Chapter 1807

This time, the Palmore family did not use their family name to invite the major forces to attend Anders' party for breaking through to partial Saint Realm.

Instead, they used Anders' name as one of the Star Kingdom Six to invite all the geniuses of the younger generation to attend a party half a month later.

In other words, this party would only consist of young people.

No seniors would attend this party.

The reason the Palmore family did this was to increase Anders' prestige.

When everyone had equal strength, Anders would need a reason to promote himself.

Even though Anders was not the first partial Saint in the Star Kingdom Six, he was the youngest.

Therefore, this was a very good approach.

He could use this to further strengthen his status as the most talented among the younger generation in Star Kingdom.

This would be very helpful for him to take over his family in the future.

All of the younger generations in Star Kingdom who got the invitation were very excited. They all stated that they would attend on time.

This was because their status as Star Kingdom's genius was acknowledged after receiving this invitation.

Even though the other five did not like what Anders was doing, they could not stop him. By doing this, Anders was regarding himself as the number one among the younger generation in Star Kingdom.

He did not discuss this with the other five before hosting his party.

Who did he think he is?

They even discussed whether they should not attend to see what Anders would do.

If five out of the Star Kingdom Six were not there, this would become Anders' one man show.

By then, it would be very interesting.

Anders just became a partial Saint, and he was the youngest, so he already regarded himself as the number one among the younger generation in Star Kingdom and the leader of the Six.

This caused him to feel great about himself and he did not realize how inappropriate he was acting.

He was waiting to suppress the other five and become the leader of the Star Kingdom Six in half a month.

When the time came, he would become the number one among the younger generation in Star Kingdom, and not one of the Star Kingdom Six.

The Pamore family's reputation would also skyrocket to a new height.

The Iridescent Sect in the Iridescent Continent. Selena was walking from her residence to where Celia and the others lived.

As the personal disciple of Nova, the head of the sect, and also one of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect, Selena had a very high status.

Thus, she lived in a different place from Celia and the others.

A lot of people in the Iridescent Sect would greet her respectfully when they saw her.

Everyone knew that if there were no accidents, Selena would be the future core of the Iridescent Sect.

Selena was walking around when she ran into a few sect members. They were all wearing clothes meant for the disciples of the sect.

When they saw Selena, they quickly moved out of the way and stood at one side. At the same time, they greeted Selena respectfully, "Hello, Selena."

Selena nodded.
