Chapter 1768

‘Oh no! Master Archi is in danger!’

Before ma

Before he could think about how David slipped away under his eyes and went to Archimedes, Bernard rushed over to save Archimedes.

At this moment, David said mockingly, “Don’t move! If my hand shakes now, Archimedes will have to say goodbye to the world.

Don’t doubt me, I have a hundred ways to kill Archimedes. Of course, if you don’t believe me, you can give it a try.”

Unbeknownst to Archimedes, David was already standing behind him. At the same time, one of his hands was on top of Archimedes’ head.

Just like how Nek treated him when he was in the Iridescent Sect.

Unfortunately, David had his powerful mind power to protect him, so he could resist Nek’s force, but Archimedes did not.

If David exerted some force, he could smash Archimedes' skull and inject Saint Power into his body. No treasures of heaven and earth would be able to save him then.

Archimedes was scared out of his wits.

He did not know when David appeared behind him. He only noticed David was behind him when David started to speak.

He did not dare to turn his head or move. He also did not dare to speak.

He was scared that David would kill him by mistake. The threat of death filled his mind.

This was the second time in Archimedes' lifetime that he got so close to death, and they were both caused by the same person.

Archimedes felt that David was his nemesis, and he was sent by God to torture him.

Before he met this kid, Archimedes thrived after living for so many yea

Now, he had fallen into David's hands twice in such a short period.

'I shouldn't have come here!'

Archimedes felt so remorseful.

David's voice worked.

Bernard was about to take action, but he stopped after hearing that.

The others were also attracted by David's voice, and they all looked over.

When they saw David holding Master Archi, they widened their eyes and did not breathe too loudly.

Archimedes was not the same as Cornelius.

The first-in-line heir and the second-in-line heir were vastly different in many aspects.

If Archimedes died, the Lightfoot family would go through an earthquake.

The entire Central Sacred Continent might even shake from its wrath.

None of the people here would be able to escape.

“David, calm down! Master Archi is the first-in-line heir of the Lightfoot family. If he dies, the entire family will be alarmed, and it might even alert the Saint Realm grandmasters. If the grandmasters take action, you will be found no matter where you hide.

Think about your friends and family. They will all be affected because of you,” Bernard said loudly.

As Archimedes’ protector, he would also be punished severely by the family if he watched Archimedes die in front of him and did nothing.

They might even make him a burial offering for Archimedes.

“Don’t do anything! Please don’t! We can talk about this. We can talk about this, Sir,” the other late Sovereign Ranker said quickly.

The people Archimedes brought were all worried that Archimedes would die, regardless of if they were Immortal Rankers or Sovereign Rankers.

David ignored those people.

He continued teasing Archimedes behind him, “Archimedes, why are you not speaking? Are you scared? Will you also feel scared too? Didn’t you want me to wish I was dead? You even said you want to uproot the force behind me and annihilate my bloodline, huh?”

“D–Dávid, p–please don’t do anything stupid! Y–You w–won’t benefit from my death. W–Why don’t you let me go and then we’ll go our separate ways, w–what do you think?”

Archimedes stammered.

He was already scared out of his wits now that he was facing death.
