a chance to do so.

David could not do that under the eyes of two late Sovereign Rankers.

However, he did disappear.

The powerhouses from behind caught up with them at this moment.

Everyone had curious looks on their faces as they looked for traces of David.

Bernard remembered something and then immediately turned his head to look at Master Archi.

There was only one person there initially, but there were two shadows now.

Bernard's eyes narrowed.

'David!'

• • •